Revs. G. B. MacDonald and family, Mr. Dennison and wife, and many others have engaged cottages and rooms and will spend several weeks at Beulah Camp Ground. Half of the rooms in Riverdale Dormitory are now engaged.

All were pleased to have Sister Bullock at the Camp Meeting again, although her physical strength was limited her heart was still in the work.

Brother J. F. Bullock filled his accustomed place at the organ and rendered excellent help at the Camp Meeting, and fully sustained his unwavering interest in Beulah Camp Ground by contributing and placing a very nice semi-circular sign, Beulah Camp Ground on the building near the wharf. Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Colter of Fredericton, spent a week at Beulah Camp Meeting and expressed themselves as enjoying the services very much, and all the people enjoyed their presence and fellowship.

"Sir B. W. Richardson, M.D., once said: "If a community of youths of both sexes whose progenitors were finely formed and powerful, were to be trained to the early practice of smoking, and if marriages were to be confined to the smokers, an apparently new and a physically inferior race of men and women would be bred. If all our young men and women were to smoke, and continue to foster the habit until they became fathers and mothers, their offspring would be so stunted and little as to be thoroughly incapable of carrying out the duties required by our generation."

a former pastor of the bride, in the presence of about fifty guests, among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murchie, of Benton, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. A. H. and Mrs. Trafton and presented them with purses containing fifty dollars in gold and several dollars in bills as a gift from their friends at the Camp Meeting, and ten dollars in gold from their son M. S. Trafton, who also wrote the following lines which were read by Rev. P. J. Trafton.

Father and Mother.

Fifty years of wedded life,
You have lived as man and wife;
Fifty years of plighted love,
Sanctioned all in heaven above;
When the final tale is told,
May it be with harps of gold.

Fifty years have come and gone,
Sons and daughters, reared in home,
Much of sunshine, yet, with cloud
Naught, but what our God allowed;
When the final gift is told,
May it be a crown of gold.

Fifty years of untold care
Burdens, always glad to share,
No luxuries sought, yet bounteous store,
Who could wish or ask for more;
When your final wealth is told,
May it all be in tried gold.

Our dear parents tried and true
We would fain your years renew,
We will walk the path you're trod,
Till we all are guests of God;

When the final count is told
May we meet on streets of gold.
