

THE LATE DR. P. F. BRESEE.

Dr. P. F. Bresee, the founder and senior General Superintendent of the Nazarene denomination, now The Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, died on the 13th inst.

We had the privilege of meeting and hearing Dr. Bresee at the great holiness convention held at Chicago in November, 1913. Dr. Bresee was a strong man and possessed great executive ability.

OBITUARY

Hillman.

We are sorry again to have to report the removal by death of two of our highly esteemed and loyal members. The first to depart this life was Sarah, the wife of the late Jeremiah Hillman, who preceded her about eighteen months. Their home was at Temple, York county, where they had cleared a good farm and lived for about fifty years. Mrs. Hillman's maiden name was Sarah Tompkins, and she leaves to mourn their loss five daughters, who are all married. They are Mrs. Way, of St. Stephen; Mary and Bertha, of Auburn, Me.; Mrs. Grant, at the old home at Temple, and Mrs. B. M. Colpitts, of Woodstock, N. B., where Sister Hillman was visiting when she died. Three sons are George and Moses, both of Canterbury, N. B., and Charles, of Lower Woodstock. She also leaves one brother, David Tompkins, of Greenbush, York county, and four sisters, Mrs. Isaac Dickinson, of Lower Woodstock; Mrs. Hoyt, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. James Gillespie, of Lowell, Mass., and Mrs. Chas. Grant, of Woodstock, who joined her sister on the other shore three days later. Sister Hillman was converted when a girl of 18 years, and in the early days of the holiness movement in the province sought and testified to entire sanctification. She joined the R. B. church at Southampton, being the nearest to her home. She was a subscriber to the King's Highway from its beginning. She had been in failing health for some months past, but seemed to rally sufficiently to visit her daughter, at Woodstock, where she suddenly grew worse, and although everything that medical skill and loving hands could do was done to save her, she passed away on Nov. 15th in the 78th year of her age. A funeral service was held at the Temple church, conducted by the writer, and interment was made at that place. The very large attendance at the funeral spoke of the high esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

Grant.

We also report the death of Evelyn, the beloved wife of Brother Charles Grant, who departed this life on Nov. 18th after only a few days' illness, in the 61st year of her age. She leaves to mourn their loss, besides her husband, one son, Clifford, of Nova Scotia, and two daughters. Mrs. Wright, of Southampton, and Mrs. Geo. True, of Woodstock; also one brother, David Tompkins, of Southampton, and three sisters, Mrs. Isaac Dickinson, of Lower Woodstock; Mrs. James Gillespie, of Lowell, Mass., and Mrs. W. Hoyt, of Denver, Colorado; also other relatives and very many friends, as she was highly esteemed and much loved by all who knew her. Sister Grant was of a kindly disposition and had a true missionary spirit. It can be truly said of her as it was of her Master whom she served, that "she went about doing good." She, like her late sister, Mrs. Hillman, was a great friend of the sick, and of all who were in need, and will be much missed, not only by the church where she was a faithful attendant and helper, but also in the hospitals and sick rooms, and everywhere that she could be where a loving heart and willing hands are needed. Brother and Sister Grant lived for years at Southampton, but moved to Woodstock a few years ago, where she lived until her death. She watched at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Hillman, who preceded her only a few days, took suddenly ill Saturday night, and died the following Thursday. The funeral service was held in the Greenbush church, attended by the writer, and interment was made at Southampton. Sister Grant was converted when a young woman and sought and professed entire sanctification, later in life became a member of the R. B. church at Woodstock. We extend to the sorrowing husband and son and daughters our hearty sympathy.

Pierce.

On Oct. 22 Ethel, beloved wife of Harold Pierce, passed from the life that now is to the life of beauty and grandeur beyond. Sister Pierce had been in failing health from tuberculosis for the past seven years, and for about six years had made her home with and been tenderly cared for by her husband's mother, Sister A. E. Pierce, of Cedar Lake. She was 36 years of age and in early life had given her heart to the Lord and united with the Free Will Baptist Church of Beaver River. Although a lamb of another fold, Sister Ethel enjoyed the privileges accorded her with the R. B. church at Cedar Lake, and whenever health permitted was present bearing testimony and remembering her Lord with us.

It was the writer's privilege to visit her several times, and just before the end came she strongly emphasized the fact that soon she should "see her Saviour face to face, and tell the story saved by grace."

The funeral service was held at the home of Sister A. E. Pierce by request of deceased, the writer attending the service, and interment was made beside members of the family in the Port Maitland cemetery.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband, Mr. Harold Pierce, of Boston, five sisters and two brothers, her mother-in-law, Sister A. E. Pierce, who will miss her much, having been her constant companion and nurse until the last moment, with many other relatives and friends.

S. H. Clark.

Cody.

At his home, 555 Main street, St. John, N. B., on Nov. 16th, Mr. Samuel E. Cody, aged 68 years, leaving a loving wife and one son, James Arthur, and one daughter, Miss Alice J., better known to most of her friends as Josie, both living at home; four brothers, Stanley, of North End, George and Charles, of Cody's, Queens county, and Dr. P. W., of Boston, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. Adelaide Moore, of Cody's, and Mrs. Perry, of Salmon River, to mourn their loss. The deceased was stricken down very suddenly and was a great sufferer, only living a few days, but at times he was able to speak to his loved ones who waited upon him, about his prospects of heaven, and joined with them in prayer, and in the chorus of "Bye-and-bye we'll see the King," and closed his eyes in death. Brother Cody was a very kind husband and father, and will be much missed in the home.

In their bereavement Sister Cody and family will not only have the prayers and sympathy of those in her home church and town, but of a wide circle of friends made at Beulah Camp Ground, where they are regular attendants each year. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor with interment at Fernhill Cemetery.

POSTAGE ON PARCELS GOING TO THE TROOPS IN FRANCE.

Important.—The Department is in receipt of applications to have parcels addressed to our soldiers in France sent free or at reduced rates of postage, there evidently being an impression that the Department has control of these rates and could do as it wished, but this is not so, as the question of postage is fixed by International agreement, so that it is not within the power of the Canadian Post Office Department to undertake to carry the parcels free or at a reduced rate of postage. Under International law, provision is made for the free transmission of parcels for prisoners of war, but this privilege does not extend to parcels for troops engaged in active service, nor is it within the power of the Department to so extend it.

The rate of postage required on parcels addressed to the troops depends upon the location of the addressee. If the addressee is in England, the rate on parcels for England applies, which is 12 cents per lb., whilst, if he is in France the parcels are subject to the rates applicable to parcels for France, which are as follows:

1 lb.....	32c.	7 lbs.....	88c.
2 lbs.....	40c.	8 lbs.....	$1.02
3 lbs.....	48c.	9 lbs.....	1.10
4 lbs.....	64c.	10 lbs.....	1.13
5 lbs.....	72c.	11 lbs.....	1.26
6 lbs.....	80c.

These are exactly the same charges which existed for years between Canada, England and France before the war, and are the result of an agreement or convention made between these countries and Canada, and as these countries have not agreed to lower their rates between England and France, Canada has to pay to them the same rates as before the war, and must charge the same postage.

In all cases parcels for the troops must be addressed care of Army Post Office, London, England, but this does not in any way affect the rate of postage, which depends entirely upon the location of the addressee.

Hundreds of people are intending to contribute to the "Balmoral Farm Fund." Please make a special effort and do it now. We would like to have it closed up quick.

The one who knows his duty and does not do it is never happy. "If ye know these things happy are ye if ye do them."
