You Can't

The publisher's of McClure's Magazine say that nothing else they have ever brought out has attracted such wide attention and such hearty commendation as The Life of the Master by Dr. John Watson ('Tan Mclarsen'). A second installment appears in the February number, with five illustrations in color and many in black and white. Walter Wellman relates the story of some of his hard experiences and strange adventures in his last year's Arctic expedition. Mr. Wellman made important Arctic discoveries. McClure's is a bright monthly.

The Canadian Magazine for February has several good articles, well illustrated, on soldier life. 'The Soldier-Police of the Northwest,' is interesting. A fine full page photograph of the Mounted Police of Regina, N. W. T., forms the frontispiece. The 'Daily Life of the Private Soldier,' and there is an excellent sketch, illustrated, of 'Lord Roberts of Kandahar.' Among the pictures is a series taken 'on board the Sardinian.' 'The Manitoba Elections' are discussed, and so are 'French Canada' and 'Canada.' There are instalments of 'Twenty Years on the War Path,' and 'Big Game in Canada.' Short articles, stories, poems, editorial comment, &c. make up a good magazine, of special interest to Canadian readers. Published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto.
