

Chinamen who are living in the city. There are now ten Chinese Sunday schools there. The Baptists have four of these schools, the Presbyterians two, the Congregationalists one, and three are independent. In the ten schools there are about 300 pupils, and of these about fifty are professing Christians who have joined some evangelical church. The work among the Chinese in Chicago is tedious, and the results are not abundant, yet an impression is being made on the character of these people, and those who are laboring in this portion of the Master's vineyard continue their efforts with enthusiasm and devotion.

Home Religious News.

—Mrs. Churchill, Baptist missionary, who has been at home in Nova Scotia for a year or two, started for India last week. Her husband is there.

—Rev. R. D. Bambrick, Episcopalian, has been invited to become rector of Trinity church, Yarmouth. He is now in North Sydney.

Denominational News.

REV. A. M. MCNINTCH went to Nova Scotia last week, having been invited to spend last Sabbath at Clark's Harbour.

REV. L. A. COSMAN has engaged to take the pastorate of churches at Hainesville, Temperance Vale, Millville and Campbell Settlement, York Co.

FROM REV. A. W. CURRIE.—I have closed one year of labour in this part of the Master's vineyard. It has been to me a year of blessing. Looking back, how many are the reasons for devout thanksgiving to God! With all the brethren I rejoice over the denominational prosperity of the year, giving to God all the glory. For His blessing on the work in this particular part of the field I have much reason to be thankful, and am encouraged to believe that God will more abundantly bless in the near future.

My work for the future has been considerably increased by the addition of another church, known as the Sandford church. This makes a large and, from its central position, a very important circuit. This church was formerly a large and prosperous one, and had it not been for the doctrinal discord of a few years ago would have been among our best churches. But being somewhat isolated from the churches of the pastorate to which it formerly belonged, and at the critical time not having received the attention it needed, the discord resulted quite disastrously for it. But cooler judgment is now being exercised and kinder feelings are springing up, and many are hopeful of better times, when the past shall be forgotten and true brotherly love shall prevail. This makes for me all the work, or more, than I can well do; but these are a good people to labour with, their thoughtfulness and kindness make light many of a pastor's burdens. They have during the past year been very considerate and have looked carefully after the welfare of the pastor and family. Nearing the end of the year, when they thought rest would do one good, they kindly granted me a vacation which was very helpful and much enjoyed. This was soon followed by a special kindness from the friends at Chebogue, which helped very much in temporal things. In this favour Mrs. Currie shared quite largely in the valuable gift of a very comfortable winter coat. This and the many other favours received during the year are hereby gratefully acknowledged.

I hope that we and the Master's work here may be kindly remembered in the prayers of the brethren everywhere.

A. W. CURRIE.

Rockville, Yr. Co.

LINCOLN, S. Co.—The meeting house in Lincoln has been closed during the summer, undergoing needed repairs. It has been much improved. Last Sabbath it was reopened. There were three services; Rev. Jos. McLeod preached morning and evening, and Rev. S. J. Perry in the afternoon. It was expected that Rev. J. Noble would be present, but the storm prevented him, to the great disappointment of his many friends there. Lincoln is not a large community, and the church membership is, therefore, small, but there is a strong desire in many hearts for the prosperity of the cause; and there are good opportunities for Christian work there. It is hoped the church may have the regular ministry of the word, and that the work of the Lord may be carried on successfully. Whoever goes to Lincoln is sure to come away with the impression that the people there are very kind and hospitable.

FROM REV. T. O. DEWITT.—I drop you a few lines to report my place of work at present. I have been here (Lambert's Cove) since the first of November; have held a few meetings; nothing special as yet has taken place in our meetings. We have good attendance, and I am hopeful of good results; the weather has been somewhat unpleasant. The Lord is with us, and the time is not far distant when I hope to see this people blessed. I expect to remain here till the last of this month.

T. O. DEWITT.

The Value of a Church Paper.

It is astounding says the Advocate, that some pastors, and the people generally, are so little interested in the circulation of a worthy denominational paper. Pastors stand sadly in their own light when they fail to encourage the members of their churches to take a good denominational paper. It is simply impossible for church people to be in the largest degree useful to their churches, to their denomination, and to the cause of Christ at large if they do not take a religious paper. There is no investment of money which will bring larger returns for the church, for the denomination, and for Christianity than what is expended in procuring good religious papers. Three cents a week for the year will secure the weekly visits of a great, strong, wholesome, and altogether superior religious paper. The general circulation of such a paper in a church is worth as much to a pastor as is an assistant in pastoral work. Church members cannot intelligently give to or work for denominational societies and other objects of benevolence except they be familiar with the scope and manner of their operations, and such familiarity can come only from the weekly visits of a religious newspaper.

