

OBITUARY

It is with sadness that we report the death of Brother Timothy Wallace of Beals, Me., who died on August 27th, aged 67 years. He was the first convert that the writer baptised. The funeral service was held on August 29th, and a memorial service was held in the afternoon in the church for our late Sister Lucy Beal.

C. S. HILYARD.

At the home of her uncle, Mr. Calvin Benson, where she was tenderly cared for during a lingering illness of tuberculosis, Miss Aleen M. Hatt passed from this life on August 29th. Interment was made in the United Baptist cemetery, Rev. F. T. Wright officiating. How blessed if in the closing scenes of life day we may know that angels are hovering round. "Happy if with my latest breath I may but gasp His name. Behold, behold the lamb."

MARRIED.

At the home of Mr. Edgar Mars, Millville, N. B., on September 4th, 1915, was the scene of a quiet wedding when Mr. James M. Downey and Miss Cora R. Parsons, both of East Brighton, N. B., were united in marriage by Rev. E. W. Lester.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Woodstock, N. B., on Saturday, September 11, 1915, George McNally and Pearl McConnell, both of Houlton, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Dow.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Woodstock, N. B., August 30th, 1915, Wentworth Murphy and Vallie Victory, both of Houlton, were united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Dow.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, Seal Cove, Grand Manan, by Rev. F. T. Wright, Mr. Donald C. Daggett and Miss Lorena C. Brown, were united in marriage on September 5th. Mr. Daggett and wife go to Seal Island where he is the keeper of the light house.

Holiness does not consist of a mere profession of the experience, nor does it simply mean being wonderfully blest. Many who have never enjoyed the experience have been well blest and experienced great manifestations. Holiness goes deeper than manifestations, deeper than profession; it reaches the inmost and uttermost parts of the soul, separating from it all sin and filling it with the fullness of love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, patience, humility.—Selected.

"Is the time growing short? Give more of it to God. Waste less in dreaming and gossip. Realize that the best dividends here and in the glory-land will come from the work done for Christ. And even then time will beat on. We cannot halt it, nor delay it, and the only thing possible is to fill it up as it flies, with the least thought and work possible for self, and the most possible for the Kingdom."

A man with no sense of religious duty is he whom the Scriptures describe, in such terse but terrific language, as living without God in the world. Such a man is out of his proper being, out of the circle of all his happiness, and away, far, far away, from the purpose of his creation.—Daniel Webster.

Personals.

Brother Durnstroff, a young Bulgarian who is a student from the Pentecostal School, has been visiting one of our young students, and while here we had some special services and we enjoyed him very much. These young men have now returned to the school to prepare for the ministry. God bless them.—C. S. Hilyard.

Sister Chipman Phillips and son of Woodstock have returned from a visit to friends in Minneapolis.

Rev. and Mrs. Guy L. Wilson of Chicago arrived in Fort Fairfield this Wednesday to spend some time with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kimball.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Sister Story who has been seriously ill at Beulah Camp Ground is reported to be much improved and expects to be taken to her home in Moncton soon.

Dr. J. E. and Mrs. Jewett have spent several days at Penniac, the occasion of their visit being the celebration of the eightieth birthday of Brother B. N. Goodspeed.

Mr. B. M. Colpitts returned last week from a trip to Albert County, where he attended a reunion of the Colpitts family. This meeting takes place every five years. This year there were in attendance about six hundred members of the family.—Press.

Mrs. Rev. B. Colpitts, who was visiting in Penobscus, returned last week. She was accompanied by Miss Nellie Cochrane, a grand child, from Bloomfield, Kings County, who will spend two weeks here.—Press.

OUR MISSIONARY FARM.

Sister S. Hayden Shaw has set a commendable example for others in our churches. On a recent missionary meeting evening, the pastor being away, Sister Shaw took a copy of the Highway to the meeting and read the missionary letters and the editor's suggestions for the purchase of the "Balmoral Farm," on which our missionary station is situated, viz., to raise two thousand dollars, by 2000 people giving an average of one dollar each, and have the entire amount raised and paid in three months. Bro. Gray arose and said: "When I read that suggestion in the Highway I decided I would give two dollars." He was followed by others who stated the amounts they decided to contribute. Sister Shaw suggested all pay in immediately, which they did, and Sister Shaw sent to the writer as a result of that meeting $20.00.

We hope that all of our people will take immediate action in this matter, and let us make the raising of the $2,000 an example of (hilarious) cheerful giving. Let the matter be taken up at the quarterly meetings.

S. A. BAKER,

Treasurer of Missionary Fund.

"People talk of liberty as if it meant the liberty of doing what a man likes. The only liberty that a man, worthy the name of a man, ought to ask for, is to have all restrictions, inward and outward, removed to prevent his doing what he ought."

What we want to feel is that God knows what happens to us, and is with us while it happens, and loves us steadily and tenderly through it all.—Dr. Van Dyke.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. S. H. Clark and family have got comfortably settled at Port Maitland, N. S., again, and are taking up the work with commendable energy.

A large gathering and a grand meeting is anticipated at Maple Ridge at the quarterly meeting convening there on the 16th. The weather permitting, the preaching services will be held in the tent on Sunday the 19th. The tent is pitched near the church.

All the ministers on the district expect to be present part of the time. This includes Revs. J. H. Coy, B. Colpitts, H. C. Archer, P. J. Trafton, H. S. Dow, Henry Smith, S. A. Baker, A. H. Trafton and Licenciates H. S. Mullen and wife, and Perley Briggs.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins received seven new members into the Moncton church on Aug. 29th.

Rev. I. F. and Mrs. Kierstead are at Millville where they will remain until spring. Bro. Kierstead is engaged in out-door work and finds that he is improving. Sister Kierstead continues in poor health and the physician advises her to refrain from work, so she will be unable to visit the churches as she planned. Brother and Sister Kierstead will need some more housekeeping articles. Write them and find out what they need and then — supply them.

Rev. S. H. Clark baptised one person at Port Maitland, N. S., on August 22nd.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow, of Woodstock, held an all-day meeting at Lower Brighton on the 6th. A considerable number of the brethren and sisters from Hartland, Victoria, Rosedale and Woodstock attended. A grand time was enjoyed and people were definitely helped, and all were richly blessed.

Rev. Henry Smith arrived home from Beulah Camp Ground on the 3rd inst. He reports a good and successful season in every way.

Rev. A. H. Trafton, who has been in poor health, is reported better.

Rev. E. W. Lester, who was in the city on the 8th inst., reports a blessed service at Maple Ridge on the 5th inst, assisted by Sister Mullen. Brother Lester began special services at Maple Ridge on the 9th and expects a time special victory during the quarterly meeting to be held there from the 16th to 19th of this month.

Brother H. S. Mullen has been ill with a cold and sore throat since the close of the tent meeting at Kingsclear. He is still at the residence of Brother Lester at Millville.

Sister Slipp reports a steady and growing interest in the church and Sunday school at Jonesport, Me.

The woodwork on the outside of the Frederickton church has been painted, and the fence across the front finished and painted, which gives it a very neat and fresh appearance.

The Editor and Mrs. Baker visited Geary on the 6th inst. Word was sent around and a good audience gathered in the new church and a service was held in the evening. Our aged Brother Franklin Carr, who is afflicted with paralysis, while unable to walk about, he is able to sit up part of the time.
