BEGINNING OF THE HE BREW NATION .. - Gen. 12:1-9.

GOLDEN TEXT .- I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.—Gen. 12:2. THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE WORLD AFTER NOAH .- The new race started on a much higher plane than the former one. They had seen the effects of sin. They had records of God's dealings in the past. The most noticeable story of this intervening time is that of the confusion of tongues at the tower of Babel, near the present site of Babylon. The story represents the beginning ham, and his half sister, or possibly efforts on the part of the National of the diversity of language. There dialects. But the leading languages are less than 300.
