REV. WM. DEWARE has moved from Moncton to Waterville, C. Co.

PASTORS NEEDED.—Beaver River and Centre Cape Island pastorates in the Nova Scotia Conference are in need of pastors.

GIBSON.—Special meetings are being held this week at Gibson, by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Parsons.

FROM REV. A. H. MCLEOD.—Three more were baptized and received into Erb Settlement church. The meetings there have closed. I am now holding special meetings at Milltream Mountain. Pray for blessing in the work.
A. H. MCLEOD.

FROM REV. J. N. BARNES.—I wrote you a little about this part of the field. We are comfortably settled in our new home at Hartland, and the kind friends on the circuit are making us feel much at home. Week before last I had a few meetings at River Bank, and on Sabbath, the 17th inst. I baptized Fred Brookes, a young man, and received him into the church. Last Sabbath morning I had the happiness of administering the ordinance of baptism to Willie McGee, eldest son of brother William McGee of Lower Brighton; it was a time of rejoicing as the young brother was baptized and taken into the church. The new meeting house at Lower Brighton will soon be in readiness, so that special work can be begun there. I shall in a few days (D V.) begin holding me etings for the reviving of God's cause at Upper Brighton. Pray for us.
J. N. BARNES.

Hartland, Nov. 21, '95.

FROM REV. J. NOBLE.—In my last I said the next might be from Bangor or New York. I commenced to write in Bangor, but not feeling in very good mood for writing, I concluded to stop until I felt better. My trouble was toothache; and it had been so long since I had it that I did not know how to handle it. I left home the 6th of this month to go to Bangor on an invitation from Mr. Joseph Snow who, with Mrs Snow, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Snow of Woodstock. Mr. Joseph Snow left Wakefield, with his father, when a small boy, and went to Bangor, where, growing to manhood, he became a successful business man, and has become wealthy. He married a very amiable lady and became one of the leading business men of the city. When he was a small boy I saved his father from drowning, and as he had heard his father repeatedly speak of it, he had always been anxious to meet me. Meeting in Woodstock during the summer just past, he gave me the invitation to visit them. I spent a week with them very pleasantly. The morning after I got there we went out to see where my grandfather Noble used to live, and I was told different incidents of his life as gathered from the old people of the place. My grandfather settled in Bangor in its early settlement; he gave it its name when it was first incorporated a township; and he was the first minister settled there. On Sunday I went to the church known as the "old parish church" (Congregational), of which it is said my grandfather sowed the first seed. I have always been anxious to see what I now have seen. On Monday Mr. Snow took me around to see the public buildings and other places of interest. This finished my visit in Bangor forthis time. Tuesday I went to Corinth, about 20 miles out of town, to see my son, Joseph; he has a fine pastorate, I enjoyed myself very much visiting with him among his people and preaching to them on Sunday. Wednesday he took me to see brother Thomas Kinney, where I made a short but very pleasant visit. In this way I spent two weeks very pleasantly. On Tuesday Joseph took his horse and carriage and brought me out to Bangor. By this time I concluded not to go any further on, but hope to in the future. About 60 years ago I went through this country to attend a Yearly meeting with the christian connection, better known as the Hamiltonites. There was a large number of preachers and churches and some very able men there, the two Hamiltons, John and Jonathan, Richard Gore, Ira Davis and many others whose names I have forgotten. Now I cannot find any such organization; all have been scattered or swallowed up by other denominations. I must leave this writing now, and go to work again.
J. NOBLE.

Woodstock, Nov. 20.

QUARTERLY MEETING. — Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather the Queens Co. quarterly meeting held at Caledonia, N. S., Nov. 2nd and 3rd, was a success. The first meeting was on Saturday evening. Before organization, a most interesting talk on our work and principles as Free Baptists took place, Rev. F. G. Francis, and brethren E. E. Letson, J. E. Cushing, Thomas Wagner and others made helpful addresses.

At the organization there were present — Revds. T. H. Siddall and F. G. Francis; Deacons C. F. Cushing and Thomas Wagner; Clerks E. E. Letson and Jas. Cushing; Delegates Mrs. Jas. E. Cushing, Miss Edith Atkins, Miss Martie Armstrong, Miss Lottie Morine, Mrs. E. E. Letson, Mrs. Thomas Wagner, Mrs. Edward Wagner and Mr. Edward Wagner.

The convener called the meeting to order, Rev. F. G. Francis being Sec. pro. tem. The following officers were chosen: E. E. Letson, President; Rev. F. G. Francis, Vice President; Miss Edith Atkins, Secretary; Executive Committee, J. E. Cushing, George Middlemas, E. Morine, Solomon Dolliver, Thomas Wagner and Edward Wagner.

