

other stations opened. Over 200 new believers were baptized the last year. The aim is to raise up native ministers to carry forward the work.