THE LATE MR. AND MRS. JOHN N. SANDERS

Father and Mother of Missionary Rev. Herbert C. Sanders, M.D., of Paulpietersburg, South Africa

OBITUARY

John N. Saunders.

Brother Sanders died suddenly at his home in Woodstock, N. B., April 18th, aged about 80 years. He is survived by a widow, his second wife, whom he married a few years ago in Woodstock, and two sons, councillor George Sanders of Port Maitland, N.S., and Rev. H. C. Sanders M.D. of Paulpietersburg, South Africa. They leave twelve grand-children and two great-grand-children. The late Mrs. Sanders was born May 7th 1864 and died in Aug. 1908, aged 62 years.

Brother Sanders was born Oct. 5th 1837. They were married April 12th, 1863 by Rev. Aaron Cogswell.

The funeral service was conducted at his late residence in Woodstock by Rev. A. H. Trafton, and his remains were taken by his son George to Darling Lake N.S. and the service at the grave was conducted by Rev. S. H. Clarke.

Brother Sanders and his first wife, whose picture appears in this paper were charter members of the Port Maitland, N.S. Reformed Baptist church and for several years stood as staunch advocates of the experience of entire sanctification, and wielded a strong influence for righteousness in that community.

After the death of his first wife he went to Carleton County, N. B. and lived for a time with his son, Dr. H. C. Sanders, while he was home on a furlough, and for a time at Woodstock, N.B., and finally settled there, and united with the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church.

The Highway with its readers who were acquainted with our late Brother Sanders, join in extending sympathy to the widow and the sons in their sudden and sad bereavement. Their loss is surely Brother Sander's eternal gain.

Tedford

Another member of our little flock at Port Maitland has crossed over into the land that knows no suffering and sorrow, of which she had borne a major share while here with us, in the person of Sister Leuella Tedford widow of the late Brother Lewis Tedford who preceded our sister about eight years ago.

Sister Tedford has not been very strong in body for some years and since the death of Brother Tedford she has been a faithful mother to her three children and a never failing exponent of the cause of Holiness, ever ready to give a reason for the hope within her. At the time of Brother Tedford's death their home was in Ohio, N.S., where Sister Tedford remained until about a year ago when she and her two youngest children joined her eldest son, Robert in Portland, Maine, and since that time has lived there and on the morning of May 27th entered her eternal rest.

Sister Tedford was 55 years of age and leaves to mourn her loss two sons James R. and Clare. Also daughters Susie. One brother in Danvers, Mass., two sisters, Mrs. Moses of Ohio and Mrs. Porter of Carleton, N.S.

It can truly be said of Sister Tedford that one of God's faithful ones has been called home.

The remains of Our Sister arrived in Port Maitland on May 31st, accompanied by her eldest son and burial took place in Port Maitland cemetery beside that of her late husband.

Much sympathy is felt for the family.

The floral offerings were beautiful. The service at the grave was conducted by her former pastor S. H. Clark.

Charles McGuigan.

At the home of his daughter Mrs. Walter Kelly, Millville, N. B., May 13th 1916, Charles McGuigan, aged 57 years.

He leaves to mourn their loss four sons and three daughters all of Millville

The funeral services were held on the 15th conducted by Rev. E. W. Lester.

We extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their affliction.

Mrs. John A. Parent.

After three years illness of consumption, June 1st. Sister Annie L. Parent, wife of John A. Parent, formerly of Temperance Vale, York Co., N. B., age 69 years.

Sister Parent was a daughter of the late John and Mrs. Hartley of Shogomoc, N. B. She is survived by four sisters who reside in Seattle, Washington, and two brothers. Adolphus Hartley, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Thomas Hartley of Seattle, Washington. Sister Parent has resided in Fredericton for the past ten years and was a charter member of the Fredericton Reformed Baptist Church. The funeral service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sentner, Charlotte St., Fredericton where she was tenderly cared for during the last three months of her sickness by her husband and her niece, Mrs. Sentner. Her remains were interred in the rural cemetery at Fredericton. The funeral service was conducted by Pastor S. A. Baker. The pallbearers were D. F. Knight, S. Minne, Charles Barker and Glazier Currie.

THE SCRIPTURES.

What glory gilds the sacred page!

Majestic, like the sun,
It gives a light to every age;
It gives, but borrows none.

The power that gave it still supplies

The gracious light and heat;
Its truths upon the nations rise;
They rise, but never set.
Lord, everlasting thanks be Thine
For such a bright display,
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

My soul rejoices to pursue

The steps of Him I love,
Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

William Cowper.

Those wishing to secure rooms in the River-view Dormitory during the Alliance and Camp Meeting should write Rev. S. H. Clark at Port Maitland, N.S., at once, as he will leave for Beulah in a few days.
