

OBITUARY

At North Head, Grand Manan, on December 26th, in the 66th year of her age, Mrs. D. Whelpley, wife of the late Daniel Whelpley. Sister Whelpley was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist church of this place, always lived a Christian life and delighted in attending the services of the church as long as she was able to get there. Her place in the church and testimony will be missed by many. She leaves five children to mourn their loss, Mrs. Dalzell, Mrs. Allan and Mr. William Whelpley all of North Head; Mrs. Eugene Wilcox of Wood Island, and Mrs. McDonald of Shiloh, Maine. The funeral was attended by the writer, I. F. Kierstead.

At Geary, Jan. 2nd, 1915, Wilber O. Carr, aged 57 years, leaving two sons, Manton R. and Chester O. Carr, and four brothers, Milton and Norton Carr of California, and Salatiel and David of Geary, and four sisters, Mrs. George Smith of Minneapolis and Mrs. H. D. Smith of Washington, Mrs. James Graham and Mrs. Andrew Hamilton of Petersville, and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Brother Carr will be much missed as he was one of the leading men of the place. He was a member of the Reformed Baptist church and his funeral was largely attended. Services were conducted in the new church by Rev. G. B. Trafton of St. John.

It becomes my duty to record the death of our dear Brother Deacon S. N. Phillips, which occurred on January 2nd at his home at Green Bush, York County.

He was born at Woodstock and was 79 years of age. He professed faith in Christ in early manhood and joined the Free Baptist church. At the beginning of the holiness work in this province he took sides in 1884 with the holiness cause. At the beginning of the church he was appointed first deacon and which office he held until his death. He leaves to mourn their loss three sons, David, Chipman and Wendell, (his wife having died eighteen years ago), and five grandchildren; two brothers, George and Frank in the West, and two sisters, Mrs. Dr. Nevers and Mrs. Grimmer, both of Houlton, Me, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a kind father, neighbor and friend. He was especially fond of flowers and he always had growing in front of his door a great variety of the old fashioned kind which he delighted to give to his friends and passers by. Sick rooms were made more cheerful by his large bouquets and weddings were delighted by his beautiful floral offerings, and it was very becoming that his casket should be covered with cut flowers. A pillow, the offering of his three sons, and a wreath, the offering of friends.

His sickness was long, being confined to his house three years and to his bed in a helpless condition the past two years of his life. He bore up with Christian resignation and would often express his hope in Christ and His cleansing blood, and longed for the time of his release. During all that time he was tenderly cared for by his son David with whom he lived, and by his daughter-in-law, who cared for him with untiring care by day and by night, his other sons and their wives often coming to the home and assisting.

He will be missed in the church, being a constant attendant, and his home was always open for quarterly meetings and special meetings, and before the church was built revival services were held in his home for weeks at a time, and

Personals.

Our aged Brother, Eliphalet Jones, of Knoxford, writes: I am not very strong this winter, but am about the house most of the time, however. But my faith is strong in the promises. Many of them have been fulfilled to me. The dear, clean sheet (The Highway) is a great joy to me.

Brother and Sister Thomas Wolverton writes—Accompanying their renewal and subscription to the "Riverside Fund." We are still trusting in Jesus, and His precious blood saves from all sin just now.

Mrs. D. W. Duplissey writes:—Enclosed please find renewal for the Highway. I love its clean pages and cannot seem to get along without it, preferring to deny myself of something else in order to have it.

APPRECIATION.

I wish to take the opportunity early this New Year to express our grateful thanks for gifts of quilts, flannelette blankets, pillows and pillow slips; also pickles and preserves from the ladies of the Woodstock, Moncton and Grey's Mills churches. We appreciate very much their thoughtful kindness to us. We were well remembered by dear ones at Christmas by substantial gifts and many expressions of love and good wishes.

These wishes and promised prayers coming from true hearts mean so much. It stimulates us to greater activity in His dear service, and a greater desire to be more worthy of His love. Owing to illness we spent Christmas within doors, yet spent a happy day with Jesus our precious Saviour, remembering the sweet message which was wafted on the mid-night breeze so many hundred years ago—Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth Peace Good Will Toward Men. This sweet peace has come to abide and it is simply marvellous.

As we have accepted each gift as coming from the Giver of all good gifts, we give Him the praise and thanks for them all.

IDA M. KIERSTEAD.

BEDDING FOR RIVERSIDE.

We note with pleasure that Brother and Sister Archer's Bible class are making quilts for Riverside Camp Ground Hotel. This is a good time for the Sisters to begin work for both Beulah and Riverside hotels, as we will need a good supply of bedding for the hotels to accommodate the large number who will be present.

Subscribers in the United States will please remember the subscription price for the Highway to them on account of additional postage is $1.25.

preachers of all denominations always found a hearty welcome by the deacon and his beloved wife during their life, and of him it can truly be said "I have finished my course, having kept the faith, and henceforth there is laid up a crown which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall place on the head of all who love and wait for his appearing. The funeral was largely attended. A sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Coy, assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow of Woodstock, and interment was made at Central Southampton by the side of his companion to await the trumpet of God.
