

MARRIED.

Myers-Porter.

A very attractive wedding took place in the Fredericton Reformed Baptist Church at 5.30 p.m., on the 9th inst., when Gunner Alexander D. Myers, of the 58th Battery, of Guysboro, N. S., and Miss Anna Margaret Porter, of Blackville, N. B., who is a member of the Women's Volunteer Reserve, were united in marriage by Rev. S. A. Baker. About fifty of the members of the Women's Volunteer Reserve (in khaki uniform) were present, and made a very pretty appearance as they marched from the church to the I. C. R. station when the happy young couple left for Blackville, N. B., on their honeymoon trip. A large number of the 58th Battery were also present, the church being crowded, and a large number were unable to get in. The bride and groom received valuable presents in money and useful articles from the 58th Battery and many other friends.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, Fort Fairfield, Me., May 4th, Alexander Barclay and Miss Olive O'Neil, both of Tilley, N. B.

OBITUARY

At Beaver River, N. S., on the morning of May 4th Miss Levina A. Wyman passed away at the age of 79 years leaving to mourn her loss, two brothers, Mr. Charles Wyman, with whom she made her home, and Bro. Nelson Wyman of the same town beside other relatives and many friends. The funeral service was held in her late home on the afternoon of the 6th inst., burial taking place in the family lot near by the home. Services conducted by Rev. S. H. Clark.

Bertha J., beloved wife of Alfred Lochard, of Millville, passed to her eternal home April 15th.

Sister Lochard suffered greatly for about ten weeks, first with pneumonia; later other complications followed. She bore her suffering with patience and Christian fortitude. Early in life she professed conversion and united with the Baptist church, and ever lived a consistent Christian life. She was resigned to the will of God and, although she would have liked to remain with her family, said she was ready to go.

She leaves to mourn her loss a husband and two small children, one brother, L. G. Reed, and three sisters, Miss Annie and Mrs. Albert Blaney, all of Maple Ridge, and Mrs. Geo. O. Kennedy, of Lynn, Mass., besides a host of relatives and friends, who miss her greatly.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was conducted by Rev. Mr. Pineo, U. B., assisted by Revs. E. W. Lester and I. F. Keirstead, R. B., and Rev. Mr. Budd, Episcopal.

BEULAH COTTAGES.

When selling or renting cottages at Beulah Camp Ground, don't forget to inform those who buy or rent them of the rules of the Grounds, to avoid unpleasantness. The same is applicable to rooms in the hotel and dormitories.

Dr. Fowler's sermon in this issue is timely, and should be carefully read by all of our readers. Dr. Fowler is the generally recognized leader in the holiness movement in the New England States, and wields a strong influence throughout the continent.

Personals.

Rev. A. Hartt has changed his address to 29 Newton St., Brockton, Mass.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., passed through Fredericton on the 9th inst., having been called to Woodstock on account of a serious relapse in the illness of Mrs. (Dr.) J. E. Jewett.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard expects to hold a series of special services at Beals, Me. His church and Sunday School feel the effect of a long quarantine on account of almost a whole winter's epidemic of diphtheria.

Several have professed conversion in meetings held at Lesterville, Carleton County, held by Brother Perley Briggs, of the Royalton Church; recently, assisted by Brother T. A. Jones. They expect to organize a Sunday School at that place on the 14th inst.

Port Maitland Church has recently been renewed and refreshed inside, and presents a nice appearance. This church has a good Sunday School and Missionary Society, and a good interest in their prayer and preaching services. Rev. S. H. Clark who has been pastor here for the past few years expects to close his pastoral charge the last of June.

Encouraging reports come from the churches on the Hartland Circuit. Brother P. J. Trafton is an energetic worker, and lives at the foot of the cross on the victory side.

Our churches requiring pastors should lose no time in arranging with brethren who are now available, so that all may be settled as to where they are going as early as possible. The brethren who are open for engagement are Revs. H. C. Archer, S. H. Clark, L. T. Sabine, H. Smith, J. H. Coy, H. S. Dow, I. F. Keirstead, possibly others might be induced to change if the best interests of the work required it.

Rev. H. S. Dow writes that he has decided not to accept the call to remain pastor of the Woodstock for another year.

Evangelists H. S. and Mrs. Mullen have just closed a meeting with Pastor S. H. Clark at Cedar Lake, N. S., and are now beginning a series of meetings at Brazil Lake with Brother Clark. From there Brother and Sister Mullen will probably go to Beals, Me., to assist Brother C. S. Hilyard.

Rev. E. W. Lester has been holding special services at Lower Hainesville during the past two weeks, with good results. Six young people professed conversion. One was sanctified wholly, others were reclaimed, and the church much refreshed and strengthened.

Rev. A. H. and Sister Trafton will reach their fiftieth milestone of their married life July 6th.

Another brother and sister, who are highly esteemed by us, and have been prominent in the denomination from the beginning, will also reach their fiftieth anniversary about July 3rd.

It will be very fitting to have these anniversaries as a feature of the 28th anniversary of the organization of the Reformed Baptist Alliance at Beulah Camp Ground.

Rev. L. T. Sabine and family are at Riversdale, Digby Co., N. S. He is preaching Sundays in that vicinity. Address him as above.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead spent Sunday, 7th inst., at Clarkville. Sister Keirstead has been unwell of late. Her ambition to work for the Master exceeds her strength, but we are glad that the fire of heavenly love burns in her heart to work at home as well as in the foreign field.

Plan to attend the Quarterly Meeting at Millville, June 8-12. Expect an excellent meeting.
