THE FATAL SLEEP.

Some time ago a vessel had been off on a whaling voyage, and had been gone about three years. The father of one of the sailors had charge of the lighthouse, and he was expecting his boy to come home. It was time for the whaling vessel to return. One night there came up a terrible gale. This father fell asleep, and while he slept his light went out. When he awoke he looked toward the shore and saw a vessel had been wrecked. He at once went to see if he could not yet save someone who might be still alive. The first body that came floating toward the shore was, to his great grief and surprise, the body of his own boy! He had been watching for that boy for many days. Now the boy had at last come in sight of home, and had perished because his father had let his light go out!

I thought, what an illustration of fathers and mothers today that have let their lights go out! You are training your children for God and eternity. You do not live as though there were anything beyond this life at all. You keep your affections set upon things on earth instead of on things above, and the result is that the children do not believe there is anything in Christianity. Perhaps the very next step they take may take them into eternity; the next day they may die without God and without hope.—D. L. Moody.

Personals.

Brother George Tedlie and family suffered a very heavy loss last week by the burning of their nice home at Lower Brighton, including a hundred barrels of potatoes in the cellar and much loss and damage to their furniture.

Sister Adelia H. Gordon says: "I love the Highway, and feel that I cannot do without it. May the Lord's blessing be upon you. I am saved and cleansed from all sin."

Brother W. C. Grant, of Augusta, Maine, spent three weeks visiting relatives and friends at Southampton. He returned home the first of this week.

Miss Ethel L. Boyer, daughter of Sister A. J. Boyer, is now at Cairo, Egypt, transferred from France.

A brother has sent the first quarterly payment toward the support of a female native worker at our Mission Station in South Africa. We feel assured that the Lord will richly reward him in his work.

RE-UNION.

We would be delighted if we could arrange a re-union of the charter members of the "Reformed Baptist Alliance," organized at Woodstock, N.B., Nov. 3rd, 1888, and all the charter members of the churches, to have a grand celebration of our twenty-eighth anniversary. Talk it up, and plan for it to be held at Beulah about the 27th of June, 1916.

PRESENTATIONS.

The Berea Bible Class of Victoria Corner met at the R. B. parsonage, Hartland, on Monday evening, Jan. 3rd. At the conclusion of the lesson study, Charles M. Shaw, on behalf of the class and friends at Victoria Corner, in a neat speech, presented Rev. P. J. Trafton with a beautiful Bible. This gift is much appreciated by their teacher and pastor, as it is the style of Bible he has been wishing for for some time.

The friends at Gordonsville recently presented their pastor, Rev. P. J. Trafton, with thirteen bushels of wheat and ten bushels of oats, and one of the brethren was kind enough to bring it into Hartland.

A GOOD REST CURE.

It is found in a very old-fashioned book, but really it is quite modern and up-to-date, scientific if you will. "Rest in the Lord," the formula reads. Have you ever tried it? We commend it highly. It will do you much more good than either the mountains or the sea shore. You know the matter with you is not that you have been working too hard or are bearing too heavy a load of responsibility and duty. The real trouble is that you are carrying around with you too many anxieties and worries about yourself and other people, and the whole world in general. If you could roll these all off once in a while and get an unburdened, fresh, sane outlook upon life in general, and your own life in particular, the tension would leave you and you would find rest and refreshment right down in your very soul. The man who wrote that old recipe knew life to its very core and reality, and spoke out of an experience that sounded the very depths. God is the soul's rest, man's only true sanctuary.—Christian Guardian.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins received their annual gifts and addresses from the church and Sunday school at Moncton, N.B. This church is certainly fulfilling 1 Thess 5-13.

A class for Bible study has been organized at Hartland. Rev. P. J. Trafton, teacher.

Rev. A. H. and Sister Trafton are settled in their home at Woodstock, N.B., and Brother Trafton is preaching at Greenbush and Bedell Settlement.

The church at Woodstock held daily prayer meetings last week, and are now in special services. Evangelist G. J. Kunz, of New York, is the special worker.

Brother H. S. and Sister Mullen are assisting Brother H. C. Mullen at North Head, Grand Manan, N.B. We ask all to unite in prayer for great success in these special services.

Brother G. W. Cray has moved to Caribou, Me., and is conducting meetings at Grimes, Me. He expects Brother F. W. Foster to hold a series of meetings there in February. Brother Cray reports hard fighting and encouraging victories.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, pastor of the Hartland Church, continued the services after the close of the quarterly meeting. Brother F. W. Foster assisted him until Dec. 27th, with grand results.

Evangelist George J. Kunz, of Syracuse, New York, is to assist Brother Trafton at Hartland, and perhaps at other points on his circuit after he closes at Woodstock.

Brother F. W. Foster is now assisting Rev. S. H. Clark in Nova Scotia, and we are anticipating a great victory for them.

Sister I. F. Keirstead conducted the evening service at St. John on the 9th inst, Pastor G. B. Trafton being confined to his home by sickness.

A missionary meeting was held in Fredericton on Tuesday evening last. Sister Keirstead was present, and gave a very interesting address. She returned to her home at Millville on the 12th. Her health is much improved.

The editor and Mrs. Baker wish to acknowledge kind remembrances from friends in India, California, Florida, Vancouver, Alberta, Ohio, and many other places nearer home, all of which they appreciate very highly.

The Fredericton Adult Bible Class made a pleasant visit at the parsonage on New Year's eve, an enjoyable time being spent. Deacon D. F. Knight spoke very encouragingly of the pastor and Mrs. Baker and their work, and Brother Robert Barr spoke of the happy relationship existing between the class and their teacher, and presented him with $32 as a New Year's gift from the class.

Brother S. H. Clark reports that he has begun special services at Port Maitland, N.S. Brother F. W. Foster preached on Sunday, the 9th, and a good day was enjoyed. The churches of Port Maitland held union meetings during the Week of Prayer.

Brother I. F. Keirstead and his two sons returned to Millville from King's County last week. Brother Keirstead's health is not very good.

All of our readers will be glad to see our dear Brother and Sister Seeley. We are hoping to see them at Beulah and Riverside Camp meetings.
