

the fiftieth anniversary of his wedding. The celebration in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Bullock's anniversary was of the quietest nature. Only the near relatives were present, including Mr. John Bullock, His Worship the Mayor, and their families; Mr. and Mrs. Fields, Mr. Norman Shaw and Mr. Jas. Dempster. The gathering was in the nature of a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Bullock. The ladies of the party brought with them the articles necessary to a sumptuous repast, and for a time Mrs. Bullock was deprived of the authority as housewife which she has held for so many years. A number of congratulatory telegrams and letters were received from different parts of the Maritime Provinces, from Ontario and the United States.

We copy the following from the St. John dailies:

PROMINENT CITIZEN STRICKEN THIS MORNING
—ONE SON A FORMER MAYOR.

The community was shocked this morning to learn of the sudden death of Joseph Bullock, which occurred about ten o'clock in the office of Roy L. Church, a son-in-law of T. H. Bullock. Mr. Bullock had been known to have a weak heart for the last few years, but had continued to attend to business and went to his office at his usual hour this morning, apparently in better health than usual. Soon after arriving at the office he left to go to Mr. Church's, and while talking to him in the office he became faint. Dr. Stewart Skinner was hurriedly summoned, but before he arrived Mr. Bullock had passed away. Mr. Bullock was a native of Springfield, Ohio, but with his parents moved to Ontario, where his father carried on extensive lumber operations. When quite a young man Mr. Bullock came to St. John and started business for himself as an oil merchant. He had since been very successful. During more recent years he had been connected with the Imperial Oil Company. Of late, however, the business has been managed by his son, Thomas H. Bullock, former mayor, although the elder Mr. Bullock still retained an interest in the business.

Mr. Bullock had always taken an active interest in the affairs of the city and will be greatly missed in the community. He was noted for his business integrity. Although eighty-two years of age, he retained all his faculties to the last. Mr. Bullock was an active member of Queen Square Methodist church and was in keen sympathy with the work of the Salvation Army and social organizations. To the army he was indeed a generous friend.

Mr. Bullock is survived by his wife and two sons, Thomas H. Bullock, manager of the Imperial Oil Company, and John Bullock, secretary of the company. John Bullock had left the city early Saturday morning on a business trip to Nova Scotia.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH BULLOCK.

A large and representative body of citizens attended the funeral of Joseph Bullock this afternoon. Service was conducted at his late residence, 185 Germain street, by Rev. Hammond Johnson, pastor of Queen Square Methodist church, Rev. G. B. Trafton, and by Major Taylor of the Salvation Army. The choir of Queen Square church sang appropriate hymns. The coffin was covered with a mass of flowers from sorrowing relatives and sympathetic friends. Among these was a large wreath of roses from the members of the office staff of the Imperial Oil Company, a beautiful set piece from the Salvation Army, also one from Adjutant Parsons and his wife of the Salvation Army. There was also a beautiful wreath from the granddaughters of Mr. Bullock.

Ministers and Churches.

Cedar Lake has the first cement church built by the Reformed Baptist people. The value of this little church is $1,000, and yet there was so much gratuitous labor done on it that about five hundred dollars cash was all that was required, which was mostly used for materials.

Brother I. F. and Sister Kierstead received a most cordial welcome at Gray's Mills and enjoyed a grand day, and the people of this little church fully sustained their merited reputation for liberality in giving for missions. A full house greeted them at Norton and they had an excellent meeting with Pastor L. T. Sabine, who manifests a live interest in the missionary work. They may have to change their dates a little on account of the death of Mr. J. W. Kierstead.

THE GREAT CONTRAST.

Once it was the blessing, now it is the Lord;
Once it was the feeling, now it is His Word;
Once His gifts I wanted, now Himself alone;
Once I sought for healing, now the Healer own.

Once 'twas painful trying, now 'tis perfect trust;
Once a half salvation, now the uttermost;
Once 'twas ceaseless holding, now He holds me fast;
Once 'twas constant drifting, now my anchor's cast.

Once 'twas busy planning, now 'tis trustful prayer,
Once 'twas anxious caring, now He has the care;
Once 'twas what I wanted, now what Jesus says;
Once 'twas constant asking, now 'tis ceaseless praise.

Once it was my working, His it hence shall be;
Once I tried to use Him, now He uses me;
Once the power I wanted, now the Mighty One;
Once I worked for glory, now His will alone.
