BEULAH CAMP MEETING.

The object of this grand Camp Meeting is the promotion of the two great works of grace; The Justification of the sinner, and the Entire Sanctification of the believer by which men are "delivered from the power of darkness, and translated into the kingdom of God's dear son."

While it is conducted by the Reformed Baptists it is not for denominational ends, but the purposes in view are as broad as the glorious gospel of Christ, which is free to all the world, whether the people believe us or not. God knows it to be true! as stated above the Salvation of the sinner and the entire sanctification of believers irrespective of denominational connections, "is the grand object in view." Mr. Grumbler and Mr. Small Mind have much to say about the finances of the Camp Meeting. But men of sense and experience know that it costs a lot of money to conduct meetings of this kind and to establish, improve, and keep up the grounds, beside the traveling expenses and support of Evangelists, especially of such an excellent class of men as have visited Beulah, which have been selected from the ablest and best men on this continent. None of the evangelists have been Baptists, but mostly of Methodist connection, but definite and clear in the Wesleyan doctrines of the two works of grace. The work in connection with the Camp Meeting is done gratuitously, the only persons who are paid are the cook and helpers in the kitchen, every dollar received is expended for running expenses and in connection with the grounds. The only money raised for denominational work is the Missionary offering, and every man should be willing to contribute to this fund. We make this statement to help people understand the grand object of Beulah Camp Meeting, which is equally true of Riverside Camp Meeting. Dr. Carradine the evangelist for this season is a member in good standing of the Methodist Church South. He is the author of about twenty-five books, and is a regular contributor to the Christian Witness. This is his third visit to Beulah; thousands of

New Brunswick people have heard him in the past, and many of his books are to be found all over the provinces of N. B. and Nova Scotia.

We speak what we believe to be a living fact when we say that thousands of people, within a distance of 200 miles of Beulah Camp Ground, have had their christian experience enriched and deepened, directly and indirectly through the sermons and writings of Dr. Carradine. We most cordially invite ministers and people of every name to come and enjoy this rich feast with us.

Ministers and Churches.

People who are going away from home for two weeks vacation, generally provide themselves with more money than just enough to meet the estimated cost. Beloved don't forget that your pastor will feel better if he has a few extra dollars while attending Alliance and Camp Meeting.

Every Minister and Licentiate should attend the Alliance and Camp Meeting, also every church and Missionary Society should be represented by delegates.

The Hartland Praying Band held two meetings at Peel on the 23rd; the attendance was large and the interest was good. They will hold two meetings at Cloverdale on the 30th and a street meeting at Hartland tonight 29th.

The annual missionary offering was taken in the St. John church on Sunday evening, 23rd inst, amounting to $422.00. Pastor M. S. Trafton expects to see the amount raised to $450.00. This is a good example of liberality.

Rev. I. F. Kierstead, one of our missionaries to South Africa, has a letter in the "Beulah Christian" in which he says, "we now have a church membership of thirty-three, and besides these about fifty hopeful seekers come to our class meeting Wednesday afternoons. Eight out-stations have sprung up within a few months."

Rev. C. S. Hilyard supplied for Pastor H. H. Cosman at Beals on the 16th. Brother Cosman assisted Rev. H. Smith at Calais where seven persons were baptized and nine were received into the membership of the church.

Rev. B. Colpitts, the Scott Act Inspector, had Holman McMullin of Bairs Mills, before Magistrate Diblee last week and secured convictions for five cases of violation of the law, one second offence. S. S. Miller was also charged with violation of the Scott Act but the evidence was not sufficient for conviction.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins left for Peniac on the 24th. Brother Wiggins preached at Woodstock Sunday morning, 23rd. The friends at Woodstock enjoyed Brother and Sister Wiggins visit of two week very much.

Six were received into the membership of the Woodstock church Sunday evening, 23rd inst, including the Pastor and Mrs. Baker and son, Garfield, who were given the hand of fellowship by Rev. W. B. Wiggins.

The Woodstock Praying Band are holding regular evangelistic services in the Exhibition Building every Sunday afternoon at 3.45.

Rev. G. B. McDonald, St. John, preached in the Baptist church, Regina, last Sunday morning and evening.—Daily Sun.

