RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

Light and Shade.

There is no vale so low It cannot see the sun, And a soft after-glow Comes when the storm is done, And Baca hears the laugh of springs, The silent beat of angels' wings.

There is no mountain height We climb so wearily But keeps the heavens in sight, With visions fair to see; And in the mountain cloud we fear Is light and peace, for Christ is here.

There is no path we tread But leads to richer grace; The stars are overhead, And in the desert place The wanderer finds the golden stairs, God's angels meet him unawares.

There is no cup we drink Of mingled myrrh and wine, But, sweeter than we think, It makes the life to shine; Gethesmane itself is fair, Soon as we find the Christ is there.

There is no heavy cross But borne for him is light, And what at morn was loss We count as gain at night; For he who seeks God's will alone, Behind the cross beholds the throne.

The throne of love and power-Which never sets to him-We gild each passing hour; The flaming seraphim Have no deep joy he nay not know, For God and heaven are here below. -Rev. Henry Burton, M. A.

In the Quicksands.

The following graphic delineation of ascene of subtle danger and certain death is from the pen of Victor Hugo: "It sometimes happens on certain coasts of Brittany or Scotland that a man, traveller or fisherman, walking on the beach of a low tide, far from the bank, suddenly notices that for several minutes he has been walking with some difficulty. The strand shakes; and disappears. It is the ner in which you hear. earth drowning man. The earth filled with the ocean becomes a trap. It presents itself like a plain, and opens like a wave." What a picture of subtle deception, delusion, allurement to danger, unconscious and gradual entanglement in the meshes of death, slow, certain, and such things has a degree of vanity at least in this instance it was best at length conscious, but helpless descent that is out of harmony with the spirit every way that he should carry out of the Master he falsely represents. his purpose. into the abyss of death ! And yet how aptly does it illustrate the moral career But there are men who never say a and destiny of many a young man in this sinful world of ours. There are quicksands in the moral and spiritual world as well as in the natural. They lie along the coasts of the saloon, the doubt as to their relations with him. gaming table, the theatre, the "social evil." No dauger is visible on the A word of encouragement may surface. It all seems to be solid induce a confidence that will be of incalculable benefit to both. A further ground. But he who enters these encouragement may be afforded by the coasts is putting his feet into the gift of a good and useful book just now treacherous sands. He may fear no and then. Be sure that it is one that danger. He may laugh at the voice will be of value to him in preaching or of warning. He may for a time lift in the prosecution of his work. A new his feet lightly, in token of his freeand useful book just on the market dom. He may at first be able tu may be of sufficient benefit to kindle retrace his steps. But soon he finds new thoughts, stimulate inquiries on a his feet becoming heavy. They begin large scale, and widen the intellectual to sink into the sand. And it is not and spiritual grasp of the preacher. long until he finds return to be no Other articles may be given that will easy thing. And soon it is impossible. be appreciated, but do not give him He is hopelessly engulfed. He begins useless things. That is almost worse to see his danger now, but it is too than giving nothing at all. Then pay late to avert it, or escape from it. He is alarmed, he cries out for help, he him his salary. It compromises pleads for deliverance, but he goes minister when you compel him to bordown deeper and deeper at every step. row money, or to do without those He begins to see home, and friends, things that are essential to his comfort and health, and reputation, and hope and happiness. No man can do the best work for his church and people itself receding. He is going down. when he is embarrassed for the care He is being engulfed. He is already and comfort of his family. It gives more than half buried. He is but the remnant of a man. The very sands the minister and the church prestige when he can pay cash as he goes. I upon which he trod so gaily, at the starts suspicions, and sometimes outset are now becoming his winding evokes mean insinuation, when he is sheet. This is the life picture of the forced to ask the loan of money. Pay young man who permits himself to beyour preacher, and do it promptly. come the patron of the saloon, or to Visit his family. In some places the be drawn into the gambler's snare, or parsonage is shunned as if it were into the house of "her whose steps prison; in other places it is property take hold on hell," or even to become made as common as a hotel. One a habitual attendant upon the modern practice is as vicious as the other. The theater. "Oh, that men were wise that they understood this ! that they preacher's family has as much claim to would consider their latter end !" What privacy as any other family. But if the preacher and his wife are expected young man would deliberately, in the to do all the visiting, you require of full knowledge of its meaning, and in them that you do not ask of others, the full conviction of its reality, enter and what you are unwilling to do upon a career of which this is the true yourselves. portraiture? How constantly, there. If you know some fact that will be fore, should it be held up before the of advantage to him, such as an un eyes of the young, that they may see churched family he may be able to not only the awfulness of the end of reach. or some sick one that will be such a career, but also the subtle blessed by his ministrations, tell him danger that lurks at its threshold. or drop him a note. Don't let him find it out some other way, or accuse Help Your Minister. him of neglect of duty if he does not find it out at all. Dear reader, think He has the most solemn and reof these things. - Methodist Protestant. sponsible office in the world. He is sin, he writes back, I would like to An apprecative word from you will begin life over again among the people help him much. There are men who who were affected by my evil examples are common flatterers. They say all I want to show them that I am leading kinds of extravagent things to the a new life. We appreciate the honor minister after every sermon. The able character of this man's intention. man who is moved and flattered by If not always best to seek the old field,

