A Grateful woman

Says Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Saved Her Life.

CONFINED TO BED FOR MORE THAN A MONTH AND WHOLLY UNABLE TO MOVE—FOOD HAD TO BE ADMINISTERED TO HER AS TO A CHILD—THANKFUL WORDS OF PRAISE.

From the Tribune, Deseronto, Ont.

Mrs. Wm. Doxater, whose husband works on the Rathbun farm, Deseronto, is well known in the town and surrounding country, her home having always been in this vicinity. Mrs. Doxater had passed through a more than usually trying illness, and as it was said she ascribed her cure to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a reporter of the Tribune was sent to investigate the case. It appears that Mrs. Doxater's illness dates from the birth of a child on Feb. 15th, 1899, when the attending physician found it necessary to administer chloroform. The shock was greater than she could stand and the result was partial paralysis, during which her life was despaired of. Mrs. Doxater gives the particulars as follows:—“Previous to the birth of my child I had enjoyed very good health, but following this my health gave away entirely. I was in bed for over a month, and had two doctors attending me. I was so weak that I could not turn myself in bed and had to be moved like a child. The little nourishment I took had to be administered by my friends. During this time I suffered great pain especially in the hip joints, and one side was paralyzed from the shoulder to the foot. The doctors could not tell me what my trouble was and the medicine they gave me did me no good. I became despondent and thought I would surely die. I got into a highly nervous condition and sleep was almost impossible. Just as I would fall asleep I would start up as though in a fright. This was the state of affairs when a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I can now tell how thankful I am that I took that advice. After I had used the third box I was able to leave my bed and move around the house a little. By the time I had used six boxes I had gained greatly in strength and was able to do my own housework. I could eat my meals with relish. I sleep and am still constantly gaining in strength. My friends were surprised at my speedy recovery after beginning the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I believe that but for them I would not be alive to day. I will be glad if my testimony is the means of pointing to some other sufferer, the road to health.

People who are run down, weak or nervous will find renewed health and strength through the fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They enrich and build up the blood and stimulate tired and jaded nerves. Substitutes should always be refused as they never cure anyone. The genuine pills may be had from all dealers in medicine, or from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50.

Two LATE.—We have received a report of the Nova Scotia Y. P. F. B. Union, but it came too late to get in the Young People's department on page six. It will appear in next Young People's issue.

People Who Weigh and Compare
Know and get the best. Cottolene, the new vegetable shortening, has won a wide and wonderful popularity. At its introduction it was submitted to expert chemists, prominent physicians and famous cooks. All of these pronounced a natural, healthful and acceptable food-product, better than lard for every cooking purpose.
Cottolene
The success of Cottolene is now a matter of history. Will you share in the better food and better health for which it stands, by using it in your home?
Cottolene is sold in 3 and 5 pound pails by all grocers.

JONES.—At Upper Hayneville, York Co., on the 16th inst., after a lingering illness, Jane, wife of Rev. John S. Jones, in the seventy-third year of her age. She died as she lived, trusting in Him who said, "where I am there shall my followers be." As husband and wife Mr. and Mrs. Jones had lived together fifty-five years. She was one of the early pioneers of Cansville. She was a worthy wife, a very affectionate mother, and a kind neighbour. Her presence and testimony in the house of prayer will be much missed, for she was one of the devout worshippers of the place. She leaves a disconsolate husband, two sons and three grand-children, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their sad loss. Her funeral was very largely attended, and was conducted by the writer,
T. S. VANWART.
