

OBITUARY.

DRYSDALE.

Deacon James E. Drysdale, of Woodstock, Carleton county, N. B., passed to his reward on Saturday, March 7th, in the 79th year of his age. He leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing widow, two daughters, Mrs. E. S. Forbes, of Acton, Mass.; Mrs. E. S. Milton, of Andover, Me., and three sons, William, of Houlton, Me.; John, of Lynn, Mass., and Fred, of Woodstock, N. B. One sister, Mrs. Geo. Watson, of Hartland, N. B., as well as a large number of other relatives, also survive. The deceased was born at Sheffield, N. B., and came to Woodstock when only a young man some 50 years ago. The following year he married Miss Mary J. Estey, of Jacksontown, and had he lived until next January, they would have been able to celebrate their golden wedding. Brother Drysdale was converted when a boy and later was baptized by the late Rev. Thos. Todd and united with the Baptist church. He was a man of deep Christian experience, of genial disposition and possessed of a mind above the average. He will be much missed both in the church and also in the town, as he took a great interest in matters both religious and civic. For many years he was deacon of the Baptist church and was among those who formed the charter membership of the Reformed Baptist Church at Woodstock. He also was deacon of that church, which position he filled until his death. He also was the first President of the Alliance. He was a man widely known and he will be much missed by all who knew him; and now that he is gone, the influence of that godly life will long remain to testify to the sincerity of the life he lived. He was confined to the house for about six months, during which time it was our privilege to visit him often, and though gradually failing in body, yet he was always strong in faith and looking forward to the reward which was in store for him as a faithful follower of Jesus. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. C. Archer, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Coy and Colpitts, burial taking place at Woodstock.

We received Brother Drysdale's photo too late for this issue, but will use it in the Highway of March 30th.

HAINES.

At his home, Lower Hainesville, York Co., on Feb. 15, 1914, Ernest R. Haines, aged 39 years and 6 months. He had been sick only a short time and confined to his bed but two days. He leaves a sorrowing wife and six young children, besides one brother and four sisters. Funeral attended by Rev. E. W. Lester. We extend our sympathies to Sister Haines and family.

WHITEHOUSE.

The little church at Brazil Lake has again been called upon to relinquish its claims upon one of its oldest and most trustworthy members in the person of Mrs. Matilda Whitehouse, the widow of the late J. Thomas Whitehouse, who preceded his wife to the glory land about three years ago. Sister Whitehouse passed away at her home in East Brenton on Sunday afternoon, March 1st, in the 73rd year of her age. She had not enjoyed very good health since the death of her husband, and seldom got out to service, but as it was the pastor's privilege to visit her from time to time, she always gave an evidence of the hope within her of some day joining her husband in the better land. Sister Whitehouse's home has always been a home for the holiness ministers since the early days of the holiness work at Brazil Lake, N.S., and although of a retiring disposition, yet a genial welcome always met the weary pilgrims on their way to and from the church. She will be much missed in the community as a friend and neighbor. The funeral service was held at the home on Wednesday afternoon, the 4th inst., and interment was made beside her husband in Deerfield cemetery. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother, one son Howard, in the west, and four daughters, Mrs. J. H. Cann, of Wakefield, Mass.; Mrs. Frank Winters, and Mrs. Jas. H. Winters, of Brenton, N.S., also Mrs. Geo. S. Crosby, at home, who tenderly cared for her mother in her last hours. Also four brothers and one sister, fourteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The services were conducted by Rev. S. H. Clark, pastor.

CLEMENTS.