Resolved, that the next quarterly meeting be held with the church at Port Mouton, the second week in June, 1896.

Resolved, that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to draft at constitution and report at the next meeting.

The following were appointed: T. H. Siddall, J. E. Cushing, and F. G. Francis.

Adjourned.

Sabbath.— At 10.30, A.M., preaching by Rev. T. H. Siddall. At the close the communion, Revds. F. G. Francis and — Bowen taking part in the service. At 3 P.M., preaching to a good congregation, the weather having cleared up. At 7 P.M., missionary service. There was a very large congregation.

The following was the programme: Music, 'Gathering Jewels,' by the choir. Reading Scripture, Psalms II. Prayer, Rev. F. G. Francis. Address, by the President, Mrs. J. E. Cushing. After expressing pleasure at the large number present, which betokened continued interest in the good work of missions, a work that became more precious as the years increased, she said we who have found the joy and blessing of the gospel, must be interested in seeking to grant the same blessings to the millions in India. It may not be much that we can do, but are we not only doing what we can, but doing our best? That thought has been with me. I have asked myself, 'Have I done my very best?' Each of us must feel that, in the sight of the Cross, he is condemned. The thought of the great gift for us and the world, while it shames our indifference and lukewarmness, should inspire in us great love. She expressed the desire to do more, and be more for that Saviour who had done so much for her; and prayed that we all might live up to the measure of our great opportunity. It was a good address, from one wholly consecrated in zeal, interest and generous liberality, to the work of missions.

Missionary music, by Miss Lottie Morine and Miss Mertie Armstrong.

Recitation, 'Lo the golden fields,' by Miss Mabel Cole.

Address, by Rev. T. H. Siddall.

Music, 'Faith is the Victory,' by the choir.

Address, by Bro. E E. Letson; although brief, it was good.

Recitation, "What of the Night?" by Miss Edith Atkins.

Reading, on missions, by Miss Harlow. Collection. Music, "Speed away," by the choir.

Address, by Rev. F. G. Francis; which was excellent.

Music, "We'll Meet Each Other There," by the choir. Benediction.

It was a profitable and inspiring service. The organist, choir and all who took part did well, and their services were heartily appreciated. The collection was good. At the close the church and people were thanked for their kind and most generous hospitality.

In the afternoon, at 2.30, Bro. Francis preached at Westfield. The meetings were most helpful and cheering

The ministers appointed to attend did not, much to the regret of all. Rev. G. M. Wilson was unable, and so reported. We trust he will soon be well. As they were unable to come to Caledonia, it is hoped they will be able to be at Port Mouton next June.

The improvements in the church, by the building of a vestry, baptistery, and platform with appropriate furnishings at Caledonia by bro. and sister Cushing, as well as the gift of a splendid bell, have greatly added to the means and usefulness of the church. Their generous kindness is much esteemed. The work has been well and tastefully done by Messrs. Forbes Dolliver and Charles Harlow. It is hoped that the people will complete the work so well and wisely begun, by erecting some sheds for teams; then Caledonia will stand at the head of our churches for completeness and facilities for carrying on the work of the church.

Notwithstanding many drawbacks, the outlook is good. God and hope can do wonders. Why should we be discouraged "in His name" to trust? Our God is sure, and His abundant promises fail not. Our principles are as good, as true and as grand to-day as they were over sixty years ago; and just as needful and as deeply cherished in loyal and faithful hearts. This was felt at the close of our meetings, courage came to our hearts, and hope in Christ crowned the feast.

Comrades, be not downcast,
Though the fight is long;
Let us cheer the night-watch
With the triumph song.

Soon will come the morning
When that song shall rise
O'er the hills of Zion,
To the listening skies.

No more sung in whispers,
But with swelling sound
As of many waters
Echoing around.

It shall blend its music
In harmonious tone
With the chant of angels
Round about the throne.

And although our standard
Torn and stained may be,
It was never taken,
As all Heaven shall see

When it floats above us,
As we're marching in,
Victors in the battle
Over death and sin.

Home Religious News.

—Special meetings are being held in the Baptist and Methodist churches at Gibson.

—Fourteen new members were received into the Gibson Methodist church on Sunday, 17th inst.

—The evangelistic meetings in Halifax, under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Aiken, Episcopal, are reported very interesting.

—The evangelistic meetings in Moncton, led by Evangelist Gale, were closed last week. The number of conversions reported is large.

—Evangelist Gale, whose labours were so much blessed in Moncton, is now in Truro, where he will conduct a series of meetings.

—It is in contemplation to organize a young people's Christian Endeavour Society in connection with the Presbyterian church in this city.

—It is now said that Rev. W. B. Hinson is not likely to accept the call to the Moncton Baptist church. His Montreal church is unwilling to let him go.

