

OBITUARY

CHARLES ERB.

After a lingering illness which he bore with Christian fortitude and patience Charles Erb passed peacefully to rest on the morning of Feb. 21st, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leon Dyer, Sussex, N. B. Brother Erb was 69 years of age, and since early in life has trusted and served his Heavenly Father faithfully. He died with the full assurance of an inheritance incorruptable. One daughter and two sons survive him, Mrs. Leon Dyer, and Mr. William Erb of Sussex, and Lee L. Erb of Moose Jaw, Sask.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. G. B. MacDonald.

Brother Erb has been a Highway subscriber for many years and frequently expressed his appreciation of it. His letters bore the fragrance of a deep spiritual life.

"His memory is blessed." A good man has gone home.—Editor.

MRS. AMANDA SMITH HAS GONE TO HER REWARD.

Many of our people who met and heard this old Saint at Beulah Camp meeting will call to mind with pleasure her sayings and doings while she spent a few days with us.

She said of Beulah Camp Ground:

"I have visited many camp grounds, some of them very beautiful, but Beulah is away out of sight in beauty of any I have ever seen."

We will never forget the rich tone of her voice as she sang the hymn, "The Lord will provide."

In speaking of the unpleasant things she had suffered on account of being a colored woman, she said, humorously: "Well, I had no choice in the color of my skin; if I had been given my choice I would probably have chosen green, as I am fond of that color."

In speaking of making her consecration she said: "All the worldly wealth I possessed to lay upon the altar was my washtub and washboard and irons, but I read in the Bible, 'This is the will of God even your sanctification,' so I determined I would have what my Heavenly Father willed me, or I would break the will."

While she was holding Evangelistic meetings in England, she visited Queen Victoria. She attracted great crowds in England. She visited India and Africa and held meetings over the greater part of the United States.

She was 78 years of age. She has gone to be with Jesus. "So shall we ever be with the Lord."

SONG BOOKS.

We have a few song books, "The Songs of Praise and Power," which we will mail to any address for 20 cents each in stamps. One and two cent stamps preferred.—Editor.

BEDDING FOR BEULAH.

Mrs. J. C. Maxon, a feather bed to be made into pillows. Mrs. Richard Kitchen, 1 quilt.

There should be a grand rally at the quarterly meeting at Fort Fairfield, Me. We always have a hearty welcome from the people and a great meeting.

We have not received our African letters for some time. We presume it is on account of pressing so many steamers into transport work by the English Government.

Personals.

Brother A. W. Morrell has taken charge of the Pentecostal Nazarene church at Saco, Me.

Brother A. J. Hoyt who is now in Washington State hopes to be in New Brunswick in time for camp meeting. We have had letters from several other persons who intend to be present.

Mrs. Gaynell Wilson arrived in town Saturday from Buffalo, New York. Mrs. Wilson's husband, Rev. Guy L. Wilson, has gone to North Dakota, where he will hold two series of special services, after which he will join Mrs. Wilson in Fort Fairfield, and they will visit until June at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bird Kimball.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Mrs. Wendell Philips of Upper Southampton, N. B., has for a number of days past been a guest at the home of her cousin Henry Farnham. Mrs. Philips has also been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Higgins and other Fort Fairfield friends.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Brother Fred Brown of Lower Brighton left for Halifax on the 1st inst. to take a course in the military school.

Sister Handy F. Nevers of Perth is in the Fisher Hospital at Woodstock for treatment.

E. Higgins of Fort Fairfield left Tuesday morning on a business trip to Boston. During his stay in Boston Mr. Higgins will visit with his son Clarence, who is studying for a doctor in that city.

Sister Kierstead is progressing well in her recovery and expects to be able to go to Millville on the 16th.

Mrs. Esther Lovely says: "I am still trusting in the Lord and have found Him a present help in every time of need, and am glad I know that Jesus did a second work of grace in my heart, for which I praise His dear name."

Brother and Sister S. Hayden Shaw will move into their home at Hartland again this spring. Brother Shaw says: "We will keep on the main line, and some day we will arrive at the golden station of the city which is (now) out of sight."

We received a letter from Sister Grovinor, and all of her friends will be glad to know that she is enjoying good health, and much of the presence and blessing of the Lord.

Rev. E. F. Walker, D. D., has so far recovered his health as to be able to resume his work as general superintendent of the Pentecostal Nazarene denomination.

CHRIST'S PRAYERS.

As in all else in this matter, the Lord Jesus has given us the best example. When he was in the circle of his disciples his prayers were of moderate length. When in a mixed assembly, as at the grave of Lazarus, or at the feeding of the five thousand, they were short. But when Jesus was alone with his Father on the mountain or in the desert, then he prayed the whole night through.—Ex.

The Marysville Adult Bible Class celebrated their third anniversary on the evening of the 12th inst. The class has enjoyed unabated success from the time of its organization.

The Highway for one year for 50 cents to all new subscribers who send in their subscriptions by April 1st, 1915.

The love of God is a hidden spring which supplies the heart continually, and never permits it to be dry or unfruitful.—Quesnel.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Fort Fairfield, Me., on March 6th, by Rev. H. C. Archer, Miss Mabel F. Perkins and William A. Leatheray, both of Fort Fairfield.

DIED

At the home of Mr. John Jones at Lower Woodstock, Kenneth, the four months old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Flowers of Portage, Me. The funeral service was attended by Rev. H. Smith Dow. Interment was made in the Northampton burying ground.

MISSIONS.

The late Chas. Erb, Sussex 5.00
H. C. A.

THANKS.

Sister George H. Hartley, of Royalty, wishes to thank her many friends for their expressions of sympathy which have been given in this time of her deep sorrow.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Reformed Baptist church of Fort Fairfield held its regular meeting Friday evening in the vestry of that church, about 35 people being present. Mrs. Edward Higgins acted as leader of the meeting. A reading on the work of the Foreign Missionary Society, also a short talk, was given by the pastor of the church, Rev. H. C. Archer. The pastor expressed the wish that it might not be long before the church in this town would be supporting a missionary in the foreign fields. A silver offering was taken which included the dues of the different members of the society. The true missionary spirit was prevalent in the meeting.

"The fruit of the Spirit is love;" "not my natural love improved upon and developed, which seems beautiful under favorable conditions but liable to fail when brought to the test; but the divine love of God, springing from that perennial fountain of abounding fullness, shed abroad in my heart and life by the Holy Ghost."

Sister Ella Slipp says: "I am enclosing my subscription for the Highway. I surely enjoy it very much and always welcome it as a dear friend. I am in hopes of getting some new subscribers for it."

We will be glad to send a folder containing the "Reformed Baptist Church Covenant" to any person sending us a two cent stamp and their address.

Rev. C. E. Brewster of Old Orchard, Me., has been a Highway reader for several years. We appreciate his words of commendation for it.

We are glad that the folder sent out containing "The Reformed Baptist Church Covenant" was so generally appreciated.

We appreciate the response of our subscribers to our request to renew their subscriptions. Have you sent in yours?

"Let the true religion be removed, and a false one will come in its place."

Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide.—Lowell.
