There were no services in the Fredericton church except Sunday School on the 20th on account of the tent meeting.

This is by far the best equipped Camp Ground I ever visited, and I have visited many of the largest. Your hotel is far beyond any camp meeting hotel I ever saw.

—Rev. A. P. Gouthey.

A. and Mrs. Baker expect to start on Monday Aug. 4th to drive to Riverside Camp Ground, in good weather it is a beautiful drive through York and Carleton Counties into Aroostook County, a distance of about 95 miles by the most direct route, through Woodstock, Jacksonville, Lakeville, Centerville, Tracey's Mills, Bairds Mills to Robinson's Mills Me.

Milo, July 17.

Rev. George Shaw, of Upland, Indiana, gave his fine lecture on the earthquake and fire in San Francisco, with its lessons, on Wednesday evening, in the M. E. church, closing his evangelistic services in this town. Prof. Shaw is an able and fearless preacher of Gospel truth and the services have been an uplift and help to many hearts. Many expressions of appreciation and interest have been heard from those who have listened so attentively to his evening messages at the street meetings. He leaves a great number of friends who will look forward to his return to the work here another year, while the best wishes of the people go with him as he sails for England. Rev. D. E. McClain will continue the services in the M. E. church.

S. E. Thomas, Sec'y.

At the present rate of supporting missions it would take a long time to evangelize the world. A few are giving what they feel they can spare, while the masses are doing nothing, absolutely nothing. Occasionally some one gives until it hurts, but not often. The apostolic methods would evangelize the world in a few years, but the apostolic methods are very much out of date now-a-days.—Sel.

OBITUARY.

On Monday, July 14th the entire community of Seal Cove, Grand Manan was shocked by the sad intelligence of the sudden death of Mrs. Capt. J. A. Ingersoll, aged 64 years.

While Mrs. Ingersoll has not been enjoying good health for some time, yet she has been able to attend to the accustomed duties of the home, she was as well as usual Monday. The day's work being ended and, with her daughter-in-law, she was enjoying the cool of the day, when she arose, passed into the entry and fell, and in a few moments passed away.

She leaves to mourn a devoted husband, three sons, all of Seal Cove, and four daughters Mrs. Claudia Carson of Grand Harbour, Mrs. Dr. B. W. Robertson, Keswick Ridge, Mrs. C. Dalzell, and Miss Julia, at Seal Cove.

The deceased was a life long member of the Free Baptist church.

The funeral of Reuben Smith, an aged resident of Geary, S. Co. took place on Saturday the 19th inst. at his late home, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Phillips, with whom he has lived for a number of years. He died on Thursday the 17th inst., aged 84 years, leaving one brother, four sisters, with other relatives, and a host of friends to mourn their loss. He was a good man, highly respected and beloved by all who knew him. He lived and died with a strong faith in Christ and a bright hope of the higher and better life beyond this world. His funeral was largely attended, the services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Licentiate K. M. Vallis, at his late home. He was buried near the old home beside his wife, who had passed on before him a number of years.

G. W. Foster.

We received the above obituary notice from Rev. G. W. Foster, U. B. Pastor at Geary. We had not heard of Brother Smith's recent sickness, so the notice of his death came as a surprise to us. It can be truly said of Brother Smith "He was a good man." He claimed the blessing of entire sanctification early in the holiness movement, and ever after advocated it. He attended the Alliance and Camp Meeting at Beulah regularly for many years, but the infirmities of age kept him at home during the past few years, although he kept about and seemed able to do light work.

So our aged ones are gathering home.—Ed.

It is a wonderful thing, a mother. Other folks can love you, but only your mother understands you; she works for you, looks after you, loves you, forgives you.—Baroness von Hutten.

"As far as we know Bibles were first brought to Korea in 1865 under the direction of the National Bible Society of Scotland by the Rev. Mr. Thomas. He came from Cheefoo in a Korean Junk. In the following year he came over in the ill-fated 'Sherman.' The ship was stranded near Pyang-Yang and both he and the crew were killed by the Koreans.

Sister Lillie Young says:—"I am sending renewal for the Highway for another year. I enjoy it so much. Am praying for glorious blood bought victory at the tent meetings. May Riverside Camp Meeting be a time of real salvation, and many find Jesus. O, for a real tidal wave to sweep over this land.

Resting in His love, hallelujah. He sweetly satisfies. Glory! Glory! Glory!"

Sister Young is a helpless cripple through rheumatism, but a very happy one.—Ed.
