Thomas Lyons, an employee in Flewelling's mill at Hampton, was fearfully and fatally injured in that establishment on Tuesday afternoon. An edging from one of the machines struck Mr. Lyons on the right thigh. It was sharp at one end and large at the other. The piece of wood went almost through Mr. Lyons' thigh. A sad event occurred Friday night at Woodstock. J. B. Rideout, of Ludlow, Me., returned to the home of his host, Mr. Sutherland, after the opening services in connection with the F. C. B. Conference. Almost immediately after entering the house he fell down dead. The deceased was 75 years old and had been subject to heart disease. With his wife he drove twenty-five miles to attend the conference. The long walk from the church to the Sutherland house, probably hastened the end. Mr. Rideout was an ex-member of the Maine State Legislature.

Scott Act prosecutions have been enforced with unprecedented vigor in Fredericton here during the past month or two, and, as a result, it is said that all the city liquor dealers have decided to retire from business.

Millie Cox, seven years of age, had a miraculous escape from death on the Hartland bridge Friday afternoon. As the Western express approached the bridge, the engineer noticed a child on the track and immediately reversed the engine, but was unable to bring the train to a standstill until the engine and two cars had passed over the little one. On examination it was found that she was not seriously injured, receiving but a slight scalp wound. When the child saw the train approaching she became terrified and sank down on the sleepers, and to this is attributed her escape from instant death.

B. G. Taylor, formerly of St. John, and recently of London, England, shot himself while gunning in the woods of Hanwell road about ten miles from this city Tuesday of last week and died almost instantly. Nobody was near him when the shooting occurred and just how it happened is not known. H. B. Rinsford who had accompanied him on the hunt, was standing on the road when he was alarmed by the report of a gun and simultaneously with it the dying shrieks of Mr. Taylor. He immediately ran to the spot and found Mr. Taylor lying on his right side, dead, about fifty yards from the main road. The discharged rifle lay behind him parallel with the body. It is supposed that the hammer of the gun caught in a twig while he was pulling it towards him. Deceased was about thirty-five years old and well known as manager of the Marine Insurance Co. A wife and child survive him in London.

The total receipts for last month are compiled at 1,999,500 bushels, as against 2,994,577 for September of last year, a falling off of nearly a million bushels. The delay in threshing and the disposition of the farmers to hold their wheat are given as the cause for the light receipts.

Within the memory of middle aged people CONSUMPTION and other Lung troubles were much more prevalent and fatal than they are to-day. The existing improvement in the public health in this respect is, in considerable measure, due to a more widespread appreciation of sanitary laws; but PUTNER'S EMULSION OF CON LIVER OIL, with the Hypophosphates of Lime and Soda, and Pancreatine, may justly claim to have largely aided in the good work. Many persons who, some years ago were in a most critical state of health, are to-day sound and well, as a consequence of a faithful use of this valuable remedy.

British and Foreign.

A despatch from Peking confirms the news given out by the British foreign office, that a decree has been published in the Peking Official Gazette, ordering that Liu, viceroy of Sze Cheun, be stripped of his rank for failing to protect the missionaries in his district, and that he be not permitted to again hold office.

The London Daily News says it has been assured that Prime Minister Salisbury has resolved to appoint a poet laureate in succession to the late Lord Tennyson and his choice has fallen on a London journalist.

It is learned that the foreign office is again discussing the treaty between Canada and France. It is expected ratifications of the convention will be exchanged in a few days.

Numerous wrecks are reported from the Bristol Channel and other points along the west coast of England. Altogether, 19 steamships and large sailing vessels and 27 smaller craft are reported to have been lost. Although only 18 lives are known to have been lost, it is feared that many more sailors and fishermen have lost their lives, as the coasts of Devonshire and Somersetshire are strewn with wreckage.

A despatch from Constantinople under date of Oct. 2, says: "The rioting which prevailed here on Monday was renewed last evening, when the Sofias chased and attacked with bludgeons every Armenian they met in the streets of the Stamboul quarter of the city, killing fifty of them during the night. The Sofias also attacked a cave in which there were twenty Armenians, and killed every one of them. The fugitive Armenians are taking refuge in churches. The clergy are untiring in their efforts to reassure them and address the frightened Armenians almost continually. The conduct of the Armenians in going armed to take part in the demonstration in front of the gates of the palace on Monday is generally condemned and no doubt is now entertained that the rioting originated in an organized movement on the part of the Armenian revolutionary committee.

A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in Consumption, then sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from the use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your health.

A DISTINGUISHED MAN.—One of the most celebrated of chemists and microscopists, one of the most industrious and daring of bacteriologists, has passed away in the person of M. Pasteur, the famous French savant. His most famous work, though perhaps not his greatest, was his protracted study and long course of experiments looking to the prevention by inoculation of hydrophobia. For the last ten years he has worked over this problem, and he achieved a partial success. His method of inoculation is an undoubted prophylactic, and has proved effective in some cases even in which the symptoms have been developed. His greatest achievements from an industrial and commercial point of view were his researches into the causes of fermentation in connection with the phylloxera which threatened to desolate the great grape-growing regions of France. So practically valuable was his work that he became immediately famous, and was voted a large life pension by the National Assembly of France.—The Witness.

Fruit culture is more profitable to the farmer now than his other crops. Brown Bros. Co., the most extensive nursery house in Canada, have a vacancy in this section. Write them at Toronto, Ont. for their terms.

Gov. Culberson, of Texas, had these mainly words to say to his Legislature in reference to the prize fight that is proposed to be held in that State:

The instincts and the pride of the people revolt against it, and your prompt and resolute action will spare them shame. It will do another thing. It will recall to the great city of this state, inhabited by a manly and generous and enlightened people, the wholesome and assuring truth now obscured by anger and misconception, for which it will hereafter thank you, that no part of its material prosperity, no part of its social and intellectual and industrial progress, no part of its splendid destiny is bound up in an endeavor to hold within its limits one of the most disgraceful orgies that ever promised to discredit and dishonor Texas.

Trust What Time Has Endorsed

There is not a medicine in use today which possesses the confidence of the public to so great an extent as JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. For more than eighty years it has stood upon its own intrinsic merit, while generation after generation have used it and transmitted the knowledge of its excellence to their children as a valuable inheritance. The best evidence of its value is the fact that in the state where it originated the sale of it is steadily increasing.

I, S. JOHNSON, Esq. My Dear Sir:—Fifty years ago this month your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for sale. I have sold it ever since. I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this.

I have used your Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for more than fifty years in my family. Have used it for colds, coughs, sore throat, stings, cramps, sore stomach, rheumatism, lameness, colic, toothache, neuralgia, etc., and found it always good every way. I would not let my house be without it. I am a man 71 years old. Johnson's Liniment is my family remedy. THOMAS CLELAND, So. Robinson St., Me.

This certifies that Dr. A. Johnson, name is signed to every genuine bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, in the month of Jan., 1850, first left at my store some of the same. I have supplied my customers with it ever since, (over fifty years) with increasing sales. I have used it in my family for sprains, colds, lame back, and consider it the best. JAMES KNOWLTON, Newburg, Me.

The Doctor's Signature and directions are on every bottle.

If you can't get it send to us. Price 35 cents; six $2.00. Sold by Druggists. Pamphlet free.
