Dear Highway:

I am glad for the grace of God that bringeth salvation through Jesus Christ, and that in all the walks of life we may have that which will enable us to live in conformity to the will of God. Surely this great salvation is indeed a wonderful salvation. And how strangely wonderful it is that all do not accept of it. Our Saviour in his memorable Sermon on the Mount said: "Few there be that find the path of life." A look abroad in this fallen sinful world proves conclusively the truth of that saying. Yes, in all the positions of life, to have the presence of Christ to go with us is just what we need, whether it be the King on the throne or the lowest subject, the farmer, the merchant, the lawyer, the mechanic, the lumberman; in all the trades and occupations of life, we need the heavenly wisdom, the love of God, that will make life happy and the outcome will be a home, in the heavenly country where sickness, afflictions and troubles will never be known.

In my declining days of life I feel to rejoice in hope of the glory of God and feel that the foundation upon which I stand is "the Rock of Ages." May the Lord bless all the readers of the Highway, and all the lovers of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and the efforts put forth for the salvation of the unsaved.

B. N. Goodspeed.

Dear Brother Baker:

I enclose two dollars, one for Balmoral Farm Fund and one for the renewal of the Highway. I see by the label it is time to renew. It comes to me as a very dear friend and helps me to walk in the straight and narrow way. I love to hear the testimonies of the dear brethren and sisters and our dear missionaries in the foreign fields. I am enjoying the blessing of full and free salvation today. He has saved and sanctified me and keeps me trusting in him day by day, for which I praise his dear name. The Lord is the strength of his people.

Your sister in Christ,
Mrs. Sara A. Allen.

SUPPRESSION IS NOT PURITY.

One very good reason, among many others, why we cannot accept the doctrine of suppression. The Bible has a good deal to say about purity, but it has nothing to say about suppression of sin.

Purity means freedom from all defilement. Purity admits of no compounds. A substance compounded or mixed with anything else is adulterated. Water and air, for instance, mixed with anything else is impure. The housewife may, in cleaning her house, neglect to sweep under the door mats. This is not purity but uncleanness suppressed. Sin held down or suppressed is uncleanness. Hence suppression is impurity. This is the highest state of experience advocated by suppressionists. But the Bible never pronounces a blessing upon it, and never even speaks of it. God can never pronounce his blessing upon suppression of sin. But Jesus did bless purity. He said, "blessed are the pure in heart." This is the present tense, too. He recognizes the fact that there are such people upon the earth. We must therefore advocate purity. To advocate suppression is to advocate impurity. This could not be otherwise.—Selected.

Dear Brother Baker:

I am sending ten dollars for the Missionary Farm. I am glad that I have salvation, and I have a good time serving the Lord. I intend to be true and know him better.

Your brother in Christ,

Dear Brother:

I felt I should do something towards the Balmoral Farm Fund, so I am sending my mite, hoping the good Lord will bless every effort toward getting the amount required.

Still trusting in Jesus,
D. W. Blackwood.

West Pembroke, Me.

Dear Brother Baker,—Enclosed you will find $21.00, our contribution from this church to help buy the "Balmoral Farm." I am sending a list of the contributors and the amount given by each. The Lord has been very good to us since we came here and the people are very kind and considerate for our welfare, and we are trying to look after their spiritual welfare. I feel my responsibility and how much God has entrusted to my care. I preach once at Royalton on Sunday and once at Lesterville. Brother and Sister Mullen are coming with us for a ten days' meeting. I am praying that God will bless us together in the saving of souls, and the sanctifying of believers.

Yours in Him, who loved us and gave himself for us.
Perley Briggs.

HE WILL KEEP THEE.

He will keep thee as the apple of His eye.
He will keep thee in all thy ways, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

He will keep thy foot from being taken.
Lest any hurt thee, He will keep thee day and night.

He will keep thee as a shepherd doth his flock.

He will keep thee from the evil that is in the world.

He will keep thee from falling.

He will keep thee from the hour of temptation.

He will keep thee in all places whither thou goest.

He will keep thee in the way, and bring thee into the place which he has prepared.

He will keep that which thou hast committed to Him.—Sel.
