

MARRIED.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Woodstock, N. B., on Tuesday, July 27th, 1915, Maurice Blackie and Beatrice McNinch, both of Woodstock, were united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Dow.

OBITUARY

We are sorry to record the death of Sister Lucy Beal, of diphtheria, after only a week's sickness. The family were removed to the home of her sister when the doctor said that she had diphtheria, and a nurse was procured; but all proved in vain, as she gradually weakened and passed away and we with sad hearts laid her away in the evening. She was 22 years of age and was one of our brightest and most useful workers, a beautiful singer in the choir and teacher of the primary class in the Sunday school. She was converted in a children's meeting conducted by Sister Bubar. She is survived by her father and mother, Brother Willis and Sister Beal, and three sisters, Gertrude, Annie and Mildred Beal, and one brother, Edmond. Her sister's husband and little daughter are sick with the same disease at this writing. Pray for us in this affliction.

BEDDING FOR RIVERSIDE.

The people have been very generous in giving bedding for the Camp Grounds, but it takes a large amount to fit up so many rooms. So we appeal to you again to bring sheets, pillows and pillow cases, cotton blankets, quilts and comfortables, and towels. It helps the committee when people contribute for their own use. Our rooms are furnished with good springs and mattresses.

A BRAVE YOUNG SOLDIER.

Canada has sent a large number of her best young man, from every point of view, to the battle front, men of sterling courage. A letter from one to us revealed that while preparing for the firing line he was putting up a brave personal fight against temptation from drink, tobacco and cards, in which he said, "I am determined that there will be one soldier that won't drink, play cards nor use tobacco, although I meet these things constantly."

AN UNEXPECTED MEETING.

An interesting little incident occurred on the Steamer Noordam which carried the Harvard unit of 35 doctors and 75 nurses to England from Hoboken, New York, recently, when two nurses, Miss Gertrude Baker, daughter of the editor of the Highway, and Miss Mabel Lewin, daughter of Charles A. Lewin, of Benton, N. B., entering into conversation and learning each others names, and the names of their fathers, and found they had played together as little girls, and now renewed acquaintance as they sped away together on the grand mission of caring for the wounded soldiers at the battle front for the British.

Every person has something in their life that is larger than anything else to them. Man was the biggest thing to the woman at the well at Samaria. And when she saw Jesus she said to the people—come and see a man. She found Christ bigger than what she had before.
