Will the pastors and deacons see that the yearly Alliance Fund of 25 cents per member is collected from the members of their respective churches and brought or sent to the Alliance by those who come. Let us try and have a full fund this year. We need it.

Secretary.

We need the spiritual uplift of the gathering of people of God at the camp meeting.

I hope those coming to Beulah from any part of New Brunswick or Nova Scotia will not buy return tickets, but will buy the one-way fare and obtain a Standard Certificate, as we need 50 Standard Certificates to obtain the one-third return fare. Also, the time allowed is nearly one month, as it is from June 29th to July 23rd. W. B. W.

I am afraid there is too much of a low, managing, contriving, manœuvring temper of mind among us. We are laying ourselves out more than is expedient to meet one man's taste and another man's prejudices. The ministry is a grand and holy affair; and it should find in us a simple habit of spirit and a holy but humble indifference to all consequences—Richard Cecil.

Correspondence.

Houlton, Me., June 23, 1914.

Dear Highway,—It may be that some of your readers will be surprised to know that we have located here, as it seems a little peculiar to us. Yet we are quite sure the Lord led us this way, as there is a large field of usefulness opening up before us. Indeed, it seemed to be the only open door for us. Six months ago we gave notice through your columns that we had resigned our pastorate at Beals, where we had spent eight years very pleasantly, our time to be up in June. At that time I stated that if any of our churches wished our labors we would like to correspond with them. But there was not any church or person that mentioned to me a desire for our labors; so I took the first open door. I know my work is pastoral, and I think I have had fair success as a pastor. When the secretary of the pastoral committee here wrote me relative to my accepting a call here, I answered his letter, with the result that followed. I believe it is of the Lord. We felt somewhat sad to leave our old friends at Beals, as they had endeared themselves to us in their kindly treatment. I must not forget to mention that on the eve of our departure they took up an offering, amounting in all to $72, which was very thoughtful of them and useful to us. I have just returned from our quarterly meeting at New Limerick, which was very much like our meetings at home, holiness being the prominent feature, and many testifying to the experience. I find this section of country is feeling the good results of the labors of our esteemed brother and sister, Rev. Z. M. Miller and wife. Well, brethren and sisters, we shall need your prayers, and trust you will remember us.

Yours in Jesus. H. H. COSMAN.

Graniteville, Mass., June 22, 1914.

Dear Highway,—Please find enclosed post office order renewal for Highway. I cannot give it up; in fact I did not think of giving it up this year; but several years before this, when renewal time came and the money was not here, I thought I must write to the Editor and have it stopped, but kept waiting and reading some of the old ones or a new one coming when I had fully made up my mind to stop it, and as I read the helpful and encouraging articles, they would thrill my heart with the joy that the Holy Spirit gives, and I could not give it up, but would wait a while longer and have always got it at last; but I suppose it was not acting very kindly to the business manager to wait so long. This year I believe I will be on time, thank the Lord, and for the last year it has seemed especially good. I enjoy the photos of the Holy men and women of God and the sketches of their life work. Also the editorials on the first page; the verses are so helpful.

Mrs. ADA A. DAY.
