EVERLASTING LIFE, ETERNAL LIFE.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Everlasting Fire, Everlasting Punishment.

Then shall He say also to them on His left hand, depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into everlasting life.

In these sayings of our blessed Lord and Saviour are four declarations, upon two of which the hope of the world rests. These declarations are generally accepted as infallable truth, viz., Whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. But the righteous into eternal life.

Is there any more grounds for questioning the last two declarations than there is those quoted above?

Would it be any more of a "contradiction of Jesus Christ against himself" to say the first declaration was untrue, than the last, viz., Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire. These shall go away into everlasting punishment.

If there is grounds of uncertainty about one, there must be about the other.

It seems to us that men must be stone blind spiritually, and lacking the fear of God, and past feeling, to for a moment question such a plain declaration of Him who knew as no man knew, the blessed truth of this marvelous declaration of salvation to a lost and ruined world and the unspeakably awful truth of the destiny of those who neglected, or refused, the one and only hope of salvation.

When you look at the matter fairly, you turn away with trembling, and say the presumption to question the declaration of our Lord is scarcely less than the devil would dare do.

Yet men will claim to be servants of Christ, while they are ridiculing his own positive declaration of an awful and immutable truth.

Beloved, let us stand by the grand old Book with its glorious declarations of salvation to the uttermost, and its awful revelation of the destiny of those who refuse and ignore the mercy of God through His beloved Son and the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit.

Don't forget to renew for the Highway. We need the money.

Know what your sin is and confess it; but do not imagine that you have approved yourself a penitent by confessing sin in the abstract.—T. L. Cuyler.

THE MISSIONARY FARM.

Having lived on this farm for several years, we know of its value. It is a splendid farm of over one thousand acres; about half is under cultivation, the rest is suitable for grazing purposes.

Many of you already know that we have had this farm leased; now we are compelled to buy or may lose all we have there, mission station, church, out buildings, fruit trees, etc., which are valuable.

The owner of the farm wishes to sell to his son, but according to our legal agreement we have the first offer.

We wish all and each member of our churches could see the importance of pushing this matter of buying now. Come forward quickly with your offerings.

If we lose this farm our labor of years will be lost to us, as our churches there would be scattered, to say nothing of the financial loss.

We have reason to believe that should we lose this farm we could not secure another near where our present work is.

The foreign work is the Lord's. We are only His stewards, entrusted with the care of it. Let each one of us feel the responsibility of this trust which has been committed to us. This will not mean that we will sit down with folded hands and expect others to shoulder the burden—but we will do our part and get our friends interested also, so that this farm will soon belong to our society, free from debt.

Thus our mission work will go on uninterrupted. Souls will be won from "darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God."

I. F. and Mrs. Kierstead.

A friend writes:—"Please find enclosed $4 for Balmoral Fund. It is my tithe money. I hope our people will take hold and pay for that farm. Surely there are two thousand persons to whom this appeals, and I hope they will give a good account of themselves.

BALMORAL FARM FUND.

The appeal for funds to purchase the "Balmoral Farm" (South Africa) is being responded to by the people and we are expecting the ministers and people to take up the work in real earnest and a good united effort will result in the permanent establishment of the missionary work on our own land in South Africa. We are receiving very encouraging letters with contributions from brethren from a distance. Brother S. B. Charlton writes from Waverly, Mass.:

I am enclosing $5 for the fund to purchase "Balmoral Farm" in response to the suggestion in a recent issue of "The Highway." Hope to be able to send more to help in the missionary work of the denomination.

Brother W. C. Grant, of Augusta, Me., writes as follows:

I love the Reformed Baptists; they are the people of my choice and I am always interested in their undertakings for the Lord. I am not very rich in the things of this world, but I have a comfortable home and good health, and I am able to obtain work most of the time and want to help what I can. Enclosed you will find $5 towards the purchase of our "Missionary Farm" in Africa. May the dear Lord bless the grand work. There may be more to follow—I have never tithed, but am thinking strongly of taking it up.

Sister Pearl McNally, of Skowhegan, Me., writes:

I am enclosing the renewal for The Highway, and $1.75 towards the "Balmoral Farm Fund." I wish I could send more. Jesus is very precious to me these days and I want His cause to prosper in every way.

Mrs. C. H. Flewelling writes: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway; also $2.00 for Balmoral Farm Fund. I praise God for full salvation, "And I still have the blessing, praise the Lord."
