NOTES FROM A SERMON BY W. B. WIGGINS AT RIVERSIDE.

"They went to their own company."—Acts 4:23.

The character of a man is shown by the company he keeps; as the common saying is true that, "birds of a feather flock together." The smoker, the card player, the drinker, the gambler, the dancer, the theatre-goer, etc., will find their own company. So will Holiness people, and people call them clannish.

Now these disciples went to their "own company". They were a praying company, a persecuted, a spirit-filled, a courageous, a powerful, a witnessing, a loving, a self-denying, a successful, a joyful company, because they had received the baptism of the Holy Ghost, cleansing their hearts from all sin.

This is the kind of company that God says are "mine" and who will be among the "jewels" whom God will "make up" when he comes again.

If we wish to enter heaven we must be found among this company. This company is despised by the worldly as poor and mean; but God delights in them and they delight in God, as they have been washed and made whiter than snow through the blood of the Lamb, whose blood cleanseth from all sin.

"One 'today' is worth a thousand 'tomorrow.' Where will you be tomorrow?"

"The easiest sin to commit is often the hardest to repent of."

"When a man will not see God, it is only a question of time when he cannot see God."

"Praise is man's only payment for answered prayer."

"The reason men cannot see God is because they are not pure in heart."

"Hell fire can be put out only by the 'Water of Life.'"
