

OBITUARY

At her home at Lower Southampton, of La-grippe, Mrs. Hannah Miller, widow of the late Deacon George Miller, aged 76 years. She leaves to mourn six children, four sons and two daughters, and twenty-one grand children. Our sister was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church and died trusting in Jesus.

J. H. C.

ADDRESS MAIL.

During the Alliance and Beulah Camp Meeting address mail to those attending the meetings "Beulah Camp Ground," as the mail is brought to the Camp Ground daily. "Brown's Flats" is the nearest post office and is three quarters of a mile away.

BEAUTIFYING BEULAH.

Beulah Camp Ground will present greater beauty this season than ever before. The fountains have all been repaired, and a fringe of ferns placed about them, the bank in front of the hotel nicely sodded, the bridges and little wharf at the lake painted; also the gates and fence at the main entrance have been newly painted, and the stones at the corners repainted and lettered. The walks and avenues have been newly gravelled and the committees are getting the buildings in readiness for the Alliance and Camp Meeting.

PERSONALS.

Sister L. A. Morrell's sister, Mrs. Davies, and her daughter, of Vancouver, B. C., are visiting her at Fredericton. They and their father—Brother William Harmon—will attend Beulah Camp Meeting.

Brother J. F. Bullock will be the organist at Beulah and Riverside Camp Meetings again this season.

Personals.

Rev. M. H. Turner, known to many of our people who attend Riverside Camp Meeting, has become pastor of the Free Baptist Church at Wytopitlock, Me. He says: "I want to praise God for giving me victory all along the way, and for his saving, sanctifying and keeping power."

Mrs. Ada A. Day writes: "I wish to renew for the Highway. I enjoy it very much and do not want to do without it as long as I can get the money to pay for it. Enclosed please find renewal for another year."

Brother W. H. Hoyt of McKay, B. C., in sending his renewal for the Highway says: "I am always pleased to receive the Highway with its pages so filled with the true word, which is always helpful, uplifting and cheering. May God bless all connected with it."

Brother Jarvis Hoyt who has spent several months with his daughter, Mrs. Alexander Johnson, in Washington State, and his son, W. H. Hoyt, in McKay, B. C., arrived home at Millville this week and will attend the Camp Meeting at Beulah.

Brother J. F. Bullock says that Beulah will be in fine order for the Alliance and Camp Meeting.

Rev. H. E. Thomas has rented the Foley cottage and his family will be there through the Camp Meeting. Brother Thomas, who is the chaplain of the 55th Battalion now quartered at Sussex, will be present some of the time.

We are glad to learn that Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Colter of Fredericton will attend Beulah Camp Meeting.

Rev. J. E. Wilson and family of Fredericton will occupy the Baker cottage for the remainder of the season after the Camp Meeting.

Rev. P. J. Trafton will lead the singing. "The Songs of Praise and Power" will be used at Beulah Camp Meeting.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the officiating minister, 342 Robinson street, Moncton, N. B., April 13, 1915, by Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Fred G. Baizley, of Dundas, Kent county, to Miss Alma V. Jones, of St. Paul, Kent county.

On Wednesday, June 16th, by Rev. H. C. Mullen, at the bride's home, Royalton, N. B., Miss Cecelia C. Burt to Mr. Harold L. Ireland, of Houlton, Me.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Woodstock, N. B., on June 16th, 1915, Perley B. Brackett of Danforth, Maine, and Lela Howard of Houlton, Maine, were united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Dow.

At the residence of Mr. W. A. Phillips, Bristol, Carleton Co., by Rev. J. H. Coy, Mr. A. J. Marsten of Woodstock and Mrs. Cynthia Noble of Bristol, N. B.

