

MARRIED.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Woodstock, N. B., on August 5th, 1915, Burns Antworth, of Stockholm, Me., and Jennie Burns, of Danforth, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. H. Smith Dow.

OBITUARY

At the home of her son, at Newburg Junction, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Maria Dickenson passed away from this life July 15th, aged 76 years.

Sister Dickenson was confined to her room for several months, and at times her suffering was intense, but she bore it with Christian fortitude. Loving friends ministered to her every need. She had been a true follower for many years of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and a faithful and constant member of the R. B. Church at Lower Brighton. She leaves to mourn their loss her husband, Jeremiah, two sons, Gordon, with whom she and her husband lived, Willie, of Upper Brighton, and one sister, Mrs. John Nixon, of Lower Brighton. The funeral service was held at the R. B. Church, July 17th, at 2.30, when a large number of friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to the departed. The presence of the Holy Spirit was very manifest in the service. Rev. P. J. Quigg assisted the writer, and a choir rendered appropriate music. She lived victorious and died triumphant.

P. J. Trafton.

"THAT YE MAY BEAR MUCH FRUIT."

A brother attended Riverside Camp Meeting and when he left for home bought a dozen song books, "The Best of All Complete." We noted that he enjoyed the preaching and testimonies and singing and took part himself, and we asked him how he came in contact with this line of teaching, and he replied: "When the railroad was being built through where I live Brother Charles True boarded at my home." We knew the rest.

Those who live "the blessing" will bear fruit which will continue to grow after they have gone to heaven.

TENT MEETING.

A Tent Meeting will be held at Hammonville, Kingsclear, beginning on Sunday, Aug. 22nd, conducted by Revs. P. J. Trafton, of Hartland, N. B., and S. A. Baker, of Fredericton, and other ministers and workers. We have not definitely decided how long the meeting will be continued. Much depends on the weather.

God did for me in a few moments what I had for three years been trying to do by good resolutions, etc. He didn't do it, however, until I had consecrated myself a living sacrifice and was willing to humble myself in presence of my congregation in my own church and say, "Thy will be done."

REV. H. A. CLARK,
Pastor of Easton F. B. Church.

"Methusaleh, the oldest man, was a son of Enoch, who 'walked with God.' The last part of the third commandment was verified."

"The terrors of death are due to the errors of life."

"Love is the livery of heaven."

A WORD IN SEASON.

We purpose preparing a box for our Missionaries and Native Christians, to be sent for Christmas if possible, so in the meantime or after the summer vacations we want all the missionary societies and bands to get busy. I suggest that the secretaries correspond with me so I can let you know what you can do in the way of serving. This will avoid misunderstandings or from several societies doing the same thing. The work can thus be distributed, giving all a share; also that each member of our African churches may be remembered with appreciative gifts.

There are a variety of articles which our missionaries need, but are doing without because of high prices there.

The newly converted natives need clothing, but above all else they need our prayers of faith. Satan is just as busy there as in the home land, seeking to destroy their faith and leading them into error. So we all have a good opportunity of doing work for the Master and thus fulfill the command of Christ and He will bless our every effort.

IDA M. KIERSTEAD.
