Literary Notes.

Mr. Howell's literary autobiography begins in the Christmas Ladies' Home Journal, and will continue through a year's numbers of that magazine.

Edward Bok says that of 5000 poems which come into his editorial office during a year, not fifty, if printed, would be read with any degree of patience by the public.

The Christmas number of Harper's Magazine will follow the example of good cheer and fine attire set by the season. The illustrations will be unusually varied and attractive.

Littell's Living Age for 1894. As a channel through which we receive the richest fruits gleaned from the vast field of foreign literature, the ripest productions of the most brilliant intellects, this standard weekly magazine stands before the literary world without a peer.

In addition to the productions of the leading British writers, The Living Age will publish during 1894 selected works of other noted European authors translated expressly for it. A story of thrilling interest, from the French of Paul Perres, will be begun in the first January issue, which is the opening number of a new series and begins the 200th volume of the magazine. Its prospectus for 1894 is well worth attention in selecting one's reading matter for the coming year.

Special and generous offers are made to new subscribers, Littell & Co., Boston, publishers.

The Pulpit for November is a treat to those who care for sermonic literature. The discourse on "The Name Above Every Name" was suggested by the recent parliament of religions. "The Two-fold Gospel is intended to awaken interest in good works and develop enthusiasm along the line of religious activity. Other sermons follow "Rival Theories of Salvation," "The Simplicity of Life," "Praise and Thanks giving," "National blessings," "Helps and Hindrances to National Progress" Dr. Cuyler gives "Glimpses of Heaven." Such a collection of thoughtful sermons ought to have a wide circulation, especially among Christian workers. Subscription price, $1.50 a year; single copies, 15 cents. EDWIN ROSE, Publisher, Buffalo, N. Y.

The New Education is the name of a monthly magazine which aims to "unify" the teachings of home, kindergarten, and school. It furnishes methodical courses of procedure, working programs, manual and intellectual occupations, stories, songs, games, studies of child growth and of child-nature, discussions of various methods of training and teaching, of guiding the children in play and in work.

Spence of Toronto, and the present issue is devoted mainly to the prohibition question, which has so prominent a place in the minds of Canadian people just now. The Vanguard is a magazine form, sixty four pages, and both neat and attractive in its get up. The November number, which we have received, contains a vast amount of information, which must be practically invaluable to students of the temperance question. In a certain old-fashioned house in London there is a room about twelve feet square that is entirely papered with postage-stamps. It is estimated by Mr. Palmer, the largest stamp-dealer in the world, that those stamps would be worth $5,000,000 but for the unfortunate circumstance that not one of them is genuine. Mr. Palmer extracted these forgeries from collections that he had bought from time to time.

The Mail "Mrs. Brown-Jones, ma'am." The Mistress: "Oh, such a bore! Tell her I'm out, Janet." The Maid "Yes'm." The Mistress: But stay. What kind of a dress is she wearing?" The Maid: "A new one ma'am; and it looks just like a late Parisian style." The Mistress: "Gracious! Tell her I'll be down without a moment's delay."
