I have the abiding presence of Jesus all the time. This is true wealth, yet our brother needs and would be thankful for some of this world's good, although he has not asked for it. 'A word to the wise is sufficient.' Brethren, write him. Address West Pembroke, Me.

IN MEMORY OF SARAH A. NOBLE.

Oh cruel death, how hard it is
To strike such heavy blows,
To enter in our very midst
And take the blooming rose.

Yet death, we do rejoice to know
That Christ hath conquered thee;
That on the Resurrection Morn
Our babe shall victor be.

We have just consigned her to the tomb,
Her sleeping will be o'er,
When Gabriel's trump shall loud proclaim
That time shall be no more.

SNAPSHOTS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT ZURICH.

Walk in love; but dead men cannot walk.

Do not pray cream and live skimmed milk.

They dig no graves in the promised land.

When God shows his power the devil shows his opposition.

If you are a man-made officer in the church you are poorly made.

If the devil tempts and haunts you, just whisper the name of Jesus.

Some people are of such little worth that even the devil ignores them.

Live so that you can look at your own soul in the glass without shame, seeing yourself as God sees you.

"We may come from different continents, and speak different languages, but we are of one faith and of one purpose.

The great thing about this convention is the gigantic faith of the missionaries. No problem to them is too difficult to solve.

The Mohammedan problem is to persuade the proudest man in the world to accept the thing he despises from the man he abhors; but it is being solved.

Personals.

Brother and Sister Simon McLeod are living with their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Scott, of Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. McLeod has been sick for some time, but is now well on her way to good health again. Sister McLeod says she would love to meet the old friends at Beulah this coming summer, which we sincerely hope that both Brother and Sister McLeod will be able to do.

Brother J. H. Seeley, of Inglewood, Cal., says, in his characteristic way, if his hens lay well he will enjoy the camp meeting at Riverside in August. We will all be glad if they lay so well that our dear Brother and Sister Seeley will come and enjoy both Beulah and Riverside camp meetings.

We are sorry to learn that Sister E. Higgins of Fort Fairfield is ill in a Hospital in Boston, Mass. Bro. Higgins is in Boston to be with her.

We were very glad to have Sisters Mrs. T. U. Maxon of Woodstock and Mrs. E. Maxon of Hawkshaw and their children with us in the Fredericton church on Sunday, the 25th. The sweet little singer, Miss Eva Maxon, sang a solo in the evening service, which was much enjoyed by the congregation.

Brother D. F. Knight has been confined to his home with a severe cold for two weeks.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Macdonald, for twelve years pastor of the Brunswick Street Baptist Church, Fredericton, has been appointed to succeed the late Dr. McLeod as editor of the Maritime Baptist.

Dr. E. F. Walker will leave New York Feb. 4th on S.S. Carmania for Liverpool, England, en route to Scotland, where he expects to hold evangelistic services for two months, and he may spend some time in England.

Our aged sister, Louisa J. Everett, is now stopping at Carlingford, Victoria county, where she expects to remain for a few months. Sister Everett is well up in the eighties, but is enjoying excellent health and writes with a remarkably steady hand and rejoices in full salvation.

J. T. Collins and family, formerly of Woodstock, are now located at Capital Hill, Burnaby, B. C.

About fifty friends of Brother and Sister Herbert Moores, of Woodstock, gave them a surprise on the evening of January 19th, being Sister Moores' birthday. They spent a very pleasant evening. Brother F. L. Moores, on behalf of those present, presented Sister Moores with a china tea set.

A PLEASANT HOME

Sister W. L. Estabrook has a snug property at Marysville consisting of a good two-story house, with a basement, a barn and hen-house and woodshed, and about three acres of fine garden land. She wishes to sell it, as her family are grown up and away. It would be a nice place for some brother who wished to retire from active business and yet wants a place to do a little market gardening, and keep some hens, a horse and a cow. The property is situated in the village and is just such a place as we hear people frequently asking for. We would be glad if some one of our people would buy it.
