

Ministers and Churches.

Just before Brother and Sister Clark moved to Port Maitland the friends of Sandford and Yarmouth gave them a happy surprise and left them happier and richer by their call. A short time before this Brother Clark was presented with a storm coat. Brother Clark's address is now Port Maitland, N. S.

Rev. A. F. Tanner is confined to his bed most of the time. His address is West Pembroke, Me. Write him, brethren.

The Hartland church building is being enlarged, which has been much needed for several years for the accommodation of the Sunday School and for special services.

The Editor spent a very pleasant week on Grand Manan. He preached twice at Seal Cove and twice at North Head and once on Wood Island. Brother Henderson and family are very comfortably situated in the parsonage at Seal Cove, and are well cared for by the people.

Fourth district quarterly meeting will convene with the church at New Tuskett, N. S., on Sept. 18th. Herbert Thurston, secretary.

The people of Brazil Lake, N. S., were much disappointed by Brother Hilyard not being able to attend. The church building there has been nicely painted this summer.

The Cedar Lake, N. S., church is finished on the outside and the brethren expect to finish the inside soon.

Rev. H. C. Archer gave a lecture at Hartland recently, giving the outline of his trip to the world's S.S. convention at Zurich, Switzerland.

Rev. G. B. Trafton has resumed his pastoral duties after two weeks vacation spent at Geary.

Revs. G. W. Henderson, H. H. Cosman, Brother F. T. Wright and Sister Ella Slipp attended the third district quarterly meeting held at Beals, Me.

Rev. A. H. Trafton returned from Port Maitland, N. S., and resumed his labors at Perth on the 7th inst.

Rev. H. S. Dow is assisting Rev. L. T. Sabine at Middle Southampton, and the brethren are having good success.

Brother F. T. Wright is assisting Rev. P. J. Trafton in special services at Gordonsville.

The report of the Millville quarterly meeting has not reached us in time for this issue. The editor is sorry he was unable to be present at the meeting.

Rev. H. S. Dow has decided to help our pastors in evangelistic work during the fall and winter, for which we praise the Lord. We know of no better helper than Brother Dow. His address is Grand View, York County, N. B., where Brother Dow's family will remain for the present.

The Editor had a very pleasant call from Rev. M. S. Trafton, who passed through the city on the 16th.

BEULAH FUND.

We are glad to note that our Beulah fund has met with such a ready response and that a sufficient amount has been promised to meet the debt on our hotel at Beulah. Will those who have promised please remit their respective pledges for the Ladies' Fund to Mrs. Joseph Bullock, St. John, N. B., and the pledges towards the Men's Fund to either Bro. S. A. Baker, Fredericton, or to myself here at Moncton. When received they will be acknowledged in the "Highway."

Yours truly,
W. B. WIGGINS. Moncton, N. B.

MARRIED.

At the R. B. Parsonage, Seal Cove, Aug. 27th, 1913, Miss May Alice Wilson was married to Mr. William H. Linton, both of Grand Manan, by the Rev. Geo. W. Henderson.

At the Reformed Baptist Church, Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 1st, by Rev. S. A. Baker, Mr. Charles A. Cliff, of Preston, Iowa, and Mrs. Bertie Squires, of Upper Gagetown, N. B. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff left on the 9 p. m. train for Boston, New York and Niagara Falls. They spent several days in these cities before going to Preston, Iowa, where Mr. Cliff has resided for many years.

DIED.

Aug. 22, 1913, at Centreville, Car. Co., N. B., after four days' illness of diphtheria, Bertha Merrill Huntley, daughter of Mr. Arthur Huntley, of Lowell, Mass., aged nine years, eleven months and twenty-four days, leaving besides her father one sister, Verna, a grandfather and grandmother and large circle of other relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

This was a sad case, the father did not arrive till after the child was buried.

P. J. T.

At the home of his parents, Frank and Susan Pelkie, Gordonville, Carleton Co., N. B., Aug. 25th, Charlie E., their eldest son, aged 26 years. His sickness covered about six months, but he was only at home a few weeks before his death. Loving hands ministered to his need. He leaves to mourn their loss besides his parents, four brothers, Emerson, of Hartland, Me., Benjamin, Adolphus and Garfield, at home. Four sisters, Jennie, Sylvia, Martha and Faith, all at home. The funeral service was held in the U. B. Church, the writer officiating, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Much sympathy is felt for our Brother and Sister and family in this their deep sorrow. They are leaning hard upon God.