Now, will not the new disciples of word to the pastor. They take pride this past winter do this-openly, in the fact. It must be difficult indeed heartily, in the presence of those who to preach to such men. They exhibit have seen and been influenced by unno sympathy, express no interest, and | belief and sin, attest a living faith and leave the minister in painful, anxious demonstrate the new life just entered into? Do it as openly and effectively as possible, and leave results with him who crowns his blessing every noble action. - The Christian at Work.

Beyond.

There is a right way and a wrong way of looking at almost everything. Spiritual discernment is a very important grace, for many of our sorrows proceed from our method of locking at those things which concern our peace. Salvation depends upon a right view of Jesus Christ. The difference between the impenitent sinner and the same person after he is regenerated is, that he looks at Christ that he needs.

How prone we are to regard many of God's dealings in a wrong light, and to call them by wrong names ! We speak of things as afflictions which are really great blessings under a dark found, and I did eat them, and they disguise. We often congratulate people on gaining what turns out to be a dangerous snare or a lamentable loss. Quite as often we condole with them over occurrences which are about to yield them blessing more precious than may go through the whole day. A gold. Be careful how you condole will hold you accountable for the man- disgraced himself, and repented of his but it is half the Saviour's power. Study human nature after your Bible. Be with your people. Spend your afternoons studying the doorplates and calling. You've got to be popular; ic's your duty to be popular. I don't mean that sort of popularity that veers with every wind. A man of that stamp is not popular, however he may try to be. but the popularity which comes from people whom you love and who love you. If they love you they'll stand everything from you, and if they don't love you they won't stand anything. So you needn't try to suit your views to those of the pews at all times. It isn't necessary. Just be sincere, and true, and loving, and keep your hands on the shoulders of your people .-Telescope.

Soul Food.

Some Christians die of starvation. They surfeit the inner man with secular stimulants of all sorts-with spiced books of fiction, with "light reading" that is mere sillabub. Many swallow little else than their daily newspaper. The moral faculties become debilitated on this flimsy diet. Now, all the athletic Christians-all those who can carry heavy loads, do thorough work, and stand a long pull-are hungry feeders on God's book. Nothing will impart sinew and muscle to your piety with a new eye, and has discovered like the thorough study and digestion him to be the very Saviour and Guide of your Bible. A good sermon must be digested, or it will be of little use to you; daily bread of the Bible must go through the same process in order that it may be assimilated and taken into your spiritual fibre. "Thy words were were the joy of mine heart," said the old-time saint. One strong Bible text lodged in the memory and turned over and well digested will be breakfast for your soul, and in the strength of it you soldier is never in so good a trim for

Uthers Uures

JULY 4 18:4

Will cure You, is a true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparillwhen taken for diseases originating in impure blood ; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truth. fully applied to other preparations, which unprincipled dealers will recommend. and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsa. parilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation. and made a record for cures, that has never been equalled by other prepara. tions. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people,

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ceased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."-H. L. Jar. mann, 33 William st., New York City.

00 Prepared by Dr J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

31.