Mrs. P. J. Trafton and children went to St. John Friday afternoon to visit relatives for two weeks. They will attend Beulah camp meeting, at which Rev. P. J. Trafton will be present to take a part.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Rev. S. Greenlaw has received a unanimous call to remain on the Mill-ville circuit for another year which he has accepted.

Brother S. Harleigh Clark reports an enjoyable time in his visit to Geary church, and expects to spend another Sunday there after the Camp Meeting.

Rev'ds H. C. Archer, J. H. Coy, and W. B. Wiggins, went to Beulah during the week to prepare for the meeting—Sisters Archer, Coy and Wiggins accompanied their husbands. Brother S. Harleigh Clark went down on the 24th.

Rev. A. H. Kearney will supply for the Pastor at Woodstock Sunday evenings, July 7th and 14th.

OTHER CHURCHES.

The Methodist church at Woodstock has been torn down, and preparations are now being made for the erection of a modern edifice much larger than the old one, which has stood for about fifty years.

The United Baptists of Woodstock are preparing to enlarge their church on Main St.

According to the reports of the Daily Papers the new Methodist Camp Ground near Westfield is to be a pleasure resort as well as for religious purposes.

The New Brunswick United Baptist Association will convene with the church at Woodstock, on Tuesday, July 9th.

According to a communication entitled "Fair Dealing," in the Maritime Baptist of June 26th, two schools of theology exists among the ministry of the denomination represented by that paper, distinguished as "the old, and the new theology." These beloved brethren will need our Lord's prayer answered, as recorded in John 17—in their behalf to give them oneness, for this smoldering fire may break out in a flame at any time.

PERSONALS.

Brother Chipman Phillips and Sister Catherine Stevens will be married at the home of the bride's mother, in Minneapolis, on July 2nd. Brother and Sister Phillips will spend a few days at Beulah Camp Meeting on their way home. The Highway joins in wishing the happy couple a very happy journey through life.

Rev. G. N. Ballantine has closed his labours at Modesto, California. Possibly he may visit the home land.

Rev. A. H. Kearney has resigned as pastor of the Woodstock Advent Christian church. He preached his farewell sermon Sunday night, June 23rd.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. Kinney died very suddenly at her home at Lewisburg, C. B. Her burial took place at Moncton, N. B. We have not heard anything in connection with Sister Kinney's death except as above stated.

