young men for the ministry. You have no school. Ours is the only law school for you ; it is near you. Do not count it yours ? We do not want you to make any payment. You will come to us ; we welcome them to the country to train them as we do ourselves. We try to send them back to their own country. If some of them have not returned to you it was because you could not retain them. He spoke of the work done by the Field Agent of the