He had I make his weeks la ing this eight ru for him though As a 1 by relat parilla y cine a tr

of Marc only a improve could n

which h

ceding t with Ho

and go

He has

for eigh

has bee

outgroy

rapidly limp re

H

Hood's

Mc8H

"C. I. He

for what

years ag

attacked

had to ge

he was badly de lanced ju

second s

Agonizir

to be mo

"I can

Anoth Health Perfect

Cive

_

JULY

Joy

beneath his feet is like pitch; his soles stick to it; it is sand no longer-it is glue. The beach is perfectly dry, but at every step he takes, as soon as he lifts his feet, the print which it leaves fills with water. The eye, however, has noticed no change. The immense strand is smooth and tranquil; all the sand has the same appearance; nothing distinguishes the surface which is solid from that which is no longer so; the joyous little cloud of sand fleas continue to leap tumultuously over the wayfarer's feet. The man pursues his way, goes forward, inclines to the land, endeavors to get nearer the upland. He is not anxious. Anxious about what? Only he feels somehow as if the weight of his feet increases with every step he takes. Suddenly he sinks in. He sinks in two or three inches. Decidedly he is not on the right road; he stops to take his bearings. All at once he looks at his feet. His feet have disappeared. The sand covers them. He draws his feet out of the sand; he will retrace his steps; he turns back; he sinks in deeper. The sand comes up to his ankles; he pulls himself out, and he throws himself to the left; the sand is half-leg deep. He throws himself to the right: the sand comes up to his shins. Then he recognizes with unspeakable terror that he is caught in the quicksand, and that he has beneath him the fearful medium in which a man can no more walk than a fish can swim. He throws off his load, if he has one, lightens him. self like a ship in distress. It is already too late; the sand is above his knees. He calls, he waves his hat or handkerchief; the sand gains on him more and more. If the beach is deserted, if the land is too far off, if there is no help in sight, it is all over. He is condemned to that appalling burial, long, infallible, implacable, impossible to slacken or co hasten, which endures for hours, which will not end, which seizes you erect, free, in full health. which draws you by the feet, which at every effort that you attempt, at every shout that you utter, drags you a little deeper, sinking you slowly into the earth while you look upon the horizon, the trees, the green fields, the smoke of the villages on the plains, the sails of the ships upon the sea, the birds ny10 the s down move howle despa the s he is arma the by t > to pi sobs sand reach visib sand gaze the flutt to th tion lax

the ambassador of Christ. His duties are varied and delicate. He must not only be faithful to his commission, preaching the truth as it is in Christ Jesus, and exhorting sinners to repentance, but he is to be a wise pastor, a good shepherd of the flock. He must be the cause-and this does not great lead his people, from the youngest to | ly matter, blessed be the prosperity, the oldest, in the paths of righteous- and equally the panic that brings to ness. He must rebuke-sometimes; Christ-the fact is certain. One quesbut it must be done in the spirit of love and with the tenderest regard for much the kindness of Christians tothe best interests of the erring one. How can you help your pastor ?

ject to the same trials, discouragements and perplexities as other men. Indeed, his position often requires greater courage, keener discrimination and the solution of more perplexing problems than other men. If he is often carried to a throne of grace in the to hear his words as addressed to Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D. D. prayers of his people, many difficulties will be removed, a closer bond of love and co-operation will be sustained. Pray for your minister.

and regular attendance at the house of worship. A man who can be comfortfrom the church is either too indiffer-

" If Ye Love Me. "

There have been abu dant indications the past winter of very widespread religious interest. Whatever tion may be however asked, How ward the desitute and the unemployed this winter has to do, first in at You can pray for him every day. tracting people to Christ thus exempli-He needs enlightenment, discretion, fied, and secondly, in securing the consecration. He is human and sub- blessing of him who measures his reward according to the deed done-"Inasmuch as ye did it unto these ye did it unto me.

themselves. Jesus made this the

If they loved him, of course their needed as much as ever to be told of You can encourage him by prompt character and conduct would corres- the danger and of the way to safety. pond. Let the new disciples of the Heaven and hell are not obsolete; they winter hear the appeal, "If ye love are tremendous realities. Freach the able while his people show their lack me. They seek the love of Christ, book; God Almighty never asked anyof appreciation by frequent absence and they think they do love him. Let body to defend it. Preach the book; them at once be out-and-out in the the minister who wastes time defendent to the Church's interest to succeed declaration of their purpose, giving ef- ing it is an idiot. God asks no one to in his work, or too much concerned fect by their deeds of practical benefi- defend his book. He will attend to about other matters to be solicitous for cence. An editor who for years had been that himself. Preach it, and preach it with a man who has lost his money battle as after a sound sleep and a and saved his character, and be equally careful how you congratulate a man who has made a million of dollars at the expense of his religion.