TORONTO REVIVAL.—The meetings in Toronto, led by Mr. Moody, are attracting much attention. Great audiences attend all the meetings. A meeting for men only was attended by over 4000, crowding the Hall to its utmost. Lawyers, doctors, merchants, students, bankers, hod carriers, carpenters and laborers all jostled each other to obtain seats. There is evidently a deep religious interest. At the close of one evening meeting, an invitation being given to those who desired to become Christians to go into another room, a thousand went.

THE SEMINARY.—The attendance at the Seminary is increasing. It is now larger than could have been expected in view of the uncertainty about it being opened the present term. The Principal states that he has reason to expect a large addition of pupils after the Christmas holidays.

DISESTABLISHMENT.—The Church of England in Wales is to be disestablished shortly if the Liberals can accomplish their designs. That church is active and rapidly growing. There are 129,000 children in the Sunday schools of the four Welsh dioceses. There are no fewer than 115,000 communicants. The voluntary offerings last year amounted to £248,000 sterling, while the clerical income was £185,000. These figures show that the church is vigorous and strong and that, if disestablished she will be well able to care for her people. The population of Wales is 1,800,000. Lord Rosebery hints that Welsh disestablishment will be on the programme for the next session of Parliament.—P. Witness.

POLITICAL NEWS.—There having been more or less said about the union of the Patrons of Industry with one or another of the political parties, the managing board of the organization has thought it necessary to make a statement to set at rest the rumours about "connection with Conservatism. Liberalism, McCarthyism, P. P. A. ism or any other organization affecting the political or religious standing of the masses, and attempting to take independent political action.

The statement concludes as follows: No affiliation does or can exist between the Patrons and any body of men of any party or name whose desire is to add to or take from the Patron platform of principles which has been accepted by the masses and which has been acknowledged by all existing parties and factions to be worthy of acceptance by honest and right-thinking electors everywhere. We have stated time after time that by our principles we stand or fall. We are glad of the support of all classes and races and creeds. Our platform is so broad that all may stand upon it, and our movement is a rising of the masses to accomplish by constitutional means that which parliament has failed to perform. We invite all independent electors to come to our assistance. We do not desire that any government shall be overthrown, but we insist that the interests of the great majority of the people shall not in future be sacrificed on behalf of the few, and to this end we strive to unite many who have been kept apart for party gain so that we may be able to strengthen the hands of any government or power that will honestly endeavor to make all classes of our citizens equal before the law.

The Liberal-Conservatives of Queens and Sunbury counties had a meeting last week to organize for the next election. Mr. Baird M. P. stated that he did not intend to run again, his business demanding all his attention. No candidate has yet been chosen.

Concerning Women.

—A colossal statue of Queen Victoria is to be erected at Rangoon, Burma. The Queen is now sovereign over one continent, 100 peninsulas, 500 promontories, 10,000 lakes, 2,000 rivers and 10,000 islands.

—In New York there are now twenty or more "trained janitresses," who earn $400 a year and upward. The first woman janitor began her work about two years ago. She took care of an apartment house.

—The grave of Eve is visited by 400,000 pilgrims each year. It is to be seen at Jeddah, in a cemetery outside the city walls. The tomb is fifty cubits long and twelve wide. The Arabs entertain a belief that Eve was the tallest woman who ever lived.

—The largest woman in Missouri was born in Clark county. She is now a resident of Kahoka, the county seat. She is 22 years old, 8 feet high, weighs 760 pounds, wears a No. 19 shoe and a No. 17 glove. She is said to be very handsome and unmarried.

—Lady Henry Somerset tells a Boston reporter:—"I feel that women here are making great progress, and the outlook is most promising; yet we shall have full suffrage in England before you do, as already women have all votes except the parliamentary, and that is in the near future."

—Miss Ella L. Knowles, of Montana, the young lawyer who lately came within a few votes of being elected State attorney, has just received a fee of $10,000 for effecting a settlement in an important lawsuit involving large mining interests. The matter has been in litigation for two years. Her fee is the largest ever received by a woman attorney.

—The New York Witness says: "Ex-Governor St. John spoke in an Eastern State to an audience consisting of 1,000 persons—991 were men and nine were women. It was a prison. The next night, in the same town, he was at a prayer-meeting where fifty-seven were present—fifty-two were women and five were men."

Catarrh—Use Nasal Balm. Quick, positive cure. Soothing, cleansing, healing.

DR. MOON, WHO DIED IN ENGLAND lately was a remarkable man, in that he did a remarkable work. While studying for the ministry in the Church of England, in 1840, he lost his sight. He at once began work for the blind, and having got together a small class of blind people, laid the foundations of the blind asylums so useful and well known. Taking the existing embossed system, he simplified the alphabet and reduced the number of marks and contractions, until, as a result of experience and experiment, he perfected his system, which is now adapted to four hundred and seventy-three languages and dialects.

