

OBITUARY

The funeral of the late Capt. John McCrea, formerly of Sanford, N. S., took place at Darling Lake on the 25th instant. Interment was made at Darling Lake cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. S. H. Clark, of Port Maitland. Mr. McCrea was 76 years of age, and leaves one sister, Mrs. Stephen Shaw of Sanford, N. S.

After a lingering illness of some weeks, Mrs. William Taylor of North Head, G. M., passed away on the 17th instant, in her 86th year. The funeral was attended by the writer, I. F. Kierstead.

After years of suffering, Francis E., beloved wife of Calvin Knox, passed peacefully to rest on May 28th, 1915, at her home in Upper Hainesville, N. B. Sister Knox was within a few days of being 61 years of age, and since early in life has trusted her Saviour whom she served faithfully. Although she suffered greatly and being confined to her bed for the last five years, no words of complaint ever crossed her lips, but she had great anticipations of the time when suffering would be no more.

A loving husband and three daughters survive her. The daughters are: Mrs. Walter Hoyt of Upper Hainesville, Mrs. Judson Blaney of Woodstock, and Miss Hazel Knox at home.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Pineo, assisted by Rev. E. W. Lester.

The following verses were contributed by the daughters:

Our dear mother has departed
To her long eternal rest;
She is free from all her suffering,
And we're sure that she is blest.

Oh, the patience and long suffering
That was printed in her face;
The very last smile she gave us
Was o'erflowed with heavenly grace.

Yes, our treasure is in heaven,
Where nothing can molest;
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.

HAVE FAMILY PRAYER.