Once more we repeat that there is right and a wrong way of looking at all things. To the eye that has spiritual discernment this world is an avenue of the one which lies beyond it. Talents, wealth and influence are simply loans to be held in trust for God. High station means high work for him. Christianized eye sees in money just so much bread for the hungry, just so much Gospel for the godless, and just so many lifts for the degraded-as well as innocent and refining enjoy ments for one's own heart and house hold. Christ's image and superscription ought to be on every dollar. To a truly regenerated soul all things be come new, and we may well doubt the genuineness of that conversion which does not bring an altered estimate of everything earthly. Faith breaks the false charm of this world and adds a charm to the better world. My friend, "thou has well seen " when thou dost behold Jesus Christ as the Lord of thy life, his service thy sweetest occupation, and his presence thy perpetual joy .---Rev. T. L. Cuyler, D. D.

Never Defend the Scriptures.

The mission of the minister of the gospel is to preach the word, not to defend it. The gospel is its own best defense. Where it is preached in its simplicity and power, and where men receive it to their hearts, their char-Those who this past winter have acter and life are transformed. The consecrated themselves to Christ, following wise advice to young minisshould listen with eagerness and joy ters is from that prince of preachers, In addressing the young men he basis of an appeal to those who seemed assured them that human nature was to be his disciples, namely their love. as sinful as ever and as suffering. Men square morning meal: it is not easy to fight or to march on a empty stomach. In like manner every servant of Jesus Christ must recruit his or her spiritual strength by reading Christ's words and thinking about them, by meditation, by prayer, and soul converse with God. I have always observed that the light readers and light thinkers make light Christians, and those who neglect the ir Bibles and closets soon dwindle into dwarfs. Having no depth of root, their religion withers away .- Selected. viz :- Purity of Material used-Adaption to relief of disease-Value for the money The Christian life can be made more invested beautiful by being in touch with Christ himself as well as those who love Christ.

No family living in a bilious country should be without Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. A few doses taken now and then will keep the Liver active, cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilicus matter and prevent Ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Shoals, Martin Co., Ind., writes: "I have tried a box of Parmelee's Pills and find them the best medicine for Fever and Ague I have ever used.

GENTLEMEN. - For a number of years suffered from deafness, and last winter I could scarcely hear at all.] applied Yellow Oil and I can hear as well as anyone now. Mrs. Tuttle Cook, Weymouth, N. S.

A Short Road to health was opened to those suffering from chronic cough, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, lumbago, tumors, rheumatism, excoriated nipples or inflamed breast, and kidney complaints, by the introduction of the inexpensive effective remedy, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil.

HON. G. W. ROSS,

wonde good c as any having alway Sarsaj Exeter Hoo oasy in Answers all these requirements 1st. Nothing but the purest and fine Norway Cod. Liver Oil used.

of Cod Liver Oil

2nd. Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphitt in a palatable and readily digested form has always been recognized as the best remedy for Coughs, Colds and disease of the Lunes.

Wiley's Emulsion

3rd. Wiley's Emulsion is without any question the best value in the market. Ful dose of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Large t bottle for the money, equal to many preparations of twice the cost

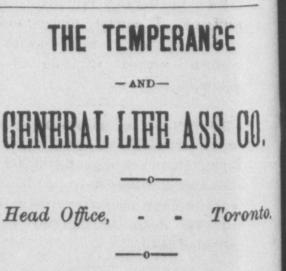

PRICE, 50 CTS.

Six Bottles $2.50.

BOOT CAULKS.

Just received and in stock.