Danger From Catarrh.

The most important feature about that very common complaint, catarrh in the head, is its tendency to develop into some other more serious and dangerous disease. The foul matter dropping from the head into the bronchial tubes or lungs is very liable to lead to bronchitis or consumption, that destroyer which causes more deaths in this country than any other disease. As catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do but little good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla. The powerful action of this medicine upon the blood expels every impurity, and by so doing cures catarrh and gives health to the entire organism.

Man can go a mile in 25 min. 52 sec. swimming; 6 min. 23 sec. walking; 5 min 39 3-4 sec. on snow shoes; 4 min. 12 3-4 sec. running; 2 min. 49 1-2 sec. on a tricycle; 2 min. 29 3-4 sec. on a bicycle; 2 min. 12 1-2 sec. on skates; 2 min. 8 3-4 sec. behind a trotting horse; 1 min. 39 3-4 sec. on a running horse; and 50 1-4 sec. on the fastest locomotives.

Literary Notes.

The November Harper's prints an interesting bit of colonial history under the title "The Sea-Robbers of New York." The article narrates some of the incidents of the so-called "Red Sea Trade," which consisted in exchanging with the pirates of the Indian Ocean cargoes of rum, food, gunpowder and other necessities of piracy, for silks, spices, and "deep-toned, yellowed Arabian gold." This trade was profitable to the merchants of New York; and attended with fewer risks than piracy at first hand in which some of them engaged. How the Red Sea trade was finally broken up and William Kidd hanged as a horrible example is entertainingly told. Five pictures illustrate the article.

No magazine maintains a more uniform degree of literary excellence than the old, weekly eclectic, LITTLE'S LIVING AGE. Its selections are from the leading foreign quarterlies, reviews and magazines, and in its variety there is something for every cultivated taste. "The Outskirts of Europe," "A Greek Courtship," "Surgery and Superstition," "The Rajahs of Sarawak," "The Question of Korea," "Time Gauge of Niagara," "The Hadramut: A journey in Southern Arabia," "The Buried Elephants in the Arctic Regions," "Hobbes," "The Khedive of Egypt," are some of the valuable papers in recent issues. To busy men and women who wish to be informed in regard to current English periodical literature and have the most profitable and entertaining papers culled for them by a competent hand, THE LIVING AGE is indispensable. New subscribers for 1895 are promised the thirteen weekly issues for the current quarter free. Address, LITTLE & Co., Boston.

The opening article of the Homeopathic Review, for November, is "What the Preacher May Gain from the Study of Coleridge." "A Hindu Missionary in America," "controversy," the claim of Vivekananda, Hindu delegate to the Parliament of Religions, in regard to Buddhism as well as his criticisms upon the Christian faith, and especially upon the missionary representatives of that faith in his own country. Dr. William Hayes Ward throws the light of recent discoveries upon the "Beginning of the Human Race." The exegetical article of the month is upon the text, Job xix. 25-27. The department of Sociology and Comparative Religion contains a paper on "The Greek at Home," in which he presents a vivid picture of the moral life of the modern Greek. "The Demand of the Hour," emphasizes a deepened love for God and a consequently quickened love for man. The Living Issue discussed is that of Social Purity, the subject being forcibly presented. Published monthly by Funk & Wagnalls Co., 30 Lafayette Place, New York, at $3.00 a year.

The Century for November signalizes the opening of its twenty-fifth year by the beginning of one of its most important enterprises, the Life of Napoleon. The first chapters deal with Napoleon's childhood and youth. Much care has been bestowed in the selection of illustrations. The frontispiece of the magazine is an engraving of Grueze's portrait of Bonaparte as Lieutenant of Artillery. Apropos of the war in the East there is an illustrated article on the City of Canton, setting forth how the Chinese live and work.

CRONKITE.—At Tracey Mills, C. Co., October 19th, Clara K., beloved wife of Mr. Upton Cronkite, in the 36th year of her age. From the days of her childhood she loved and walked with her Saviour. She found in Him comfort, rest and help. To her, dying was but going to "the better land." On a beautiful Sabbath morning she was laid in the quiet resting place appointed for all living. A large gathering of mourners and friends attended the funeral services. Brethren Connor and Erb being present, assisted the writer.

