

HOLINESS.

The beauty of holiness, of that inward man of the heart which is renewed after the image of God, cannot but strike every eye which God hath opened,—every enlightened understanding. The ornament of a meek, humble, loving spirit, will at least excite the approbation of all those who are capable, in any degree, of discerning spiritual good and evil. From the hour men begin to emerge out of the darkness which covers the giddy, unthinking world, they cannot but perceive how desirable a thing it is to be thus transformed into the likeness of him that created us. This inward religion bears the shape of God so visibly impressed upon it, that a soul must be wholly immersed in flesh and blood, when he can doubt of its divine original. We may say of this in a secondary sense, even as of the son of God himself, that it is the "brightness of his glory, the express image of his person;" The Beaming Forth of His eternal Glory, and yet so tempered and softened, that even the children of men may herein see God and live; The Character, The Stamp, The Living Impression of His Person, who is the Fountain of beauty and love, the original source of all excellency and perfection.

ALLIANCE MEETING

Beals, Me., May 26, 1916.

The twenty-eighth annual meeting of the Alliance of the Reformed Baptists of Canada will convene at Beulah Camp Ground, Kings Co., N. B., Wednesday, June 28, at 10.30 a.m. Let us all be much in prayer that God may give us a gracious outpouring Spirit, and that this may be the greatest meeting we have ever had. God has blessed us in the past, but he has not exhausted himself, and what he has done is only a foretaste of what he will yet do. Let all the committees be on hand and have their reports ready, that we may not drag into the camp meeting. The chairman of each committee is as follows:

Don't say "can't" go to the Alliance and Camp Meetings. Cut the "t" off and shout a few times, and repeat "I can, I can, I can," and put on your Camp Meeting suit of clothes, grab your grip and say, "I will go!"

ALLIANCE.

The 28th annual meeting of "The Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada," will convene at Beulah Camp Ground, King's Co., N. B., on Wednesday, June 28th, 1916, at 10.30 a.m. The first business session will take place in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. All the pastors are expected to be present at the business session, and each church to be represented by two delegates, as well as one delegate from each Mission Society.

Let us have a good delegation this year of both laymen and pastors. Make an effort, beloved, to come.

The Secretary.

Dear Editor:

Enclosed please find my contribution for Balmoral Farm Fund and twenty-five cents for group of our ministers and missionaries. Yes, I like the Highway. It came into our home a number of years and I am still taking it. I don't know how I could do without it. It always brings a blessing with it. Wish we could have it weekly.

My testimony is: I am saved, sanctified and kept by power divine.

Mrs. Esther Lovely.

Correspondence.

Dear Highway:

Glad to let our friends know through the clean pages of the Highway, which always stands for holiness, that we are standing on the solid rock, Christ Jesus, who has saved us from sin and cleansed our hearts from all unrighteousness, and established our goings, and has given us a new song to sing. We would like very much to attend the Camp Meetings this year and to hear the glorious gospel of holiness preached again, but as we cannot we pray that many will be saved and sanctified during these meetings.

Wishing you every success in all the good work for the Master, we remain,

Your Brother and Sister in Christ,
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Turner.
 Greenfield Park, Que.

Dear Highway:

Just a word of greeting to all the family of the Highway, whose visits are as welcome as ever. It is like eating at the same table for us all to sit down to enjoy the good things of the Highway's pages at the same time, is it not? I shall be thinking of you at the Camp Meetings. Hope some may send a thought or prayer my way. I thought I should see much repenting and turning to the Lord in these troublous times, but not so. The crowds seem still on pleasure bent.

My testimony is that I have committed my all into His keeping, and He keeps!

Trusting in the merits of Jesus, I am,
 yours,

A. J. Simonds.

Coronation,
 May 24, 1916.

Dear Editor:

Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway.

Blest are the pure in heart,
 For they our God shall see,
 And from his presence ne'er depart
 Through all eternity.

I will be their delight
 Who here delight in me,
 And they shall walk with me in white
 Who seek for purity.

No more in thought they err;
 They're free from every stain;
 They've washed their robes of character
 And spotless they remain.

O bliss for which we've sought
 From sin to be secure
 In every word and act and thought,
 Forever to be pure.

—Geo. W. Bishop.

"Men do not excel today, because after their conversion, they do not go apart, like Moses and Paul, into Horeb and Arabia for a season. Young Christians must go into Arabia. Book-learning will never make preachers. You must get away alone with God and His Holy Word, and let God speak to you until you can see God."—H. W. Webb-Peploe.

In my opinion no one is fit for God's service until he is willing to be considered mad by the world. They said Paul was mad. I wish we had many more who were bitten with the same kind of madness. As someone has said: "If we are mad, we have a good keeper on the way and a good asylum at the end of the road."—D. L. Moody.
