

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. M. S. Trafton returned home Monday afternoon from Bristol, going back Tuesday afternoon. He is assisting in some evangelistic revival meetings held at that place.—Fort Fairfield Review.

The services at the Reformed Baptist Church last Sunday were conducted by Rev. Alfred H. Trafton, of Perth, in the absence of his son, Rev. M. S. Trafton, the regular pastor. They will also be conducted by the same minister the coming Sunday.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Brother F. T. Wright is assisting Rev. H. H. Cosman at Beals, Me., in special services.

We expect to begin special services at Fredericton on the 16th, Rev. C. S. Hilyard assisting. Brethren, pray for us that we may have a blessed victory.

Rev. J. H. Coy spent a week with the church at Perth, which they appreciated very much.

Revs. P. J. Trafton and H. S. Dow and M. S. Trafton are continuing to have successful services at Bristol. We pray that they may enjoy a great and lasting victory.

Rev. H. C. Archer was elected 1st vice-president of the N. B. and P. E. I. S.S. Association, and Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., a member of the executive.

Revs. H. Smith and C. S. Hilyard closed the special services at Penniac on the 2nd inst.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer spent several days in Fredericton last week attending the Provincial S. S. Convention.

Brother and Sister Lester wish to thank the people of Maple Ridge and Millville for their kind remembrance of them as the cold weather begins to come on. On the evening of Oct. 11th, Brother Henry Hoyt, of Maple Ridge, again opened up his home, and a number of people gathered there and donated their pastor $35.50. Then on the evening of October 25th there was another gathering at the Millville parsonage, when Brother and Sister Lester were presented with $43.00. The people on the Millville circuit know how to take care of their pastor.

NOTICE.

The next Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 will convene with the church at Marysville, N. B., on Thursday, Nov. 27th, at 7.30 p. m., and continue over Sunday. We print the following resolution passed at the last meeting:

Resolved, That the churches in this district be requested to send written reports as well as delegates, and that the ministers in the district be urged upon to attend, and where they find it impossible to do so, that they report themselves to the Q. M.

H. C. ARCHER, Secretary.

David Livingstone gave his life for Africa. He said: "Cannot the love of Christ carry the missionary where the slave trade carries the trader?" We cry "surely!" People talked to Livingstone about the sacrifice in spending so much of his life in Africa, and he said, "Anxiety, weakness, suffering, danger and foregoing of the comforts of this life, make us pause and waver and the soul to shrink, but it is nothing compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us and for us. I never made a sacrifice."

"A holy life is a voice; it speaks when the tongue is silent."

MARRIED.

BURTCHELL-HAMILTON.

In Limestone, Thursday, November 6, by Rev. C. S. Hilyard, Mr. Roscoe Burtchell and Miss Christine Hamilton, both of Fort Fairfield.

HAMPTON-CRAIG.

A very pleasant event was solemnized at the residence of Aaron B. Craig, Millinocket, on the evening of Oct. 28th, when their daughter, Alice Elethea, was united in marriage to John Hampton, of Port De Grave, Nfld. A number of the immediate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony which was solemnized by Rev. M. S. Trafton, of Fort Fairfield. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The many costly presents speak very highly of the esteem in which the family and the bride are held in town, although they have only resided there a few years. A hearty supper was served at 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton left for Newfoundland on November 3rd.

GREEN-WILCOX.

At the home of Rosco Wilcox, Oct. 25th, John Albry Green and Reta Lillian Wilcox, both of Wood Island, N. B., were united in marriage by the Rev. Geo. W. Henderson.

MITTON-MITTON.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Lutes street, Moncton, Nov. 10th, by Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., Gordon A. Mitton, of the I. C. R. machine shops, Moncton, to Aurcola May, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Mitton.

DIED.

Joseph R. Robinson passed peacefully to his rest at his home at White Head, Grand Manan, N. B., Oct. 15th, aged 73 years. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow and one daughter. The funeral service was held at the Baptist Church on Saturday, the 19th, at 2 p. m., Rev. Geo. W. Henderson officiating.

BOOK DEPARTMENT.

We have been consulting Rev. Mr. Ridout, of the Christian Witness Co., regarding books and cards and mottoes and song books. We are intending to take the matter into further consideration, and if we receive sufficient encouragement from our Canadian readers we will arrange so they can order through us books on holiness by many writers, and any of the singing books published by the Christian Witness Company.—EDITOR.

Personals.

The Editor had the pleasure of spending Monday, the 3rd inst., with Evangelist Guy L. and Mrs. Wilson, in Chicago. We visited the Marshall Field Memorial Museum, Swift's great meat packing plant, and Marshall Field's great departmental store.

Brother A. H. Sherwood, of Everett, Wash., attended the convention at Chicago. His son Raynor is attending college there. Brother Sherwood is the principal of The Garfield School, in Everett, Wash. He visited the leading schools in Chicago, studying improved methods.

Brother A. G. Clark, of Fredericton, has gone to Portland, Me., to visit his daughter, and may remain for the winter.

Brother and Sister A. H. Sherwood, of Everett, Wash., have become members of the Fredericton church.

Sister Josie Cody, of St. John, Mrs. F. L. Mooers, Woodstock, Mrs. Abner Sharp, Mrs. E. W. Lester, and Mrs. W. W. Jones, of Millville; Mrs. James Rogers, of Hartland, and Mrs. S. A. Baker and Mrs. Charles Barker, of Fredericton, and Mrs. W. L. Estabrook, of Marysville, and Mrs. Clarence N. Goodspeed and two daughters, of Penniac, were delegates to the Provincial Sunday School convention held at Fredericton last week.

DEVOTIONAL POEMS.

We have received five very neat little booklets containing seven poems written by our late Brother S. L. Churchill, of Butte, Montana. They are entitled "Never-fading Flowers," "True Worship," "True Foundation," "Christ's Command," "The Book of God," "The Living Vine" and "Another Life." We have not learned whether they will be for sale or not.

I found something within me that would not be sweet, and patient, and kind; I did what I could to keep it down, but it was there; I besought Jesus to do something for me, and when I gave Him my will He came into my heart and took out all that would not be kind, all that would not be patient, and then He shut the door.—George Fox.

Two laborers were trying to place a stone in position on the foundation wall of a new building. A crowd was standing around looking on, and each one offering his criticism and counsel freely and loudly, but not one lifting so much as a finger to help. "That reminds me of church work," said a passer-by to another. "Why?" "Because," was the reply, "two men are doing the work, and twenty are doing the talking."—Selected.

Pastors will please call the people's attention to the Highway and ask the people to subscribe and present subscribers to renew.

It is very essential that contributions should flow in quickly for the return fund for Brother and Sister Kierstead. Pray and give and act immediately.

Our people have responded nobly to our appeals in the past; we have full confidence in them for the present and future.
