The Alliance has appointed Revs. S. A. Baker and W. B. Wiggins as collectors of this fund this year and they expect to divide the territory between them; and if possible to visit all the churches to solicit cash subscriptions to this Fund. They aim at closing off the debt at the Beulah Camp Ground and believe it can be done this year. And it will be done if all help.

One brother, a minister, has already offered $100, and no doubt others will follow his example. If fifty will do this the load will be lifted. No one is confined to this amount. You may give any amount up to $1000, if you wish. Come on beloved, let us do our best.

W. B. Wiggins.

You will notice that this fund is being continued. We wish this year to clear the debt off Beulah Camp Ground and we will be able to do this if all who are interested in the work will assist us. Brother Joseph Bullock still continues his generous offer to give dollar for dollar for all we may raise on this Fund. Let us see what we can do. His noble wife still continues her offer to give dollar for dollar for all the sisters may raise in the Ladies' Fund. Send the money for the Ladies' Fund to Mrs. Jos. Bullock, St. John, N. B. The money for the Men's Fund to Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Moncton, N. B., or Rev. S. A. Baker, Fredericton, N. B.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

The Highway has had a successful year, although the expense of publishing has been much higher than ever before, but we closed the year with an increase on the credit side of our account.

We appreciate the kindly words coming to us from all directions. Help us brethren to procure a large number of new subscriptions for the year now beginning.—Editor.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Dear Brethren:

Your Committee on Temperance beg leave to report that we deeply regret that after all that has been done by temperance bodies, churches and Sabbath schools, drunkenness is still a growing evil, and that the boys all over our beautiful country are being slain by the accursed habit of strong drink. And we as a denomination wish again to put ourselves on record as opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, and we will unite with all other religious bodies to do all in our power to bring to pass the total prohibition of the liquor traffic. We believe that if the professed church of Jesus Christ would rise up unitedly in the power of the Holy Spirit, we can drive this demon from our land. Your committee also regret that the tobacco and cigarette habit are on the increase, and we believe that if the church of God would by precept and example take a stand against these evils as it should, that where sin abounds grace would much more abound.

J. H. COY,
G. B. TRAFTON,
H. H. COSMAN,

Committee.

"REST," AND "A LARGER VISION."
(Rev. John Henry Jowett.)

When Dr. Jowett, recently called from Manchester, England, to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, addressed the American General Assembly at Atlantic City, a few months ago, he gave this picture of his own early life and its lesson:

"At my own home in England, in the quiet evening hour, my mother often sat with me, and I loved to watch her at work, and to watch the fire embers as they softly fell and slowly became lifeless. They had a significance and calmed our minds and kept us humble, thoughtful and reflective.

"And one evening as we sat by our fire-side, my mother busy with her work, now and then she would look up and through the window to the stars as they came out and strung themselves like golden beads on the rosary of heaven. And I said to her:

"Mother, why do you look up?"

"I look, my son, to rest my eyes and get a larger vision."

"And this," he added, "is what I want my people in New York to do. To look up from their work, their toil, their labor and struggles and rest their eyes and get a larger vision.

To look up from the embers that are dropping into ashes of lost hope and failures, to look up from the fitful firelight of daily life, the feverish rush, the maddening turmoil, and rest their eyes and rest their minds, and get a larger vision, a grander view, higher objects, wider purposes; to see beyond the works of their hands upon which their thoughts and minds are centered, to the words and purposes of God, that they may realize in the deepest centers of their own being that there are larger and wider visions to be attained, higher objects to be sought for, greater purposes to be realized than all the earth with its fulness can bring to them."

Those coming to the Alliance and Camp Meeting by the I. C. R. G. A. R., the St. John River Steamers, and by Steamer Grand Manan, get free return. See rates.

though we are very anxious to have the Valley Railroad, we do not desire its construction to be carried on on the Sabbath day. Other desecrations are observed to an appalling extent, such as working on the farm, or in the shop, visiting, going on picnics, taking pleasure trips in yachts, autos, etc. We believe nothing has increased the desecration of the Sabbath more than the automobile. It is used for wrong purposes like many other good things. God has appointed for the benefit of man a day of rest and to disregard it as such is to bring evil and spiritual ruin upon all who do so. Therefore we heartily co-operate with other religious bodies in urging upon all our people and others that they conscientiously observe the laws of God and abstain from everything, both small and great, that may in any way reflect upon the sacredness of the sabbath day and that they make it a day of worship and communion with God.

THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, the corresponding secretary, read his report of the work among the churches which showed good spiritual and financial conditions. There were many losses through death and removals, but there was a small increase over these losses.

The reports show an unwavering faith and courage among our people and love and grace abounding.

Our churches have contributed for all purposes about fifteen thousand dollars during the year, besides the contribution for the expenses of the camp meetings and the improvements at Riverside Camp Ground.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT.

Sister Ella Slipp read the Sunday School report, showing an excellent interest in the Sunday Schools among our churches, and that the Sunday Schools had contributed over a thousand dollars for school and missionary purposes. The report will be printed in the minutes.

AT BEULAH CAMP GROUND.

Beulah Camp Ground was never more beautiful than at the present time, the trees in fresh, green foliage, the white and purple lilacs sending forth their sweet perfume, the other flowering shrubbery breaking forth in their beauty, the flowing fountains all contribute to its loveliness. The ideal weather of the first days of the Alliance gave a charm to the place which cannot be described. The songs of joy and praise, prayer and testimony are in beautiful harmony with these surroundings. Surely God smiles upon us and gives hearts of gratitude for His abundant blessings.

I am still living with God's blessing in my soul.

"I am glad I learned to trust Him, Precious Jesus, Saviour, friend."

I am glad I came to Beulah Camp Meeting. I have been helped spiritually and expect God to wonderfully bless meetings and many souls will be helped and saved.