At Brazil Lake, N. S., on February 26th, at 10.45 p.m., death claimed as its victim one of our bright and most respected young men, Murray S. Clements. He had just passed through a struggle with typhoid fever and a complication of diseases developed, and in spite of all that medical aid and loving hands could do, he passed away on Thursday evening. The deceased was 24 years and 5 months old and he leaves a young widow, wedded less than two years, formerly Miss Edith Moses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Moses, of the above place, besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elkanah Clements, of Carleton, N. S., three sisters and seven brothers. A short service was held at the home at Brazil Lake and the remains were laid to rest in the U. B. cemetery at Carleton. After the burial the Rev. S. H. Clark preached to a large congregation in the church, being assisted at the grave and in the church by Rev. Ray Durkee (U. B.) Appropriate selections were sung by the choir of Carleton U. B. church at the grave and in the church, and many beautiful floral offerings attested the place he held in the hearts of the people. Much sympathy is felt for the young wife and the immediate relatives. S. H. CLARK.

SHAW.

The death of Mrs. Dean H. Shaw, of Middle Simonds, occurred on Wednesday morning at an early hour after a short illness. She leaves a husband and two little children, besides her mother, Mrs. J. A. Nevers, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Raymond, to mourn their sad loss. She was 25 years of age. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, the 5th inst., at 2.30, in the Reformed Baptist Church at Hartland. Rev. S. A. Baker, of Fredericton, preached the funeral sermon and was assisted in the service by Rev. Mr. Schurman, United Baptist; Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick, Methodist, and Rev. Mr. Hartt, Primitive Baptist, who conducted services at the home and at the grave. The remains were taken to Upper Brighton for burial. There was a large and sympathetic congregation at the service, which manifested deep emotion. Mrs. Shaw was converted when quite young during a revival conducted by the writer, while he was pastor at Hartland. She possessed a strong musical voice and with her sister frequently sang special selections in revival and missionary meetings. For a number of years she was chief operator for the N. B. Telephone Co. at Hartland, and through that office became widely and favorably known. She had a wide circle of intimate friends, who feel deeply her early and sad death.

Personals.

Brother J. C. Maxon, of Fredericton, has had the sad misfortune of having to undergo two painful operations, resulting in the amputation of his left leg above the knee, being affected with gangrene.

A brother who is deeply interested in the Highway, as also in the spread of Scriptural holiness, has set a good example for others, and sent us, so far, eight subscriptions for persons of his acquaintance, making them a present of the Highway for a year.

Brother Walter Mullen says of the Highway: "I love to read it, it is a welcome visitor."

Sister H. N. Lawson says of the Highway, "I could hardly do without the Highway, the reading is so good, and I enjoy it so much, it is getting better all the time." "I am living close to my Saviour, with victory all along the line."

The Hartland W. C. T. U., at a recent meeting, presented Sister S. Hayden Shaw with an address and a life membership certificate as a token of appreciation of her faithful service. She was one of the charter members of the Union.

Mr. Josiah Rodney, of Sandford, N. S., had a very serious experience in the blizzard on February 17th, which might have terminated fatally. Hearing a disturbance in his barn, he went out in the early morning before daylight during the blizzard, and lost his way in the swamp. He wandered around for some hours before he was found by the neighbors in an exhausted condition, and would soon have perished.

Sister Mrs. Simmons Lunn, Lowell, Mass., says of the Highway: "I truly enjoy the Highway very much; it brings me a blessing in every copy I get. The dear Lord bless the committee and editor and also the people who write for the Highway and have the interest of the work in hand. The Lord bless you all abundantly."

THE SCOTT ACT WILL BE ENFORCED.

There is a good prospect of the enforcement of the temperance law in the city of Fredericton. The election of Mr. Moses Mitchell for Mayor, which also places him on the Police Commission, is already taking effect. The police have suddenly awakened to this part of their duty, and they have raided several of the lesser places where liquor is sold. This may give the larger places a hint of danger, and they can become more careful.

If a person is not enjoying fellowship with God, it naturally follows that he is not "walking in the light;" and one who is not walking in the light has no Bible ground for concluding that he is justified. It is an easy matter to excuse ones self for not enjoying conscious fellowship with God, but such excuse-making is nothing less than self-deception.—Selected.