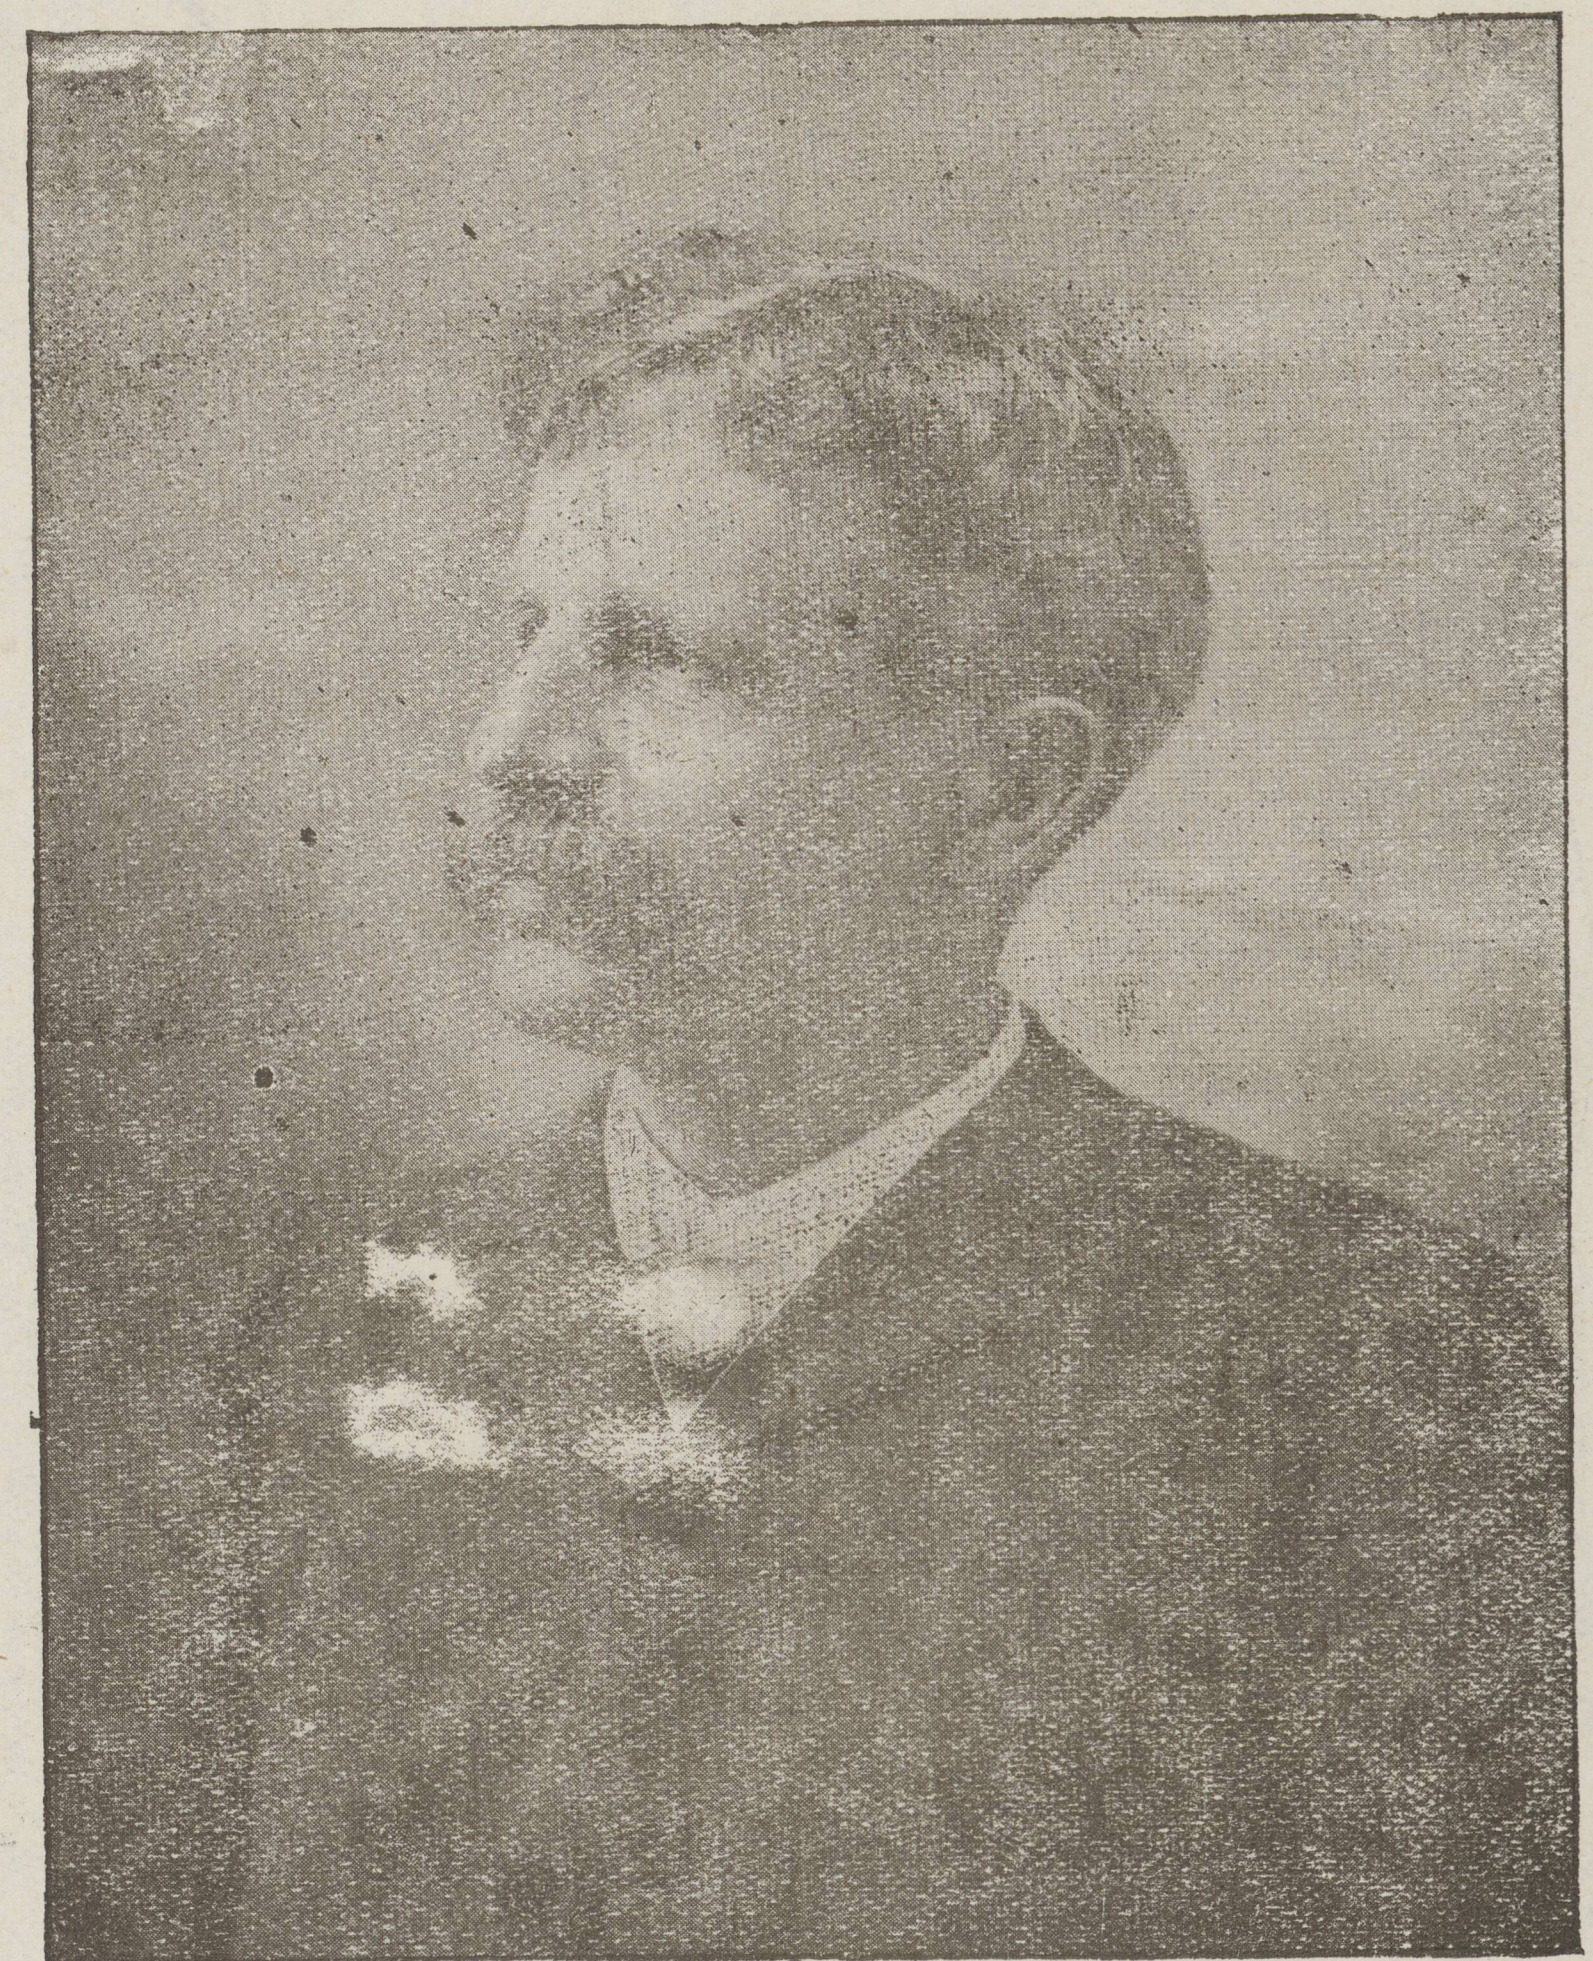

Rev. D. Rand Pierce and wife have gone West and will engage in tent meetings in various parts of Colorado and perhaps Kansas. He will labour with Rev. Wm. H. Lee of Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Alfred Thornton came to Hartland last week. The church at Sandford, N. S. will miss her as one of its staunchest members. Sister Thornton will find warm hearts to welcome her to the Hartland church.

Brother J. C. Smith of Bridgewater is assisting his brother, E. M. Smith of St. John, to build a cottage at Beulah. Our Smith brethren are brothers indeed; they love as brethren.

Rev. B. Carradine, D. D., will be at Beulah Camp Meeting July 8-17.