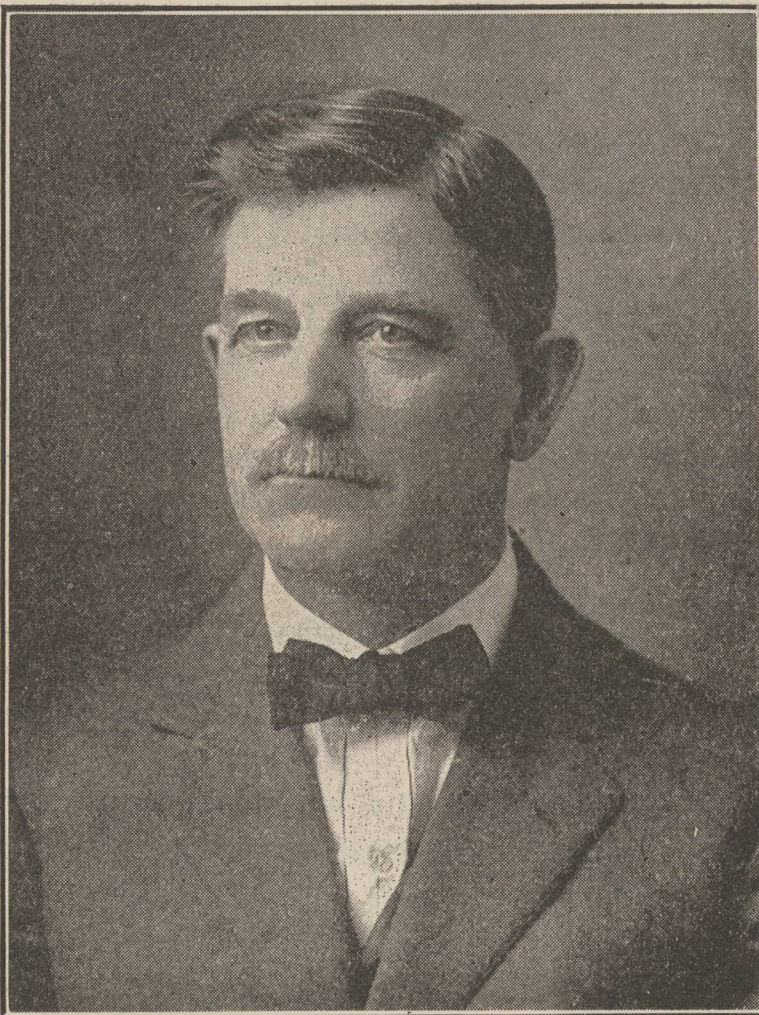

Family prayer is the nutriment of family piety, and woe to those who allow it to cease. I read the other day of parents who said they could not have family prayer, and one asked this question: "If you knew your children would be sick through the neglect of family prayer would you not have it? If one child was smitten down with the fever each morning that you neglected prayer, how then?" "Oh, then we would have it." "And if there was a law that you should be fined five shillings if you did not meet for prayer, would you find time for it?" "Yes." And if there were five pounds given to all who had family prayer, would you not by some means arrange to have it?" "Yes." And so the inquirer went on with many questions, and wound up with this: "Then it is but an idle excuse when you, who profess to be servants of God, say that you have no time or opportunity for family prayer.—Spurgeon."

REV. GEORGE J. KUNZ

Of Syracuse, N. Y.

Evangelist Riverside Camp Meeting, Aug. 6 - 16, 1915

We feel fully assured that all the people who had the privilege of listening to Brother Kunz at Riverside Camp Meeting, and all who heard of the messages he delivered, will be at this blessed annual feast.

We have had many good men at camp meetings who have been a blessing to us, all possessing gifts differing, which manifests the wisdom of God in sending out his workers. A man called to God, and sent out by him, who is faithful to him who called him, is "a man with a message," these are the men who really benefit the people, and we believe that this is true of Bro. Kunz.

"Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same spirit."

Personals.

Mrs. T. F. Wright and son, who have been at Gordonville, left on Wednesday, June 2nd, to join her husband. She was accompanied as far as McAdam Junction by her mother, Mrs. Carl Nye. Brother Wright met them there.

Sister Sidy Giberson of Bristol spent several days last week in Fredericton with her daughter, Miss Basha Giberson, who was a student at the Provincial Normal School.

Sister Louisa B. Everett expects to spend the summer at Andover with Mrs. J. E. Stewart, her adopted daughter.

Fred W. Foster who has established a good reputation as a preacher, officiated at the services in the Reformed Baptist church Sunday afternoon and evening. It may be remarked, by the way, that Mr. Foster's faith is shown not only by talk but by his works, as he has for several years supported Rev. Jesse McPherson as a missionary in Africa, at a cost of about $1,500 a year. The present low price of potatoes does not deter Mr. Foster in the least, as he recently announced to a friend his determination to keep on with his backing of Mr. McPherson.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Brother W. B. and Sister Brown of Lower Brighton were in Fredericton a few days the first of this month attending the closing of the Provincial Normal School and visiting their friends.

Miss Mary Grant of Grand View was the winner of the Governor General's Medal in the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Gertrude E. Baker, the only daughter now living of the editor of the Highway, is one of the 75 nurses who sail from New York on the 22nd as a unit sent out by Harvard College to form a staff in a base hospital for the British.

Sister Abraham Schriver writes: "My testimony is that I know Jesus is leading me, and my trust is in him. Glory to His precious name. I request the prayers of the dear ones who meet at the Alliance."

We regret to learn that Brother Howard Thurston, of Sandford, N. S., lost his house by fire on the 5th inst. One of Bro. and Sister Thurston's sons is at the front, another has recently enlisted. Another son is attending the Normal School at Truro, N. S.

Rev. W. E. Smith has taken the pastorate of the Methodist church at Ephratah, Fulton Co., New York, for the summer.

Brother Russel N. Brown, who has spent the past year attending the Normal School at Fredericton, finished his examinations for superior teacher's license on the 11th inst. and returned to his home at Lower Brighton. He becomes the principal of the school at Windsor, Carleton Co., beginning with the fall term. Brother Brown has been very helpful in the church and Sunday school while in the city. At the close of the Sunday school session on the 6th inst., the superintendent presented him with a case containing a gentlemen's toilet set on behalf of the church and Sunday school.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

On account of the meeting of the Alliance the next issue of the Highway will come out on the 26th. Please send all matter so as to reach the editor by the 24th. We expect to go to Beulah Camp Ground on the 28th.
