

OBITUARY

FOSTER.

Amanda, wife of Brother Charles Foster of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, passed away at their home on March 31st, aged 45 years. Sister Foster's father, mother and brother pre-deceased her in a little over a year past. She is survived by her husband and three small children. Bro. Foster and his little ones have the sincere sympathy of the whole community. The pastor, Bro. Wright, being away, Rev. Mr. Hovey, United Baptist, conducted the funeral service.

At Brazil Lake, N. S., April 1st, L. Dow Sweeney suddenly passed away in the 77th year of his age. He had been in poor health for some time, having met with an accident some years ago which resulted in partial paralysis. He was about his home as usual, but about 11 o'clock sat down and suddenly expired.

Brother Sweeney was converted under the labours of Rev. H. H. Cosman and united with the Reformed Baptist church.

The funeral service was held at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. A funeral sermon was preached at the church by the pastor from Psalm 90-12. The remains were interred in the Reformed Baptist cemetery in the grove. The four sons of the deceased were pallbearers.

Brother Sweeney is survived by his widow and four sons, Leslie of Yarmouth, Lorenzo of Tusket, Byron of East Brenton, Oscar of Deerfield; and five daughters, Mrs. McKenzie and Mrs. Theber of Freeport, Mrs. Talbot of Lynn, Mass, Mrs. Peabody of Salem, Mass, and Miss Maud Sweeney of Chicago, and one sister, Mrs. Blavil of Tusket. The ministers always received a warm welcome in the home of Brother and Sister Sweeney. In his death the community has lost a good neighbour and kind friend.

Suddenly of heart failure, Mr. Andrew Oliver, aged 78 years, at his home in Lower Caverhill, on Tuesday, March 16th. On Wednesday, March 17th, his son George, aged 39 years, also passed away with typhoid fever. He was unmarried and lived at home. The double funeral was attended on March 19th by Rev. E. W. Lester. Mr. Andrew Oliver's wife is still living, also two sons and two daughters. We extend our sympathies to the doubly sorrowful family.

Dear Highway,—

I wish to report victory here. The Lord's presence has been with us saving a number of our young people and helping us older ones. The Lord was never more precious to me than now, for which I praise him. Our pastor and wife are faithful in their duties. I am thankful there are some men left who are not afraid of people. Brothers Foster and Gouthey helped us much.

Your sister saved and kept,

MRS. ALONZO ALLEY.

FAREWELL AND PRESENTATION.

The Fredericton Ministerial Association met at the Salvation Army citidel on the evening of the 13th inst., to say farewell and Godspeed to Adj. and Mrs. Burry, who have been transferred to Yarmouth. The secretary, Rev. T. F. Flemmington, on behalf of the Association, presented Adj. Burry with a nicely bound book as an expression of their appreciation of his faithful labors while in this city and fellowship as a member of the Ministerial Association.

Personals.

Rev. W. E. Smith of Homer, New York, gave a very interesting address in the Fredericton church on the evening of the 5th inst., on England and Scotland. Brother Smith spent sixteen months in evangelistic services in Scotland. Brother Smith was called here on account of the serious illness of his father, Mr. James W. Smith, of Nashwaak Village.

Sister Harriet S. Shea has changed her address to 943 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Sister Shea is among our first subscribers for the Highway.

Sister I. F. Kierstead is at Millville.

Rev. L. S. Tracy of Calcutta, India, says: "I enjoy very much the articles and news in the Highway. I am yet in Calcutta but expect to return to my original station when my successor arrives here. Work encouraging."

Brother D. F. Knight presented the Fort Fairfield church with a large Bible for the pulpit.

Rev. W. E. Smith is still detained at Nashwaak Village by the continued illness of his father and other members of the family.

We heartily commend Adj. and Mrs. Burry to the fellowship of our people in Yarmouth. Those who were at Beulah Camp meeting last year will remember these faithful fellow laborers as being with us through the meeting. — Editor.

"Do more laboring men own their homes now than under the saloon regime?" This was one of sixteen questions sent to fifty cities and towns of Tennessee some time ago. The replies showed an increase of 48 per cent. in the number owning their own homes since prohibition went into effect.

The little child of Bro. and Sister William Hatt of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, died on the 7th inst. Rev. Mr. Gosline conducted the funeral service. "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not."

We could use a few hundred dollars very profitably in the advancement of the Lord's work, in home and foreign mission work, in addition to our regular missionary contributions. Shall we have it?

The longer I live the more I am persuaded that the gifts of Providence are more equally distributed than we are apt to think. Among the poor so little is enjoyed so much, and among the rich so much is enjoyed so little.—Margaret Bottome.

We do not very often use very long articles, but the sermon by Rev. John Wesley on The Resurrection is worth reading and careful consideration in this day of theological confusion.

It is certainly a serious problem confronting Protestantism when there are forty-nine thousand and one hundred and sixty-seven more Protestant churches in the United States than Protestant ministers. This problem calls for prayer and serious study and plan for a change of conditions.

BEULAH CAMP MEETING, 1915.

Dear Brethren,—

A year will soon have passed since we met on Beulah Camp Ground. A strong desire comes to us to look into the dear faces of those we have met so often. It has always been an inspiration to meet the dear friends at Beulah, so the longing comes over me to meet you all on the old camp ground once more. Then came the thought, why not write a letter through the Highway. I thank God for his great love and care, and that I have not grown tired of the way. But I am glad to say that my pathway grows brighter, and that earth's charms are forgotten as "I am pressing toward the prize of our high calling in Christ Jesus," looking and longing for that White City John saw coming down. The next best thing to me is the gathering of God's people and greeting them on Beulah Camp Ground. But I am reminded that some dear faces we saw last year we shall not see again on earth; they have gone a little ahead and we would not call them back, but being human we cannot help but sigh. They are enjoying the fruits of their labour and I believe they will give us a glad welcome as we cross over to the other side one by one.

Notwithstanding we will miss these dear faces. Those of us who remain will meet to sing, shout, and pray as in the past. So, brethren everywhere, make preparations and come early and plan to stay through the entire meeting, for I believe we are going to enjoy the greatest meeting ever held at Beulah Camp Ground.

I am your brother in the bonds of Christian love.

D. F. KNIGHT.
