

Ministers and Churches.

Dr. H. C. Sanders, our missionary to Africa, received a bad kick on his leg from a colt a few weeks ago, which has made it difficult for him to get about to attend to his duties.

Perhaps it is not generally known that since going back to Africa, another boy, "Norman," has been added to the Sanders family. Sister Sanders says: "Baby Norman is as good as a baby can possibly be." Faith is teaching the day school both for their own children and the natives.

OBITUARY.

Walter Saunders.

It is with a deep sense of sorrow that we are called upon to record the death of our esteemed young brother, Walter Saunders, at his home in Moose Jaw, Wednesday evening, Oct. 1st. Our brother married Miss Lulu Storey, daughter of G. B. Storey, of St. John, in 1907. Three years ago they moved to Moose Jaw, where they have lived until his death. He had been troubled for some years with his heart, but his friends had hoped that he had overcome the trouble. The end came very sudden, as our brother was in his accustomed health and ate his supper as usual and was writing at his desk, when they noticed him fall at the side of his desk. Immediately they were at his side and summoned the doctor, but he never rallied; in about fifteen minutes all was over and he had gone, we trust, to be with his God. Our brother professed faith in Jesus about ten years ago, was baptized and united with the Reformed Baptist Church at St. John. We learn from loved ones that in the last months of his life he had renewed his covenants with the Lord and was leading a life of prayer and faith in God. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Ross, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Moose Jaw, Oct. 4th, at 2.30. At the service Mrs. Ross sang "Some Time We'll Understand" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." He leaves a sorrowing wife, his father and mother and four brothers and four sisters, and a large circle of friends to mourn. He was born at Rothesay, Kings county, in 1879. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to all the sorrowing loved ones, commending them to the love of God and the comforts of the Holy Spirit.

REV. M. S. TRAFTON.

Mrs. Samuel Orr.

The death of Mrs. Samuel Orr occurred at her son's residence, 145 St. James street, St. John, on Sept. 27th, 1913, after a lingering illness, aged 66 years. She leaves a husband, one son, John, and two daughters, Mrs. F. W. Emms, of Fredericton, and Miss Jessie, of Boston, and Henry Watts, of Fredericton, to mourn their loss. The deceased sister was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church, and while she was able was always at her post, ready to "give a reason of the hope she had within her with meekness and fear." She professed and enjoyed the blessing of full salvation, and amid all the tests of life her faith in God was unwavering. She lived well and died triumphantly. The funeral services were held in the Reformed Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor. Interment was made at Cedar Hill cemetery.

REV. G. B. TRAFTON.

Evelyn Nixon.

On Sunday the death occurred of Evelyn, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Nixon, aged seven months. The little one was attacked with cholera a few days previously. The funeral was held from the residence of D. H. Nixon on Tuesday, Rev. P. J. Trafton having charge of the service. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community.—Hartland Observer.

Harry Lee Smith.

Harry Lee Smith, third child of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith, of Plymouth, passed away at the home of his parents, after a lingering illness, on Thursday morning, August 21st, aged 28 years. The end was peaceful and he was fully trusting in his Saviour. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife and one child, his father and mother, one sister, Mrs. Holly Wilcox, of Woodstock; two brothers, Fred A. Smith of Plymouth, and Pearl Smith at home. The funeral service was conducted on the following Saturday by the Rev. H. C. Archer, Reformed Baptist pastor. The following hymns were sung: Rock of Ages, Not Made With Hands, and Safe in the Arms of Jesus. A rather sad and strange incident connected with his death was that he died on his little's child's birthday and was buried on his wife's birthday. Sincere sympathy is felt for the family in their sad bereavement.

Dearest Harry, he has left us,
Left us, yes, forever more;
But we hope to meet our loved one
On that bright and happy shore.

There is an angel band in Heaven
That was not quite complete,
So they took our darling Harry
To fill the vacant seat.

MRS. EVIE SMITH.

Evelyn J. Nixon.

At the home of its grandparents, Hartland, N. B., Oct. 5th, after a few weeks illness, Evelyn J., only child of Dolph and Ruth Nixon, aged seven months. The funeral service was held from the home on Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m., the writer officiating. Many relatives and friends gathered to show their sympathy with the parents in their bereavement. Interment was made in the cemetery at Hartland.

"But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God." (Luke 18, 16.)
