DISPATCH PRINT, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All correspondence for THE HIGHWAY should be sent before the 12th and 25th of each month, addressed to the Rev. S. A. Baker, Hartland, N.B.

WOODSTOCK, N.B., JUNE 15, 1904.

We begin a new year's work with this issue.

Rev. S. A. Baker has been appointed Editor and Business Manager. Send the money for your renewals and new subscriptions to him.

Rev'ds. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., and G. B. Macdonald have been added to the staff of Associate Editors.

Let us begin at once for a good year's work with THE HIGHWAY. Will you all help in three ways? Pay your own subscription, get your friends to subscribe, and write for its columns.

THE CAMP MEETING.

All who heard Rev. C. J. Fowler can truly say that he is a strong, logical, and practical preacher and evangelist, and that he did good work at Beulah. The general verdict was that he is a faithful and good preacher. Several got wholly sanctified, and all who heard him were instructed, strengthened and refreshed. The meetings did not take on the fervor that they do sometimes, but they were good and helpful and enjoyable.

We continue to labor under the difficulty of the ministers having to look after the business of camp meeting which greatly detracts from the spiritual force of the meetings, which thing we are trusting will be remedied in the near future by our laymen coming up and taking the management of the different departments.

Miss Antonette Rubardt led the singing. She has a strong, musical voice and is an excellent leader. Mr. J. F. Bullock presided at the organ and was highly appreciated by all.

The weather was unfavorable at the beginning of the meeting and the attendance did not average as large as usual. There were many new people who came for the first time, and some familiar faces were missing. Altogether the meeting was a success.

THE HIGHWAY.

THE HIGHWAY committee has been enlarged by the addition of Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., and Rev. G. B.

Macdonald to the list of Associate Editors. Rev. S. A. Baker has been appointed Editor and Business Manager. All subscriptions and matter for publication should be sent to him addressed to Hartland, N. B. Rev. H. C. Archer resigned as Business Manager, but still remains on the committee. We are glad to state that THE HIGHWAY came through the year without incurring a debt, and we trust that the subscribers will all aim to lighten the cares of the editor by prompt renewals, and that all lovers of the cause it advocates will help to increase the subscription list, and by writing for its columns. It is acknowledged by the holiness people to be a good paper. With united effort we can soon put it in position to become a weekly by simply increasing the subscription list.

ANOTHER GENEROUS GIFT.

Brother and Sister Joseph Bullock, of St. John, presented to the Alliance the third gift of $500.00 to be invested, the interest to be used for Home Mission work. The fifteen hundred dollars when all invested will give an annual income of $90.00 for missionary purposes. There are comparatively few people who are the executors of their own wills placing their money for good purposes while they are living and in vigorous health but it certainly is a wise course. We appreciate their interest in our camp meetings and the other departments of our work, and trust God may spare them many years as faithful stewards and workers for him.

HIDE BOUND.

"Hide bound" is the term used by those who do not consider the ordinance of baptism as an essential in connection with salvation, as indicating the state of those holiness people who reverence the example of our Lord, who said, "For thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness." Our idea of true holiness people is that they will not compromise, nor evade a single point in order to follow men, but will follow the footsteps of Jesus Christ no matter where he went, even down into the water.

If our ideas of holiness are broad enough to allow those who differ with us on these points, to enjoy their opinions, without using terms that would imply that they throw away, and ignore that which our Lord considered an act of righteousness; surely they should be broad enough to allow us to hold sacred every ordinance our Lord and Saviour instituted, without charging us as being hide bound. The experience of holiness or entire sanctification as we understand it, does not cut a person loose from all that is sacred to them, and set them adrift as Spiritual derelict upon the great sea of life, but it puts us in the position to fulfil all righteousness as revealed to us in the Word by the Holy Spirit. There is far too much laxity among holiness people doctrinally, and many are getting the idea that to be right they must dance to every irresponsible fellow's music who appoints himself a leader. Beloved let us cling to the old book, anchor to it, not on one point, but the whole of it, The Spirit, The Water, The Blood.

SONGS OF PRAISE AND SALVATION.

We have just received a hundred "Songs of Praise and Salvation." We will send one free to every new subscriber to THE HIGHWAY, or to any person sending 6 two cent stamps.

NOTES FROM BEULAH.

The Alliance business has been dispatched with success and with general harmony among all its members. The officers for 1904-05 are:—

Rev. G. B. Macdonald, President.
Rev. S. A. Baker, Vice-President.
Rev. A. L. Bubar, Recording Secretary.

Rev. H. C. Archer, Assistant Secretary.

Rev. G. B. Trafton, Corresponding Secretary.

Mr. Elisha Cosman, Treasurer.
Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Auditor.

A new church at Amherst, N. S., was received into the Alliance and a new pastorate was created there.

The churches were quite fully reported and delegations were present from nearly all the churches.

There has been quite an increase in membership this year, the corresponding secretary's report showing an addition of 134. There has been an increase also in Sunday school attendance and the Sunday school agent reports a number of scholars converted during the past year. These are very very encouraging matters and are things which give us hope and strength in all our work for God.

In the missionary work, also, both Home and Foreign, we have very much to encourage us. The interest in Home work is increasing, and plans are adopted by the Alliance for the better development of all our pastorates.

