Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsa-

"It affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. My son was afflicted with great pain in the joints, accompanied with swelling so bad that he could not get up stairs to bed without crawling on hands and knees. I was very anxious about him, and having read

Hundreds of Evangelistic leaflets have been distributed this year by our Literature Committee. In as far as our low treasury will allow money is taken to subscribe for papers helpful in the different lines of working of this Department. The Literature Committee have also the helps of a few members who print prettily by hand. · Poems especially adapted to invalids are made up by them into dainty book-Mottoes in shields, comforting lets. and cheering thoughts in various other devices are also produced by the pens and brushes of these workers. Our committee have found another good field for work, that they have only begun to cultivate. A small circulating library of carefully selected literature, has been started, and is being used to good purpose in loaning books to invalids, and old people in the town and the near country settlements, through God's help, as when Gideon have been suggested by the needs and also in as far as they are made known to us, to others who need or pitchers, and trumpets, overthrew alone has been our teacher, but we appreciate the reading of such volumes.
