Art. 8. This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of this Union at any regular meeting, notice of such amendment being given to each local society four weeks previous.

Above read and adopted. A nominating committee was then appointed to report at evening session. Meeting then adjourned until 7.30 p. m. At the appointed hour a large number assembled. Meeting opened in usual form after which minutes of previous meeting was read and adopted. Nominating committee made the following nominations, which were accepted: President, Rev. J. L. Smith; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Jacob Potter, Mrs. Chas. Cushing, Miss Cora West, Rev. D. T. Porter; Secretary, Miss Lizzie V. Prosser; Treasurer, Miss Lavina Sargent.

The following resolution was read and adopted: In view of the great good secured to some of our churches through the organization of the Young People into societies of their own in connection with the churches:

Therefore resolved that this Union urge upon all F. B. churches the duty and privilege of such organization of their Young People. The meeting was then addressed by Rev. Jos. West, Miss Edna Wile, (Missionary elect to India), Mrs. C. W. Wilson, and Rev. B. Parker. Meeting closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

LIZZIE V. PROSSER, Secretary.

NEW LIGHTS.—Incandescent Electric Lights are being put in the Carlton F. C. Baptist church. The sacred edifice will be lit with electricity for the first time on Sunday next. —Globe.

FROM REV. J. NOBLE.—I again report myself. When I left Conference I attended the funeral of brother Joseph Ebbett, after which I filled an appointment in Jerusalem. I availed myself of the opportunity of visiting some old friends, in Hibernia, who have passed through affliction since I last saw them; I spent the day visiting them. Arriving at Jerusalem, I went to see a family whose eldest daughter was very weak, but who seemed very reconciled to her lot; I talked with her and prayed with the family, and tried to speak comforting words to the sorrowing mother. I then went to see an old lady with whom I have been long acquainted, and talked and prayed with her. From there I went to see an old brother who has lost his speech, not being able to speak above a whisper; he is a man who for years has loved the Lord, but never could get confidence enough to take a public stand. Many a time I have seen him in meeting when I believed he would like to say something, but his timidity overcame him. Next morning I went to another part of the settlement to visit a family which has been much in my mind ever since my last visit there. In the afternoon the monthly conference was held; it was a good meeting. Brother Lewis was present and gave me a most cordial welcome. Sunday morning brother Lewis went to his appointment in another part of his field, and I remained there. In the evening we met at the Village, Hampstead. It was a good day to us both. Monday I left for Woodstock, reaching home Thursday, Friday afternoon I went to Lower Brighton; was with brother Swim in the morning, and in the evening at Victoria Corner. The next Saturday and Sunday I was at Caverhill; the following Saturday and Sunday morning at Campbell Settlement, where I received one into the church; in the evening I was at Southampton, and returned home on Monday. The people at Campbell Settlement are getting along well with their meeting house; they are hoping to get into it before winter sets in.

J. NOBLE.

Nov. 15: 93.

SEAL COVE, GRAND MANAN.—The church building at Seal Cove has been much improved lately. The roof has been shingled, and the whole building painted, the interior has been thoroughly repaired and painted and grained.

The cost of the improvements was about $400, nearly all of which has been paid, and the small balance will be paid at once. The church was opened on the 6th inst. Mr. S. J. Parsons, the S. S. worker, was with the pastor Rev. J. D. Harvey, at the opening. The congregations were large, and it was a good day for the church. The religious interest there is good, and the brethren are feeling encouraged in their work.

SOUTHERN HEAD, GRAND MANAN.—On the 6th inst. Rev. J. D. Harvey held a meeting in the school house at Southern Head; and Bro. Mark Aggett, President of the Parish S. S. Association, organized a Sunday school there. Bro. W. B. McLaughlin is superintendent. A promising beginning was made, and good is expected to result from this christian work.

WHITEHEAD, GRAND MANAN.—Rev. J. D. Harvey, who was pastor at Seal Cove and Grand Harbour last year, has been engaged at Whitehead for the present year. The interest in the church there is good. It has the largest Sunday School on the Island.

A bell is to be put into the church tower this Fall.

GRAND HARBOUR, GRAND MANAN.—The church at Grand Harbour is getting along very well. They have an excellent Sunday School there.

Many people suffer for years from troublesome and repulsive sores, boils, and eruptions, without ever testing the marvelous curative properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The experiment is, certainly, worth trying. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla and no other.

