

RIVERSIDE CAMP GROUND, ROBINSON, MAINE

RIVERSIDE CAMP GROUND HOTEL

Correspondence.

Dear Highway:

I thought I should express my appreciation of your visits to our home. I like you for your clean pages, free from side issues. I have taken the Highway from its first issue. In fact I was the first one who approached A. H. Sherwood, its first editor, on the subject of issuing the paper. He and his esteemed wife had sought and found the blessing of a clean heart while he was Principal of the school at North Head, Grand Manan, and they had united with the Reformed Baptist church of that place, of which I at that time was pastor. I knowing there was a holiness paper to be printed, suggested to him that I believed he was the man for editor and he said he and his wife were talking of that very subject. So we concluded it was of the Lord. Then I wrote to the committee suggesting that he would, in my opinion, make a good editor, and he and his wife proved their efficiency in the success of the paper while they managed it. And it has never lacked a good editor since and always came out free from advertisements and presents clean truth to its readers. I trust you will be able to make it a weekly soon.

While I am now a member of the United Baptists on this side of the line, I am no less a lover of truth. I came here two years ago a stranger to these people. I am now convinced that the dear Lord led me here. He has stood by me in my work and I have sought to stick to his blessed word. We have a very interesting people to minister to, and quite a number are living in the enjoyment of the baptism of the Holy Spirit. At their business meeting they gave us a call for another year and voluntarily added one hundred dollars to our salary, which shows their thoughtfulness of their pastor's welfare. So I suppose if the Lord wills, we remain here another year. When I came here the two bodies had not united, but the union was well under way, and I expect if all goes well, the union will be settled at our June quarterly meeting, which is to be held at Lenius, Me.

Yours in the work of the Lord,
H. H. Cosman.

GOOD WORDS FOR THE HIGHWAY.

Dear Brother Baker:

Enclosed find my renewal for the Highway. It has been coming to our home several years and we like it as well as ever, and better, because its pages contain so much spiritual help for us. Thank God that the Highway stands strong as an advocate of Bible holiness. I have always enjoyed it, and we look forward to its coming into the home as a great blessing to my family.

In your responsible position as editor, may you be greatly blessed and used of God.

Mrs. Robert Lunn.

"A blazing meteor may shoot athwart your path and illuminate your way for an instant, but like a flash it disappears, leaving you in deeper darkness."

FROM ALBERTA.

The Highway? Yes, certainly we like it. Mrs. Brown and I have been reading the Highway ever since Brother Trafton held special services at the Head of Millstream and Apohaqui, not long after the Reformed Baptist churches were organized, and we like it now better than ever. Oh, how glad we were to have that sermon to read, not long ago, by Rev. P. J. Trafton. God bless him. How I wish we could have a sermon to read, even if it were but once a month, it would be such a blessing, although we will still be blessed with the Highway.

God bless his ministers and all of his people! Please remember us older ones in your prayers.

Truly yours, in Christian love.

Joseph H. Brown.

Note.—This should encourage our ministers to write more sermons for the Highway.—Editor.

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The first district Quarterly Meeting will convene with the Millville church June 8th, continuing over Sunday, the 11th.

"Do not say you cannot pray because you cannot speak much, or well, or long. Praying is wrestling with God: the heart is the wrestler: holy faith the strength of it; if by means of this strength thou be a good wrestler, though thou are ever so tongue-tied thou wilt be a prevailer. Rhetoric goes for little in the heavenly court, but sincere groans have a kind of omnipotency."—Sel.

My testimony this morning is that Jesus saves and keeps me these days, and I intend to be true and try and live the life that will please Him.

Chester Culberson.

Brother Culberson backs up his testimony with frequent contributions to the missionary work. He expects to attend Beulah Camp Meeting.—Ed.

A few comfortables are needed for River-view Dormitory at Beulah Camp Ground. We are open for a few gifts on this line. More bedding is always in order for our Camp Ground outfit.

Send 15 cents for a set of Beulah Camp Ground postal cards. They are very pretty. Those who have visited Beulah want them, and those who have not visited Beulah want to see these beauty spots. Address, The Kings Highway, Fredericton, N. B.

The fulness of the blessing will exclude all impurity in thought, desire, or purpose.

The Reformed Baptist Alliance
JUNE 28-30, 1916.

Beulah Camp Meeting
JULY 1-10, 1916.

Riverside Camp Meeting
AUG. 4-14, 1916.

For information write Rev. S. A. Baker,
Fredericton, N. B.