150,000 Lumbarman's Boot Caulks For sale low by JAMES S. NEIL

· PRESIDENT H. SUTHERLAND, - MANAGER.

and singing, the sunshine and	its welfare. But when your absence is	hostile to a certain gentleman, and in	without a tremor of the lip or a tremb-	When the usual remedies and even
ky. The victim attempts to sit	noted and inquired after; when the	his newspaper criticised the gentlemans	ling of the knees. I trust that neither	The best physicians fail.
, to lie down, to creep. Every	minister puts himself to the trouble to	character actions, saw reason to change	of you has ever been hamstrung for a	Entirely vegetable, innocent, and	Full Government Deposi ment he makes inters him. He	call to learn the cause of your absence,	his mind, In other words, in this respect	single mement. Preach the word the	effective, implores, cries to the clouds	he shows a solicitude that deserves your	he was converted. Now what amend	word of God. glorious and infallible	It especially appeals to those who	The only old line Canadian" C irs. Behold him waist deep in	attendance at church. People should go	could he make? Something must be	from the first of Genesis to the last	have	pany giving special advantages and. The sand reaches his breast:	to the house of God for the abundant	done. An honorable man could not	word of Revelation. Let the back	Suffered long and hopelessly.	Total Abstainers.
now only a bust. He raises his	grace and help that it affords them;	do otherwise than to publish his con-	bone of your preaching he doctrinal	It acts upon the liver, kidneys, and utters furious groans, clutches	but it will have the additional effect of	fidence if possible, as broadly as his	and let your doctrine he redhot The	bowels as well as upon the	Policles issued on al pop each with his nails, would hold	encouraging and inspiring the minister	accusations had extended. And just	preacher who cannot beam and glow	skin and blood.	plans.
at straw, leans upon his elbows	and of increasing his usefulness.	this was done.	upon his people under the influence of	Its use at this season Insures a clear skin and pure blood,	AGENTS WANTED
Il himself out of this soft sheath,	Then you can help him by giving	But your life has been one in which	the inspired word never really received	As well as sound bodily health.	AUDITO HANTED frenziedly. The sand rises. The	faithful attention to the Word. It is	you showed, if you did not actually	a call. Keen closely in touch with	It is the only Purifier acting on the	E. R.MACHUM, St. John N. reaches his shoulders: the sand	even more difficult to preach to a list-	and in words declare, your want of	your people. See them during the	Skin and Blood at the same	Manager f.r maratime Pr ies his neck: the face alone is	less congregation than to a small and	love for the Master. But if now you	week. Visit at their houses The	time.
le now. The mouth cries, the	scattered one, if the latter exhibits an	love him you will try to make amends	popular preacher may gether about him	Sold throughout the world. Price, CUTICURA, fills it-silence. The eves still	interest in the sermon. If God calls	for your wrong toward him. You will	a big mass meeting on the Schbath do-	75C.; SOAP, 35C.; RESOLVENT, $150POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., Sole Proprietors, Boston.	WANTED.
the sand shuts them - night. Now	men to preach, he calls others to hear,	do so as openly and as continually as	but it takes a pastor to build up a abreak	"How to Cure Skin and Blood Humors," free.
forehead decreases, a little hair	and your responsibility in the matter	possible. Declare yourself, and if pos-	that will stand The secret of heing	Fracial Blemishes, falling hair and sim-	Agents to sell our choice and h ers above the sand; a hand comes	is as great as his. God will hold him	sible undo the evil you have done to-	popular is to take an interest in the	ple baby rashes prevented by Cullcura Suap.	Nursery Stock. We have many
e surface of the beach, moves and	accountable for the faithfulness with	ward him whom now you love.	people. Sympathylis half a ministere	If tired, aching, nervous	special varities, both in fruit and ortal tals to offer, which are controlled onl
D. C. Pills act in conjunc-	which he declares his counsel; but he	A man who fell into evil habits, and	power. I do not say it irreverently	mothers knew the comfort, strength, and vitality in Cuticura	us. We pay commission or salary. V a with K. D. C. where a	mile classes have a second				us at once fc - terms, and secure choic ative is required.	C. and pronounce it the best.	the use of K. D. C	K. D. C. tones and regulates	Plasters, they would never be	errit ory MAY [*] BROTHERS. Nurserve the liver.

12-21-10 ochests r. A