—The Maritime Colleges Y. M. C. A. convention was held in Sackville last week. About thirty delegates were present. In the reports presented it is shown that the work of the College Associations is being carried on encouragingly.

—Reports of a deep and wide religious interest come from Charlottetown, P. E. I., where Messrs. Crossley and Hunter are now holding meetings. The Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches are united in the work. The interest was quite marked from the very first of the meetings.

—The Gibson Baptist church has been freed from debt. Last Thursday evening the fifth anniversary of the establishment of the church was celebrated. When the meeting opened the debt was $820; before the close payments and subscriptions equal to cash were made amounting to $840.

—Last Sunday was a day of ingathering in the Moncton churches, as a result of the Evangelistic meetings held there by Mr. Gale. Sixty-nine converts were baptized by Rev. W. W. Weeks of the First Baptist church; others are to be baptized during this week. The Presbyterian and Methodist churches have received over two hundred on trial.

—Rev. Mr. McRae, a Roman Catholic priest, was formally received into the Church of England on Thursday last. The ceremony took place at the Cathedral in this city, bishop Kingdon and several clergymen officiating. Mr. McRae was a priest in Nova Scotia for several years, but had lately been in Lewiston, Me. He will engage in work as a Church of England minister somewhere in Nova Scotia, it is said.

FAST MAIL SERVICES.—The British Government has decided to support the project of a fast mail service between Great Britain and Canada, and will appropriate $75,000 a year to it. The Dominion Government will now invite new tenders for such service.

THE UNIVERSITY. The University Senate, at a meeting held last week, passed a resolution in favour of restoring residency. A committee was appointed to look into the matter, and see what arrangements can be made.

The resignation of Prof. Bridges was not accepted, the Senate desiring him to complete the year which ends about the first of June next.

THE REVIVAL.—In this city the work of gathering into the churches those converted during the evangelistic meetings, goes on encouragingly. Last Sabbath twenty-nine were received into the Methodist church; in the Baptist church twelve were baptized, and in the Free Baptist church nine received baptism. There are more to follow.

FRIENDLY ADVICE.

The Means of Renewed Health to a Sufferer.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS SUCCEED WHERE DOCTORS HAD FAILED FOR THIRTY YEARS—THE SUFFERER ONE OF NORTHUMBERLAND CO'S BEST KNOWN MEN.

From the Trenton Advocate.

Mr. John Frost's case is a most remarkable one. He is one of the best known residents in the country of Northumberland, being a retired farmer of most ample means, and having financial dealings with hundreds throughout the townships. We have known him intimately for over ten years. From him we gleaned the foilowing facts in February last: - "I was born in England and at twelve years of age arrived in Canada with my parents, who settled in Prince Edward county and remained there for three years. We then moved to Rawdon township in the neighboring county of Hastings. For thirty years I was a resident of Rawdon, three years I resided in Seymour township and I am at present, and have been for the past ten years, a resident of Murray township. For thirty years I have been a martyr to rheumatism. During that time I have been treated by scores of doctors and found partial relief from but one. I have during the same period tried innumerable remedies, but all failed to cure me. Scarcely a month passes that I am not laid up, and frequently I am confined to bed six or eight weeks, unable to move hand or foot and suffering untold agonies. Two well known doctors told me one time that I would have to have an arm taken off to save my life. I tell you I have been a great sufferer in my time and I would give anything to find relief. My business causes me a great deal of driving and getting in and out of my rig is agony.

Getting into my Rig was Agonizing.

Knowing his story to be true and anxious that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should have a severe test, we prevailed on Mr. Frost, much against his will, to give them a trial. He got six boxes and commenced to use them. At the start he smiled at our confidence in the pills. We saw him after he had used the first box and he admitted some relief and said he believed there was something in the remedy. He continued their use and by the time he had finished the six boxes he was as sound and proud a man as could be found in five counties. A couple of months have passed since the cure was effected and we deferred giving a history of the case in order that we could see for a certainty that the cure was permanent. We see him several times a week actively attending to his business and at all times loud in his praise of Pink Pills. All who know Mr. Frost know that his word is as good as his bond. Yesterday we said to him, "Now, Mr. Frost, do you really feel that you are cured of rheumatism? Do you feel any twinges of the old trouble at all?" He replied, "I am cured." The Pink Pills have thoroughly routed the disease out of my system and I feel a new man. The use of the pills has given me new life and I am telling everyone I meet about the cure." Such is the case, and having known Mr. Frost for years the sufferer he was, and seeing him now active, and almost youthful again, the rapid change from suffering to health seems almost a miracle. However we are not at all surprised, for on all sides we hear of cures effected by the use of Pink Pills. The druggists remark their rapid sale and the satisfaction they give their customers.