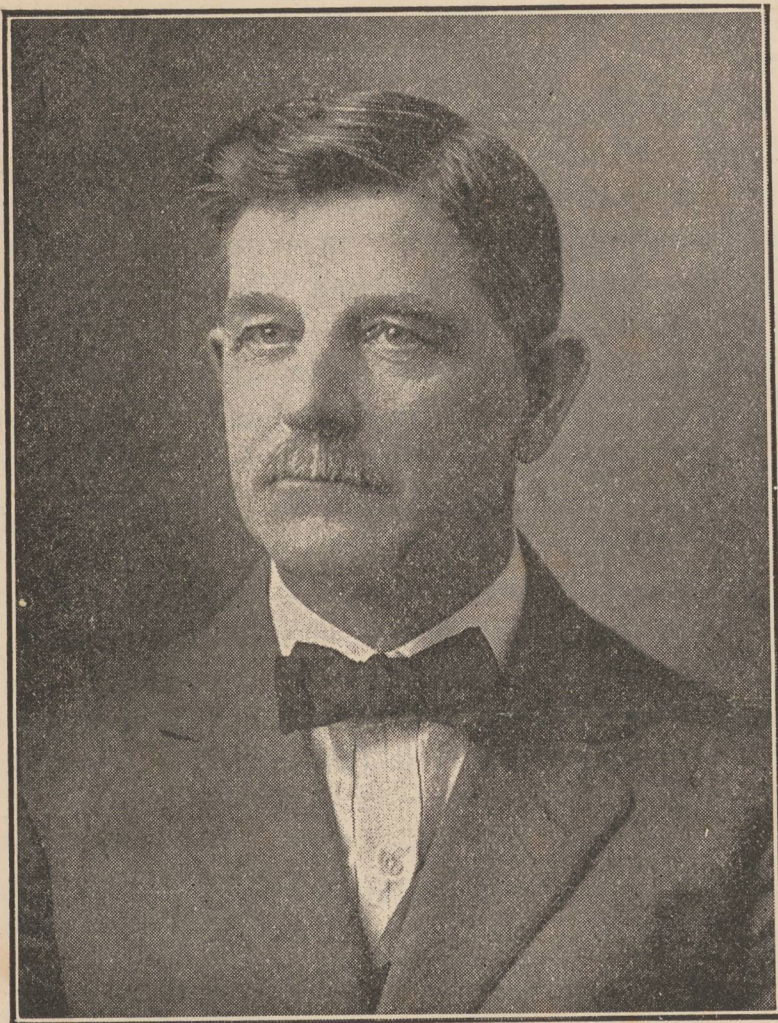

NOTICE.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Alliance of the Reformed Baptist church of Canada will convene (D. V.) at Beulah Camp Ground, Kings Co., N. B., on Wednesday, June 30th, 1915, at 10.30 a. m. The first business session will begin at 2 p. m. Every member of the Alliance is expected to be present at the business session.

SONG BOOKS.

Bring your "Song of Praise and Power" to the Camp Meeting, as the committee have decided to use it in the services.

"Genuine heart service is always acceptable to God, whether rendered in kitchen or cathedral."

REV. GEORGE J. KUNZ
Of Syracuse, N. Y.

Evangelist Riverside Camp Meeting, Aug. 6 - 16, 1915

The Riverside Camp Meeting will be held August 6-16.

Rev. George J. Kunz, of Syracuse, N. Y., will be the evangelist, preaching twice daily. A large number of ministers and workers will assist in the services.

Riverside Camp Ground, near Robinson Station on the Bangor and Aroostook R. R.

Riverside Camp Ground is beautifully situated in the centre of the great Aroostook farming country, within a short distance of six villages, viz.: Robinson, Bridgewater, Me., Baird's Mills, N. B., Centerville, N. B., Blaine, and Mars Hill, Me. Six passenger trains (three each way) stop at the Camp Ground daily during the meetings.

A large new hotel with seating capacity in the dining room for 250 guests. There are over 50 furnished rooms in the hotel and dormitory, beside cottages and tents. Rooms 50 and 75 cents per day. Board 75 cents per day, $3.50 per week. Stable room for 90 horses.

The Riverside Camp Meeting is increasing in interest and attendance every year. People attending from N. B. go either via Houlton or Fort Fairfield, Me., changing to the B. & A. R. R.