RIVERSIDE CAMP GROUND

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING.

August 8-17.

This Camp Ground is situated near Robinson Station, on the Bangor & Aroostook Railway, amidst the beautiful farms of the great potato raising Aroostook County. About two miles from the base of Mars Hill.

A Large New Hotel is to be erected this Spring to accommodate the increasing crowds who attend this Camp Meeting.

Six Passenger Trains stop at the grounds daily.

The Hotel is to be built just to the left of the gate house.

Particulars of this meeting will be given later.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

On Friday night, March 7th, the Women's Missionary Meeting of the Ref. Baptist church of Woodstock met. The Sunday School has been helping out on the programme, the different classes taking turns.

The President, Mrs. Estey, being absent the First Vice Dr. Jewett took the chair.

After scripture reading and prayer the Bancroft Bible class rendered the following program:

Reading—Miss Colpitts.

Reading—Mrs. Frank Watson.

Solo and chorus by Miss Colpitts and class.

Doxology.

Benediction by pastor.

Ministers and Churches.

Good meetings, good attendance at Moncton church. Pastor W. B. Wiggins gave the right hand of fellowship to three young men Sunday evening, 23rd inst.

The brethren report an excellent quarterly meeting at Hartland. By invitation of Rev. Mr. Schurman, Rev. M. S. Trafton preached in the United Baptist church, and Miss Ella Slipp preached in the Reformed Baptist church. Both churches were filled, extra seats being required.

The many friends of Rev. T. Moses and Mrs. Moses met at the parsonage last Tuesday evening and presented them with a purse of $55. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Pastor Rev. Henry Smith is planning special meetings at Penniac in the near future.

THE CHEERFUL PERSON.

God bless the cheerful person—man, woman or child, old or young, illiterate or educated, handsome or homely. What the sun is to nature, what God is to the stricken heart, are cheerful persons in the house and by the wayside. They go unobtrusively, unconsciously about their mission, happiness beaming from their faces. We love to sit near them. We love the nature of their eye, the tone of their voices. Little children find them out quickly amid the densest crowd, and passing by the knitted brow and compressed lip, glide near, laying a confiding hand on their knee and lift their clear, young eyes to those loving faces.—Ex.

"And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost." Paul said: "Quit you like men." When speaking well of a person much can be said in a single sentence. "He is a man." The church needs those of whom it can be said, "A man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost."

Are you one of this type? Thank God we may be.

Be sure and look at the little red label when you read your Highway.
