

tional experience of the altar only, or to be saved from hell or to heaven, but to be saved from all sin and selfishness in this life.

Finally, we need holy people more than holiness people.

We need to remember sanctification is the perfection of love for God and all mankind.

We need to demonstrate by life the Perfect Love we preach.

We need to emphasize the positive side as well as the negative, and the negative as well as the positive.

We need to realize the power of God does not rest on our camps as in the inception of the movement, and deeply humble ourselves and cry to God for His return.

We need more of God.

THE GREATEST NEED OF THE HOLINESS CAMP MEETING.

Rev. Thos. C. Henderson.

In Exodus 17, Moses on the mountain was master of the warriors in the valley. A praying man or band in a camp can master the problems of the camp.
