FERVENCY.

Boiling and glowing prayer to avail much, must be accompanied by power to produce results, which is alone given to a truly righteous man.

There may be much fuming and splutter, that is utterly powerless, because it lacks the inward witness of rightness with God, and the outward facts of rightness with men.

There is a marked distinction between boiling and glowing, and fuming and spluttering. It is the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man that availeth much. The prayer that reaches God, reaches man.

Fervency of love is also commanded, but it is a sad failure to try and manifest the outward signs of fervent love without a pure heart, obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, puts us in the position where love becomes real, then we are commanded to see that our love is served glowing and boiling.

We should avoid luke-warmness toward God or men as we would avoid sin.

Diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.

RIVERSIDE.

The work is progressing well at Riverside Camp Ground. The Tabernacle will be completed by the time this HIGHWAY is in the hands of the readers. Sleeping accommodations have been added for 68 men, 34 new berths were built in the upper flat of the lodging house, the grounds cleaned up and put in general order, and chairs ordered for the Tabernacle and other improvements are being made. On account of locating the Tabernacle in the place formerly used for crriages, a large horse shed has become a pressing necessity, as hundreds of people come with their teams.

The chairs for Riverside Tabernacle will be ordered by the time you read this. Are you going to contribute one or more? If so, please do so now. We want the money by the time chairs are made.

We will need 8 or 10 large lamps to light the Riverside Tabernacle. This is a good opportunity to let your light shine, by contributing lamps and lanterns for Riverside.

The berth department needs 34 straw ticks or mattresses, pillow ticks or pillows, sheets or shaker-flannel blankets, pillow cases, quilts and comfortables, good heavy quilts that you have put away are just the thing.

Let us hear from the sisters on this subject.

NOTICE.

To subscribers: We take this opportunity of asking all those who are behind with their subscriptions to HIGHWAY if they will not kindly renew as soon as possible. Or, if you do not know just how you stand with the HIGHWAY drop us a line and enclose order for $1.00 or more, and you will find out in the next issue in HIGHWAY acknowledgements. Help us if you can just now as we need the money to have things straightened up before close of year.

Yours truly,

H. C. ARCHER, Meductic, N. B.

DATE OF THE ALLIANCE.

The people will need to notice that the date of the Alliance meeting, and consequently the camp meeting, at Beulah, comes some days later than usual this year. Our constitution sets the date of the meeting on the first Wednesday after the fourth Sunday in June. This year the first Wednesday comes on July first. This will bring Dr. Carradine with us the first two Sundays of the camp meetings, viz., July 5th and 12th. The fourth Sunday in June has never come so late in the month before. Since our organization, and probably won't again for many years.

At Robie Maine, May 23rd, of consumption, David G. Varney, aged 62 years and 4 months.

Brother Varney left his home at Vassellboro when 19 years of age for the Aroostook valley, and located on the farm where he has lived ever since, cutting it out of the wilderness by steady persistent labor. He taught school for several years, and was the first Supervisor of Schools in the town now known as Fort Fairfield (then Sarsfield Plantation) he was married 33 years ago to Mary Wentworth, who died a year ago, they raised seven children, but three have died, leaving now, two sons, Alden J., and Chas. W. Varney, who now live on the home- stead, and two daughters, Mrs. J. R. Krins, of Boston, and Miss Gertrude J. Varney.

The Robie church is located on Brother Varney's farm. He having donated the land, and lived to see all of his remaining children active workers in the cause of holiness, which he loved. On account of his poor health, Brother Varney has not been able to attend the meetings much, but always testified when present to the saving power of Christ.

The church was well filled with friends and acquaintances to say the last farewell to a brother who had lived the life of a good citizen, and died trusting in the merits of the blood of Christ.

REMARKABLE NARRATIVES.

We have received from the author a book of 352 pages written and published by Rev. A. Sims of Kingston, Ont., containing 70 brief narratives. The preface briefly states the object of the author to be.

1. To convince the unbeliever of the mighty power of God to save to the uttermost, to heal the sick, deliver the oppressed, feed the hungry and clothe the naked.

2. To warn the careless sinners of the terrible doom that awaits them, to show in as striking a manner as possible the awful havoc sin is making, and thus save some perhaps as "brands from the burning."

3. To provide solid food for those who are "hungering and thirsting after righteousness," and to stir up the indolent to holy zeal and usefulness.

4. To promote experimental piety, and to kindle revival fires all over the land.

It contains brief sketches of Henry Martyn, Gregory Lopez, Madame Guyon, George Fox, Archibald Boyle, Hester Ann Rogers, Wm. Bramwell and Charles G. Finney, with many other interesting and helpful narratives. The price is one dollar, but we will make the following offer good until July 1st.

New subscribers to the KING'S HIGHWAY sending $1.60 will get the book and the HIGHWAY for one year. All present subscribers paying one year in advance can have the book by sending 60 cents additional to Rev. H. C. Archer, Meductic, N. B.
