 E. M. Smith, St. John 100.00
 Early Steeves 10.00
 B. A. McQuarrie 10.00
 $2,934.30

The Alliance has appointed Revs. S. A. Baker and W. B. Wiggins as collectors of this fund this year and they expect to divide the territory between them; and if possible to visit all the churches to solicit cash subscriptions to this Fund. They aim at closing off the debt at the Beulah Camp Ground and believe it can be done this year. And it will be done if all help.

One brother, a minister, has already offered $100, and no doubt others will follow his example. If fifty will do this the load will be lifted. No one is confined to this amount. You may give any amount up to $1000, if you wish. Come on beloved, let us do our best.

W. B. Wiggins.

You will notice that this fund is being continued. We wish this year to clear the debt off Beulah Camp Ground and we will be able to do this if all who are interested in the work will assist us. Brother Joseph Bullock still continues his generous offer to give dollar for dollar for all we may raise on this Fund. Let us see what we can do. His noble wife still continues her offer to give dollar for dollar for all the sisters may raise in the Ladies' Fund. Send the money for the Ladies' Fund to Mrs. Jos. Bullock, St. John, N. B. The money for the Men's Fund to Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Moncton, N. B., or Rev. S. A. Baker, Fredericton, N. B.

MARRIED.

MAVOR-STEEVES.

At the home of the bride's parents at Marysville, a quiet but charming wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, 6th inst., when Miss Frances Iola Steeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Steeves, was united in marriage to Mr. John Stewart Mavor, formerly of Fredericton, but now of Bassano, Alberta.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. A. Baker, of this city, in the presence of only the close relatives of the bride and groom. They were unattended.

The groom's present to the bride was a horse and saddle.

The bride is a graduate of the Fredericton High School, '06, and of the University of New Brunswick in the class of 1910. While at the University she was one of its most popular and prominent young ladies, and her numerous friends throughout the Province will join in wishing her long years of happy married life.

The groom is a graduate of Dalhousie University in Arts and Law, and is now a member of the law firm of Burns, Mavor & Co., of Calgary and Bassano, Alberta. Since taking up his home in the west he has been very successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Mavor are leaving this afternoon by the 5.40 train for their home in Alberta. They have planned to make the journey by easy stages, going south of the Great Lakes, through the Northern States and visiting Toronto, Detroit, Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, also visiting on the way the bride's brothers in Saskatchewan.—Gleaner.

At the home of Rev. A. H. Trafton, Perth, on Wednesday, October 23, Mr. Charles Bent to Miss Helen J. Davidson, both of Plaster Rock.

At the home of Rev. A. H. Trafton, Perth, on Friday, October 25, Mr. Bernard Kinney to Miss Eva Bean, both of Fort Fairfield, Me.

At Hartland, on Wednesday, October 30, by Rev. A. H. Trafton, Perth, Mr. Frank G. Shaw to Miss Inex Stewart, both of Hartland.

At Perth Hotel, Nov. 8th, by Rev. A. H. Trafton, Mr. Edward F. Grant, of Red Rapids, N. B., and Miss Sadie M. Smith, of Fort Fairfield, Me.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, Woodstock, N. B., on Nov. 9th, 1912, by Rev. H. C. Archer, Joseph E. Butler and Miss Myrtle Steeves, both of Woodstock, N. B.

DIED.

At Central Hainesville, Nov. 4, 1912, Lida M., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Wallace. She had only reached the age of three years and six months, but had won the hearts of all who knew her, and will be much missed in the home. The funeral was attended by Rev. E. W. Lester on the 6th inst. We extend to those who mourn our heartfelt sympathies, having this consolation, that she is with Jesus and better off.

A message with the sad news of the death of Mrs. S. L. Churchill at Butte, Montana, was received Wednesday. Heart failure was the cause of her death. She died Tuesday morning, Nov. 5th, and leaves three sons, Frank, Guy and Brundage, to mourn the loss of a kind mother. Deceased was a sister of the late G. W. Vanwart of our town, and with her husband and family lived many years in Woodstock, where she has many friends who will feel great sympathy for the bereaved ones.—Woodstock Press.

At Moncton, on Sunday evening, Nov. 3rd, James L., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tuck, aged 17 years and four months. James was never a rugged boy, and seemed to grow tall beyond his years, as he was 6 feet and 1 inch in height when he died. Last May he became quite ill and had several hemorrhages; but rallied and through the summer spent most of his time in a tent in hopes of recovery. But his Heavenly Father willed it otherwise, as he began to gradually lose his strength, and after much suffering, which he endured with patience, refusing to take any opiates that he might have his full senses to the last, he passed peacefully away to his heavenly home. James made a start toward the Kingdom of God while attending a camp meeting at Beulah some two years ago, but did not get established, and soon forgot to pray. During his first illness in May he realized his need of God and as his father prayed with him and for him he accepted Christ as his Saviour and received the witness of the Spirit to his acceptance, and was very happy. From that time till the end he never wavered, but was faithful and prayerful and always desired his friends, as they visited him, to pray with him. He loved to talk with his Father in heaven, and had seasons of great joy as he thought of the heavenly home. He earnestly wished that he might be permitted to visit the house of the Lord and there leave his testimony to the power of God's saving grace. But this blessed privilege was not realized, owing to increasing physical weakness. He had no fear of death and at last longed to be at rest. All that loving parents, a brother and sisters could do was done for him and every wish was gratified, but death could not be stayed and the end came. Besides his father and mother, he leaves one brother, Edwin, of Moncton, and three sisters, Bertie and Minnie, if Moncton, and Mrs. William Cashman, of Boston, besides a large circle of friends, to mourn their loss, as was shown by the large number who attended his funeral and the number of floral offerings. The writer officiated, assisted by Rev. W. G. Lane, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, and the hymns sung were favorites of the deceased, as "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Abide with me" and "God shall wipe all tears away." Much sympathy is felt for the family, as this is the second one who has passed away from the home within a few years.

W. B. Wiggins.

Personals.

Brother Simon and Sister McLeod, who spent the past year with friends in Denver, Colorado, have gone to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Scott, in Columbus, O. We are glad to learn that they are enjoying good health and much of blessing from heaven.

Rev. A. F. Ingler has taken the pastorate of a church at North Attleboro, Mass., for a year. He is now helping in revival services at Cundy's Harbour.

Mrs. F. L. Mooers and Miss Adeline were in Moncton last week, the former being a delegate of the Provincial Sunday School Convention.

Mrs. D. H. Nixon, Mrs. H. N. Boyer and Brother Claud McMullen were delegates from Hartland to the Sunday School Convention at Moncton.

Rev. H. W. McCutcheon paid a visit to his father and brother in this city last week. He made us a pleasant call. He has enjoyed a revival on his circuit in Queens county, and baptised twenty-four persons recently.

Brother Ralph McCluskey, of Meductic, has finished his course in the Fredericton Business College, and returned to his home. Brother McCluskey is one of our loyal young men and we believe he will not only be successful in business life, but also in his Christian work.

Rev. George B. and Mrs. MacDonald called on friends at Woodstock and Meductic, while on their way to their new field of labor, Sussex, N. B.

A Sister says of the Highway, "I love to hear from the Missionaries and the churches, and I love to send it to my friend who enjoys reading it. I am still trusting in Jesus."

"The mission of Christianity is not to occupy a respectable place apart, but to leaven life through and through."—James Stalker, the Preacher.