P. J. Trafton.

TO THE BRETHREN AND SISTERS.

The Alliance appointed Revs. W. B. Wiggins and S. A. Baker delegates to represent the "Reformed Baptist Alliance" at the International and Interdenominational Holiness Convention to be held at Chicago, Oct. 29th to Nov. 2nd. It was proposed to meet their expenses by voluntary contributions. This can be done by collections in any of the churches that wish to do their part this way, and by personal gifts. Don't consider this as a personal gift to Brothers Wiggins and Baker, but a gift to the Alliance. Contributors to this fund can send the money to Rev. W. B. Wiggins, 342 Robinson street, Moncton, N. B., or Rev. S. A. Baker, Fredericton, N. B.

It should never be forgotten that Pentecost or the Baptism with the Holy Ghost settles every question and problem in the Church. It would burn up higher criticism, run infidelity from the pews and pulpits, send salvation like a mighty tidal wave over the Camp Ground, give us fire-baptized preachers and missionaries, all the deaconesses we wanted, and money would come rolling in by the thousands. This has always been the history of a true genuine Pentecost.—B. Carradine.

"To have knowledge and not to live it is the dry-rot of Christianity."

Personals.

Brother A. G. Peters moved his family to Campbellton since the meeting of the Alliance, hoping for improvement in his wife's health by the change, but as yet has seen very little improvement. He is longing to get into the work of preaching holiness, but he is passing through severe testings. The Lord bless and strengthen and comfort him in all his afflictions.

Brother James Dalzell, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, is totally disabled by paralysis. The body may be thus held in bondage, but we thank God our souls can be always free.

Sister (Rev. G. W.) Henderson, of Grand Manan is visiting friends at Jonesport, Me.

Mrs. Harriet Cronk, sister of the late G. W. Macdonald, is seriously ill at her home at Seal Cove, Grand Manan.

Dr. E. O. Cosman, of Minneapolis, Minn., has been visiting his father and mother and sister, Deacon Elisha and Sister Cosman and Mrs. Dr. E. N. Davis at St. John, N. B.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Jewett arrived home on Friday from a trip that covered California and Mexico. They went via Chicago, visiting the principal cities en route. The return trip was made via the C. P. R., and a week was spent at the Toronto exhibition.—Sentinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Zemro Clark, of Woodstock, spent two weeks with Mr. Clark's father at Sandford, N. S. Hubert Clark, his brother, is in charge of that station on the D. A. R. in Nova Scotia.

Brother Bliss McQuarrie is now located at Fredericton, N. B.

Brother A. G. Peters is desirous of entering the active work of the ministry. If any church or circuit would like his services, write him at Campbellton, N. B.

OBITUARY.

We record the death of Mrs. Mary McAllister at her home, Mt. Middleton, Kings Co. Sister McAllister, though not a member, has been a faithful attendant of the Free Baptist church (now U. B.) at Sussex for about forty years. The writer was summoned to attend the funeral, as for many years we have been close friends with the deceased and family and have been with them now, when four of the family have been laid away. The end came very suddenly, as our sister was ill about 24 hours. The funeral service was conducted at the home Sunday afternoon, the 14th, by the writer. There was a large gathering, as our sister was of a most genial character and had been a mother and friend to old and young alike. The text for the service was Job 3, 17. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss two daughters, Mrs. J. D. Patten and Miss Mary McAllister, who are both well known to many of our people; two sons, Wilfrid and Charles, of Sacramento, Cal.; one brother, James Fee-ney, of Sussex, a number of grandchildren and a large number of friends. The choir of the U. B. church of Sussex furnished the music. We regret that the pastor, Rev. G. B. McDonald, could not be present, being called to Grand Manan on account of his aunt's death. We earnestly pray for the sorrowing daughters who will miss mother's companionship so much.

Rev. M. S. Trafton.

"Some people are like nitro-glycerine, they have to be handled with extreme care. There seems to be a large quantity of explosive material in their composition. It would save much discomfort and annoyance if they could be induced to wear a sign, 'Danger!'"