TITUS.—At Marysville, York Co., on the 6th inst., Mary E., beloved wife of Hugh C. Titus, aged 50 years. Another of the faithful members of the Marysville church has entered into rest. To sister Titus it was rest indeed. For many weary months she could have adopted the language of Job, "Welcome might be appointed unto me." Death came to her as a welcome relief. Her disease was cancer. It made its appearance on her tongue. As soon as her physician was decided as to the nature of her trouble she concluded to go to Boston and have it removed. Although a specialist attempted its removal, but little hopes of her ultimate recovery were held out. Soon after her return home, she became convinced that no permanent good had resulted from the operation she had undergone. It was only a question of time, and it might be a very brief time when death would end her suffering. She met the inevitable with the courage and firmness of a true Christian. If it were God's will that she should leave her earthly surroundings and go up higher, with submissive heart she said, even though with a tear wet face, "Thy will, O God be done." Her aged parents, weakened by the infirmity of years, were a source of constant anxiety and care to her; she hoped to be spared to smooth what remained to them of life's journey and minister to them in their helplessness; but God ordered it otherwise; she waits for them on the other shore. Her protracted and sometimes painful illness was born with the patience and resignation of an obedient, loving child, and her testimony of God's blessing, sustaining love during her sickness, was abundantly comforting to her loved ones, and reassuring and strengthening to the faith of the many friends who came to see her. It was difficult for her to talk, but frequently on the visit of her pastor and others she gave expression to her abiding trust, and confidence that her feet "pressed the rock," in such expressions as these, "Almost home," "Jesus is precious," "All is well," etc.; and when the promises of the gospel were read, or her favorite hymns sung, her lips would move as though she was repeating the promises or following the words of praise singing in her heart to the Lord. Thirty-three years ago, on the day of the ordination of her present pastor, it was his blessed privilege to lead her, with seven others, down into the baptismal waters, she being the first female to whom he ever administered the rite. He gave her the hand of fellowship into the Marysville church, with which she has ever walked a consistent Christian life. She leaves a sorrow stricken husband, two sons, four daughters, and a wide circle of relatives, sincere mourners over this bereavement. The funeral services were held on the 8th inst., conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. W. W. Lodge. It was very largely attended, and was solemn and impressive.

The Best CATHARTIC SYRUP

Home Testimony from Actual Experience is always the same.

Read the following:

"It is a pleasure as well as a duty to speak well of remedies that have done for us all that is claimed for them. I therefore take pleasure in recommending the excellent preparations of Dr. Gates, and especially the INVIGORATING SYRUP. A gentle laxative I regard it in every way superior to harsh and griping physics so commonly used, in that it performs the three-fold functions of a physic, an aperient and a tonic."

THE CENTURY IN 1895.

Taking advantage of the revival of interest in the Great Emperor, THE CENTURY will print during 1895

A NEW LIFE OF NAPOLEON, Magnificently Illustrated.

THE CENTURY is famous for its great historical serials, and never in its history has a greater one been projected than this new "Life of Napoleon," written by Professor William M. St. John, of Princeton, who has spent many years in preparation for his work. Thus far no biography of "the man of destiny" has appeared in either English or French that is free from rancor and attentive to the laws of historical criticism. THE CENTURY HAS SECURED IT—THE GREAT ALL-ROUND, COMPLETE AND INTERESTING HISTORY of the life of one of the most marvelous of men. No matter how much you already know of Napoleon, you will want to read this;—here is the concentration of all the lives and memoirs. THE ILLUSTRATIONS WILL BE MAGNIFICENT—the wealth of THE CENTURY'S art department will be lavished upon them. Two members of the staff have just returned from Paris where they have been securing all that is best of Napoleonic material. New portraits will be printed, great historical paintings reproduced, and Castaigne and other modern artists have drawn anew some of the great scenes of Napoleon's life for this history.

In addition to this there will be

A NEW NOVEL BY MARION CRAWFORD.

The title is "CASA BRACCIO," and it is a romance of Italy, full of human passion and exciting episode.

A NEW NOVEL BY MRS. BURTON HARRISON

will be published during the year. It is called "AN EMBRANT WOODING," and is a tale of wandering (and love) among new scenes of travel in Northern Africa and Southern Spain.

OTHER FEATURES

will be several familiar papers on "WASHINGTON IN LINCOLN'S TIME" by Noah Brooke, who was on terms of unusual intimacy with the War President; "THE CATHEDRALS OF FRANCE," by Mrs. Schuyler Van Casseleer, with illustrations by Joseph Pennell. Many more serials will be announced later.

RUDYARD KIPLING contributes his FIRST AMERICAN STORY to the December number of THE CENTURY.

THE PRICE OF THE CENTURY is $4.00 a year. "No home is complete without it." Begin subscriptions with November number. Whatever other magazines you may take, you must have THE CENTURY. All agents and dealers take subscriptions, or remittance may be made directly to
