ferer from Dyspepsia, by which I was very much prostrated, as to render my parochial duties very laborious and difficult. I was supduties very laborious and difficult. I was supposed to be in danger of consumption, and was advised by physicians to resort to a warmer climate. Some seven months since, I was induced to make trial of your Oxygenated Bitters. An improvement was soon perceptible; I regained a considerable portion of the flesh and strength I had lost, and my labors have since been performed without difficulty. This improvement, I have no doubt, is due to the use provement, 1 have no doubt, is due to the use J. PERRY.