The Ministerial Association have recommended the licensing to preach of Brother I. F. Kierstead from Moncton church and W. J. Hamilton from Amherst church. These and other young men are coming to the front and taking work among us.

In the Foreign Missionary work there has much been done of solid advance. Brother H. C. Sanders and his faithful wife are enlarging their borders and are settling down to real hard aggressive work for God. They have secured a mission field of 1,000 acres of land on very reasonable terms. The General Missionary Society are standing nobly by them. They have raised this year for Home Missions, $332.26, and for Foreign Missions, $630.38, a total of $962.64. It is the purpose of the Alliance to make this Foreign work an independent mission with Rev. Dr. Sanders at the head. It is a big undertaking for so small a body, but God is leading and we will follow.

The Lord is making the spiritual work done at Beulah and at Riverside a powerful agency in focusing the light and power of the holiness movement in these provinces and in the State of Maine, in the direction of energizing and vitalizing all the christian communities which are represented at these great annual camp meeting services.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

There was a grand Love Feast at 9.00 a. m. led by Brother G. B. Trafton. At that early hour the tabernacle was filled and 110 persons gave testimony to the cleansing and sanctifying power of God.

At 10.30 preaching by Rev. Dr. Fowler to a large congregation.

At 1.30 there was baptism at the beach by Brother M. S. Trafton when seven happy converts were baptised.

At 2.00 o'clock another praise service and at 2.30 preaching again by Dr. Fowler followed by a good altar service.

At 7.00 o'clock another praise service and at 7.30 came the closing meeting. The big tabernacle was crowded by a large and attentive congregation. Dr. Fowler preached a most powerful sermon. At the close all the christians gathered about the altar and some seeking ones bowed before the Lord. It was an hour of great rejoicing among all the saints.

Thus closed Beulah for 1904. Eternity alone will reveal the great work done. A. L. B.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. G. B. MacDonald will take the pastorate of the Meductic circuit for the ensuing year, but will provide for several weeks in evangelistic work in the fall and winter.

Rev. H. H. Cosman has accepted an invitation to remain pastor of the Port Maitland circuit for another year.

Rev. Henry Smith of Yarmouth holiness mission has decided to unite with us and was baptized by Rev. M. S. Trafton at Beulah Camp Ground on Monday 11th inst.

Rev. M. S. Trafton baptized five persons, and Rev. G. B. Trafton baptized one at Beulah Camp Ground on Sunday last.

Rev. A. W. Morrell, of Upton, Mass., of the Evangelical Association, attended the camp meeting at Beulah last week.

Rev. J. H. Coy has been selected to remain at Beulah Camp Ground, and hold regular services until September.

The missionary board voted to ask Rev'ds. A. H. Trafton, C. S. Hilyard and S. Greenlaw to do mission work for the ensuing year, with I. F. Kierstead, F. H. Grass and W. J. Hamilton alternates.

Rev. A. L. Bubar, wife and daughter returned to his circuit at Beals on the 12th.

We were glad to see so many attending camp meeting from Oxford, Amherst, and Westchester Station, N. S. We trust these new interests may be greatly strengthened and multiplied.

Brother and Sister Carr, of Geary, are enjoying a visit from several of their children at their home. They all enjoyed several days of the camp meeting.

A large delegation came up from Grand Manan to enjoy the meetings at old Beulah.

Brother J. C. and Sister Smith of Bridgewater Maine, spent a few days at Beulah Camp meeting.

Brethren J. H. Seeley and Hiram Smith were appointed by the Alliance to take charge of the Hotel department at Riverside Camp Meeting, and Rev. J. H. Coy, and brother J. C. Smith to have charge of the grounds and gates, and Rev. M. S. Trafton in charge of the services.

The Missionary board appropriated $50.00 to assist the pastor who may take up his residence at Calais, and take pastoral care of Calais and Pembroke churches, hoping to encourage these churches to call a pastor for the ensuing year.

Rev. J. H. Coy has closed his pastoral labours with the Millville circuit, and we trust that the churches of this circuit will call a meeting, and engage a pastor without delay. No circuit can afford to be without a pastor, and when possible should have one who will live on the field.

WHERE IS RIVERSIDE?

This question has been asked by several, when Riverside Camp Meeting was mentioned. Where is Riverside? Of course this question is asked by those who have never been there, and who live a long distance from it. Riverside Camp Ground is situated in Aroostook County in the State of Maine and about 2 miles from the boundary between Maine and New Brunswick. It is north of Houlton, Maine, about 28 miles on the Bangor & Aroostook railway and about 4 miles north of Bridgewater, Maine. There is a platform station right at the Camp Ground where the trains stop. The nearest telegraph station is at Robinson's station one mile south. In buying your ticket at any station on the B. & A. railway be sure to ask for Riverside and not Robinson's. Any one coming from N. B. by rail will first purchase their ticket for Houlton, Maine, via C. P. R. and on arriving at Houlton take a hack for the B. & A. station one mile away costing 10 cents. Then buy a Camp Meeting return ticket for Riverside costing one dollar and ten cents.

Mr. J. F. Bullock, of St. John, will be organist.