Dr. Carradine is acknowledged to be not only the leading holiness evangelist, but also far in the lead as a writer on the subject. He has written at least twenty-five volumes, most of which are on the subject of Holiness. As he grows older the fountain of thought and experience becomes richer.

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The Reformed Baptist Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 convened with the church at Upper Springfield on Tuesday June 4th. The attendance was good throughout the convention. This church was organized only last winter and is strongly opposed by those who choose a sinning religion. Nevertheless many, who did not understand, being led, perhaps by curiosity more than by hunger and thirst for righteousness, to the quarterly meetings, were convinced, by the interesting explanation of the doctrine given by Rev. M. S. Trafton, that Holiness is the blessed possession of every one that believes God and His word.

The business meeting was called to order on Friday afternoon. Officers for the new quarter were elected as follows: Rev. F. H. Grass, president; Ira DeWitt Long, secretary; Mrs. William Beals, treasurer; H. W. McCutcheon, HIGHWAY Agent.

It was moved and adopted that every church in the district appoint a HIGHWAY Agent to assist the district Agent in securing subscriptions for the paper of the denomination.

To the roll call of ministers four responded. They were: Revs. Z. B. Grass, F. H. Grass, M. S. Trafton and A. F. Tanner.

To the roll call of delegates the following responded:—Bro. D. Hayes from Mercer Settlement, also Mrs. P. Hayes and Mrs. F. H. Grass as substitutes; H. W. McCutcheon and H. Kierstead from Upper Springfield; Mrs. A. Hayes and Mr. A. Taylor from Head of Millstream.

Four churches reported by letter. The letter from the church at Upper Springfield was full and highly expressive of a burning zeal for God and the cause of Holiness, not only in their own, but in all churches everywhere, where full salvation is preached. No new members have been added since the last quarterly meeting, and two have removed from the community. The present membership is thirteen.

Mercer Settlement church reports victory all the time through the cleansing blood of Jesus. No new members added. The Sunday school is a very important branch of the work here. The attendance is good, as well as the interest in the Study of God's word.

No letter from Head of Millstream church. The pastor, Rev. F. H. Grass reported that the interest in God's work is deepening. Although the church there was organized within the last year, full salvation has been preached for many years. And people realize that Holiness is God's remedy for sin. God is surely blessing the little band there.

Moncton—The letter from this church reports about the same as last quarterly meeting. They are sharing the blessings of God, but still looking to Him for more. The interest is fairly good, but they would see it better. Since the last quarterly meeting they were blessed by a visit from Rev. W. B. Wiggins and wife.

St. John—No letter from this church. The pastor, Rev. M. S. Trafton was pleased to report a steady, ever-increasing zeal for God and His cause, among the members of his church. The Sunday school is doing good work. The interest in missionary work among the members of this church is greater than any other in the district according to the report. The pastor is looking for $500 in the coming year, for that branch alone of the work.

Amherst—This church, although scattered till only two or three remain, reports faith in God for the fulfilment of his every promise. Since the last quarterly meeting they have been visited by Bro Wiggins and wife, and Rev. M. S. Trafton.

Lutz Mountain.—No letter from this church. Rev. Z. B. Grass, their pastor reported the standing of the church about the same as at the last quarterly meeting. The interest is low. A few are trusting God for final victory over the adversary. May God send aid to these weak churches.

Westchester—No letter. Rev. M. S. Trafton reported that he had recently visited this church and found the standing of its membership as good as might be expected, considering that they are without preaching regularly. It was decided that the quarterly meeting in September would meet with the church at Head of Millstream.

It was moved by Rev. M. S. Trafton and seconded by Rev. A. F. Tanner, that this Quarterly Meeting recommend to the preacher's association Bro. H. W. McCutcheon, (for license).

Motion for adjournment by Rev. M. S. Trafton.

The Quarterly Meeting closed on Sunday evening. It proved a blessing to the saints, and a conviction on sinners, because of the presence and working of God's Holy Spirit. Praise His name forever.

IRA DEWITT LONG, Secretary.

The attendance promises to be larger at Beulah Camp Meeting than for several years, judging from reports we receive from every direction.

Persons going to Beulah Camp Meeting should take their sheets, pillow cases, and a pair of blankets for cool nights. The attendance is going to be unusually large and more bedding will be required than the Alliance has on hand.