P. O.—Rev. G. W. Foster's P. O. address is now Mouth Keswick, York Co.

LATE.—The INTELLIGENCER last week was late in reaching some of the subscribers. The delay was caused by the press getting out of order.

HIS NINETEETH BIRTHDAY.—Neal Dow, the father of prohibition, will be ninety years of age if he lives till March next. The World's W. G. T. U. intends to celebrate the day.

TEMPERANCE REVIVAL.—Mr. T. E. Murphy, a temperance evangelist, has conducted a most successful series of meetings in Waterbury, Conn. Eight thousand people have signed the total abstinence pledge.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Free Baptist, Minneapolis, comes to us in new form, though not reduced in size. It now has eight large instead of sixteen small pages. The change is, we think, an improvement. The Free Baptist is a good paper, and deserves the hearty support of our western brethren, success to it.

IMPOSTORS.—A short time ago a negro was arrested in New Haven, Conn., as an impostor who had visited several of the churches as a converted Zulu, sung songs in the costume of his tribe, and taken collections. A gentleman who witnessed his performance in one church recognized him as one whom he had seen in a Western city impersonating Tippecanoe, and handed him over to the police. Dr. Buckley, of the Christian Advocate, estimates that there are no less than three hundred impostors traveling about the country and imposing on the credulity of ministers and churches as reformed drunkards, spurious evangelists, representatives of charitable societies, needy churches, etc.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—Female suffrage has gained a victory in New Zealand. A bill has been passed which confers the right of franchise upon women, and the election of December will be held upon the new suffrage. Thus, for the first time a portion of the British Empire will be governed by the equal votes of men and women.

A DEMONSTRATION.—On the return of Mr. Ellis to St. John, last week, from his thirty days confinement in jail he was given a warm welcome by a host of friends. There were bands, addresses, a meeting in the Institute &c. It was a strong protest against the petty tyranny of the court which thought its dignity injured by a sharp criticism. It is doubtful if the N. B. court will again be guilty of such folly.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE.—Sir John Allan, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, had a stroke of paralysis on Tuesday night of last week. He was at St. Andrews holding court. His whole right side was affected. He is reported improving, but it is thought doubtful that he will be able again to take his place on the bench. He is past seventy-five years of age. Highly esteemed by all who know him, there is universal regret at his ill health.

A PRESENT.—At Sussex, on the 13th inst, a number of ladies and gentlemen of the Free Baptist church visited Rev. B. H. Nobles at his home, and presented him with a silver headed ebony cane, as a token of their appreciation of his faithful service during his pastorate of their church in Sussex 1893. The head of the cane bears the inscription: To Rev. B. H. Nobles, by the ladies of his church, Sussex. The presentation was made in a very graceful manner by Miss Blanche Gosline, to whom much credit is due in connection with the pleasant little affair. Judge Wallace spoke pleasingly for the ladies. Mr. Nobles made an appropriate acknowledgment of the kindness of his friends. Miss Worden, the organist of the church, executed some choice music during the evening.

The smallest "cat-boil" is large enough to show that the blood needs purifying—a warning which, if unheeded, may result, not in more boils, but in something very much worse. Avert the danger in time by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Cured others, will cure you.

A PLEASANT VISIT.—Mr. John O. Flanders, of Long Island, Tobique, writes of a pleasant visit made to the home of his boyhood, Bellisle, K. Co., and other places. He was at Conference, as a delegate from the first district, and enjoyed it much. He met many old friends there. He speaks of the kindness received from Mr. and Mrs. Marshall who entertained him during the session. He says: "I spent a Sabbath at Tennant's Cove; the prayer meetings, morning and evening were refreshing. By the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Jenkins I was given the pleasure of meeting a large number of my old friends one evening at their house. It was a most enjoyable evening. Mr. J. also drove me to see a number of others. It did me great good to visit the old scenes, and to see so many old and dear friends, and to find them enjoying so much prosperity."

PENITENTIARIES.—The report of the penitentiaries of Canada for the past year has been issued. The prison population on June 30th was 1,194, of which 34 were females. The number of convicts is apportioned as follows: Kingston, 481; Quebec, 374; New Brunswick 178; Manitoba, 71; British Columbia, 90. Of the institution at Dorchester the report speaks favorably. It says the conduct of the prisoners is good with a few exceptions.

