Dear Highway,—As I look forward to your coming, to read the accounts of the churches, also from brethren and sisters, my heart is cheered and I take on fresh courage and strength to know the saints are true to God and holiness. Nearly thirty years ago I not only received a blessing, but the Blessor came into my inmost being to dwell with me forever. Praise Him. I am standing on the promises of the Word today. There is one thing we can depend upon, that is the word of God, that endureth forever. "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away." I have trusted and tested and tried them, and I know God's promises are true. Bless Him. Brother Moses and wife are doing a good work, "here a little and there a little." There have been eight or nine saved, one man sanctified, others helped. If there are any who are not helped by his labors, it is because they are indifferent to the truth or will not give up their idols. I was glad to read the testimony of Mrs. Whitman Williamson, from Lynn, an old school friend of mine, who was sanctified through the preaching of Rev. Aaron Kinney. Sisters, send in your testimonies; cheer our hearts by letting us know you are still in the battle. Praise God, the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Mrs. J. H. Sabean.

Dear Highway:

I came to "Taylor University" Sept. 17th and found a very warm welcome from all. All seem to be one in Christ Jesus. We have three prayer and Bible meetings daily, besides the regular studies. Sorry I cannot attend them all, but go when I can. A special meeting was held for young ministers on Sept. 29th by Prof. Shaw, subject, Young Men Preparing for the Ministry. Must have ministering faith. Many examples were given by Prof. Shaw, who related his experiences. I thank God for such teachers to help men in their preparation for the work of the gospel ministry.

Yours in Him,
Harold Ellison.

Dear Highway:

I have never attempted to write for your pages before, but thought I would tell of the blessings God has been bestowing on us. I began at Homes Settlement Church and labored eight or nine weeks. The result was 26 persons baptized. Fifty-five in all were converted, reclaimed or sanctified wholly. God wonderfully blessed the work there.

From here I felt that God called me to Grimes. I have been there four weeks. Fifteen have been converted and three sanctified wholly. Two were baptized. Brother Archer assisted for a while. God is wonderfully blessing the people. I praise God that He can make us clean, little empty vessels, and fill us to the overflowing so that others may be blessed. I am still on the firing line in this great war against sin. I believe God plans to redeem men from all iniquity and bring them back to a state of holiness.

Jesus said, "I am the door," but men are trying to climb up some other way.

I praise God that I am saved and sanctified and under the precious blood.

BALMORAL FARM.

Dear Brother Baker,—I am sending $1.00 toward the Balmoral Farm Fund. I hope we will be able to raise the amount needed and secure the farm for God's glory. Jesus is very precious to me. He is my refuge and strength, in whom I trust for his keeping power. "No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly."

I am the Lord's forever, praise His holy Name. Christion greeting to the Christian workers.
Mrs. Dibblee Tanner.

A young brother writes:

Dear Mr. Baker,—Enclosed please find five dollars for the Missionary Farm Fund. I feel that I can spare this amount, and only wish I could double it. God has helped me wonderfully in the past year, and I wish to do what I can towards His cause.

We are glad to have a good list of subscriptions for the Balmoral Farm Fund. Will you be one of a hundred contributors in time for the next issue of the Highway?

Please send in your contributions for the Balmoral Farm Fund quickly.

HINTS TO WRITERS.

The following suggestions which recently came to our attention might interest correspondents for the Highway:

Get a subject as big as you can.

Boil it down as small as you can.

Say everything as strong as you can.

Make it so clear that the reader must understand it.

Say nothing more than once.

Every unnecessary word clogs the interest.

Every unnecessary thought destroys the symmetry.

Every word not understood throws the reader off the track.

As soon as you begin to get uninteresting, the reader is apt to drop your piece.

The writer must not only give the reader a chance to understand him, but compel him to read on.

Any good thought fully expressed is interesting.

Be sure you have your thought, and be sure your reader gets it.

You must usually get up an interest as well as satisfy it.

Write for the benefit of the reader and not for the reputation of the author.

In addition to the above we would add: Do not become discouraged when suggestions like the above are offered for fear you may not measure up in every particular. Remember, that the person who never made a mistake is the one who never attempted anything, and that was the biggest mistake of all.—Sel.

I have observed that every bandit crew that goes forth to murder starts from a saloon; that every panderer has his rendezvous in a grog-shop; that every den of thieves makes its victims drunk before it robs them; that every house of prostitution has its bar or is in partnership with booze; that every gambling den either is a saloon or sustains a close relationship with one; that the pickpocket "trust" is housed in a saloon; that the "pay-off" joint for the crook and the crooked policeman is in a saloon; that the professional bondsmen and character witnesses for thieves and hold-up men are saloon keepers or bartenders.—Judge Gemmill, of the Chicago Municipal Court.
