WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Our first visit to dear old Beulah since coming from Africa, proved to be the tenth anniversary of our wedding. It was such a pleasure to spend it with our many friends. They made it possible for us to respond to the call from God to convey the message of salvation to the heathen. They nobly stood by us during those years, inspiring us to greater courage and more activity in the work there. They held the ropes while we worked and kept us before the throne in faith.

Then many, many times their messages of love encouraged our hearts during the testing times. The heathen souls whom we were instrumental in winning from darkness to light and from the power of satan unto God, are largely credited to their account in the records of heaven.

We have become so much their children that they are still caring for us in our weakened physical condition.

We were greatly surprised when Brother Baker called us up on the platform at the beginning of the evening service (of the 8th inst.) introduced us to the congregation in his usual kind way, then presented us on behalf of those present with an envelope containing $61.00 as a wedding gift, with all good wishes.

These tokens of love bind us closer to these dear ones than ever before, and we appreciate all this kindness more than we can express, but pray the Lord to richly reward every one of them in all spiritual blessings.

We praise the Lord for the lessons we have learned from the evangelist. He is a grand teacher and for the real soul feast which we have enjoyed during this camp meeting of 1915.

I. F. Kierstead and Wife.