Whatever may be the cause of blanching, the hair may be restored to its original color by the use of that potent remedy Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

SUNDRIES.—Black means nothing as a badge of mourning in China, Japan and Siam. White is the color of grief there. . . . A missionary in Chin-shoo China, recently received a letter from a banker asking him to recommend ten or more Christians to be employed in his bank, "because," he said, "the Christians are the only trustworthy men in the city. . . . Dr. Baumann, a German explorer, has found a tribe called the Warundi living between the Nile and Lake Tanganyika, who claim to have been governed by a line of kings descended from the moon.

"If you must know, ma'am," said the doctor, "your husband won't live twenty-four hours." "Good Gracious!" ejaculated the heart-broken woman; "and here you've gone and prescribed medicine enough for five days."

"Oh dear!" sighed Widow Jenkins, "if John had made a will, there wouldn't have been all this trouble about the property." "Do the lawyers bother you?" "Bother me? They most worry me to death. I declare, I sometimes wish John hadn't died."

There is said to be one office at Washington for which there is no competition. It is that of interpreter at the post office. The incumbent must speak six languages, and receives $600 a year.

Worth, the great Paris dressmaker, says that some years ago a Peruvian housewife paid his firm $30,000 for a single gown, $20,000 being the cost of the lace alone. A few weeks ago he sold a cloak for $12,000 of which $10,000 went for the fur.

On the ninth day of the first month every Egyptian was obliged to eat a fried fish before the door of his house, except the priest, who burned instead of eating the fish. The revenues arising from the fisheries of Lake Moeris were given to the Queen of Egypt for pin money, and are stated to have amounted to something like $400,000 annually.

Hood's and Only Hood's
Hood's Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper berries and other well known remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative powers not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures when other preparations fail.

Literary Notes.

We call attention to 3 beautiful anthems received from J. Fischer & Bro., No. 7 Bible House, New York.

(1) Hail to the Day. Solo and Chorus Christmas Anthem, by A. Diabelli. Price 20 cts. (2) Praise ye the Lord. Solo and Chorus, by J. Wiegand. Price 35 cts. (3) Angel bands in strains sweet sounding. Solo and Chorus, by J. Wiegand. Price 25 cts.

We feel safe in predicting for these new Anthems a welcome by directors of church-choirs who are in search of pleasing and effective Christmas-music. The reputation of the composers is well illustrated in these most excellent and well written choruses. They are marked by melodious beauty, religious feeling, and commend their use for both church and home.

The November Number of Harper's Magazine completes the eighty-seventh volume in a manner worthy the long life and high character of that periodical. The opening article is the second in description of a journey from the Black Sea to the Persian Gulf by Caravan. Engravings of fourteen drawings accompany the article. There is a timely paper on "Arbitration," and also "Riders in Turkey," and "A Reminiscence of Stephen A. Douglas." Poems, and the usual departments of comment, record, and humor, fill out a strong and attractive Number.

R. CHESTNUT & SONS:
GRATEFUL, PLEASING RELIEF
AFTER MANY DAYS.

Now a Queens County Man Found
Permanent Healing.

Own Experience Tells Fully and Freely some Truths which all Readers of this Paper Should Know.

Here and there, in almost every town of our province, are "chronic" cases over which doctors disagree; cases that become worse year after year. It is to reach such that the gentleman to whom these lines refer, and whose portrait is here given, has written the story of his case.

Mr. Branscomb's home is in Chipman, Queens Co., N. B.

It was there that a representative of the Groder company called upon him, Sept. 1st, of the present year. His greeting was most cordial. He gladly acknowledged his thanks, giving expression to the following statement:

"It is five years since I first became afflicted with a form of indigestion. Last winter it became more severe, developing into chronic diarrhoea. I cannot tell you how much I suffered for SIX LONG WEEKS. It seemed as though relief could not be found. You will remember how I told you of my condition and asked your advice about taking a bottle of GRODER'S SYRUP. You told me that the medicine was a laxative and might not meet my needs. I delayed buying for a few hours until I began to hope that it would help me. Even my clothes seemed a burden because of bloating of stomach. It was with difficulty that I kept about sufficiently to attend to my business."

"But I am a well man now from the use of your remedy. In three days after I bought GRODER'S SYRUP the terrible pain and distress across my stomach were removed. My bowels rapidly assumed a natural, healthy condition. Now I eat and drink as well as I ever could. I have gained constantly in flesh since March last. I am perfectly cured."

It seems a duty for me to state my case fully, that others who suffer as I did may know where to find a cure."

Truly yours,
E. A. BRANSCOMB.
