

Local and General.

The Nisi Prius Sittings of the Supreme Court are being held, Judge King, presiding. The first civil case, Elliott vs. Merrithew, has been tried and a verdict given for the plaintiff of $20. Messrs. Vanwart and E. L. Wetmore, Esq. for plaintiff, and G. F. Gregory, Esq. for defendant.

Answer This.

Did you ever know any person to be ill without inaction of the Stomach, Liver, or Kidneys, or did you ever know one well when either was obstructed or inactive; and did you ever know or hear of any case of the kind that Hop Bitters would not cure? Ask your neighbor the same question.—Times.

At recent meeting of the church of England Temperance Society it was agreed to accept the plans for a new hall prepared by Mr. Mitchell. They indicate a neat looking two story building to be erected on the corner of Carleton and Brunswick Streets at a cost of about $4,000.

"You are my prisoner," said Policeman Christie the other evening to a beautiful young man who had just left his sweetest at the door of her residence. As the couple sallied down Queen street the young man no doubt felt the incident to be a step from the sublime to the ridiculous. All occasioned by a violation of the C. T. Act.

The annual service in the Free Baptist Church on Monday evening was largely attended and was a grand success. The ladies of the congregation provided an abundance of refreshment for all present, and the pleasure of the gathering was greatly increased by the rendering of an excellent musical programme. We are pleased to learn that subscriptions were received amounting to over $200.

The evidence in the Oliver Bigamy case was concluded on Thursday, after which E. L. Wetmore, Esq. addressed the jury on behalf of the Crown, and George T. Gregory, Esq. on behalf of the prisoner. His Honor, Judge Steadman read the principal points in the evidence, and the jury then retired to their room. After a very brief stay they returned with a verdict of guilty, with recommendation to mercy. As Mr. Gregory is to be heard on some reserved points, the prisoner was not sentenced.

The Court opened on Friday morning, but in consequence of the Judge having received intelligence of the death of his brother, it was adjourned until this (Thursday) morning.

Ball and Promenade Concert.

A number of influential citizens attended the meeting called by Mayor Fisher in the Council Chamber, City Hall, on Friday evening to take into consideration some means of entertaining the members of the Legislature upon their assembling in the new buildings next month. The Mayor was called to the Chair, and C. W. Beckwith, Esq., appointed Secretary. On taking the chair the Mayor stated the objects of the meeting and why it was called.

There appeared to be considerable difference of opinion as to what the proposed promenade should be called. Mr. Van Wart thought if a ball were given many of our citizens would be deprived of attending, and suggested a promenade concert. Mr. C. H. Logrin thought there was no necessity for calling it a ball or promenade concert, but that some new name might be manufactured. Mr. J. S. Beck suggested that it merely be known as a reception to the members of the Legislature. Mr. John Bouchard expressed doubt about anything being called a ball being made to pay expenses, and furthermore believed in calling every thing by its right name. Ald. Simmons thought if Mr. Van Wart's motion was changed so as to read ball and promenade concert, it would meet with the views of the meeting. Mr. A. G. Beckwith stated that the Assembly room could be used for the promenade, and the Council Chamber for the ball. Dr. Brown first wanted a ball, but he was willing to have the promenade concert added. After Mr. A. F. Street showed that two tickets could be procured one for up stairs, and the other down, the question upon Mr. Van Wart's motion was taken and adopted by a vote of 24, says 13.

The Mayor then appointed Messrs A G Beckwith, Dr Brown and N A Cliff a committee to select a committee of twenty to carry out arrangements. After consultation they recommended the following general committee: His Worship the Mayor, Chief Justice Allen, F B Edgecombe, Jas S Beck, Julius L Inches, Sheriff Temple, Geo E Fenety, Dr McAllister, John McDonald, James S Neely, W A Quinn, John Richards, A F Street, G H Simmons, W W Street, E L Wetmore, E Byron Winslow, A G Beckwith, N A Cliff, Dr Brown.

The gentlemen present then signed a paper agreeing to make good any deficit that might occur in carrying out the proposed arrangements. At a subsequent meeting of the committee the names of twenty additional citizens were added, some of whom have not yet consented to act, and the sub-committee were struck as follows: Invitations: John Richards, Thos. Temple, James S Beck, A F Street, Dr Brown, Alderman Simmons and Patrick Dever. Printing: His Worship the Mayor, City Clerk and John Richards. Music: A G Beckwith, T G Loggie, W A Quinn, J S Neill, and N A Cliff. Assistant Secretary to General Committee: W A Quinn. Programme: A G Beckwith, A F Street, F B Edgecombe, Dr McAllister, T G Loggie, and Alderman Simmons.

Refreshment: A G Beckwith, E B Winslow, Capt. Leigh, George H Davis, Leonard Johnson, J L Inches, Wm K Allen, J Douglas Hazen, J A Van Wart, Dr Coulthrad and John Babbitt. Preparation: A G Beckwith, T B Winslow, W W Street, J Douglas Hazen, James S Beck, T G Loggie, J L Inches, Geo E Fenety, John Richards, Capt. Leigh, John McDonald, N A Cliff and Sheriff Temple. Reception: His Worship the Mayor, His Honor Chief Justice and Sheriff Temple. The Committee then adjourned to meet to night in the Council Chamber, at 8 o'clock.

Foreshadowed Victories.

We have heard of the hard-faced men die against the visionary plans of youth, and against the dreams of boyhood! How few there are who, like Professor Holloway, can cast an eye around the world and say: "Behold the fulfillment of my early dreams!" With him those dreams were prophetic, and we are likewise told that in the month of his first Napoleon was flushed with visions of imperial power even from the very earliest years of his life. He was the first of the great majority of men the glorious dreams of boyhood produce no realizing issue. With Holloway the case was different. The sufferings of the sick aroused his boyish nature into a fixed resolve to meet and conquer malady. His studies from his earliest years were controlled and governed by the desire of rescuing the human family from the fangs of physical prostration and decay. He found that all maladies took their rise from an impurity of the blood, and that, whatever might be the form of the disease, it could be reached and eradicated by the restoration of the vital fluid to its pristine and normal purity. Having made this amazing discovery, he had now (as he then thought) but one further case, and that was to find such a combination of curative principles as could, under any and all circumstances, be relied upon for rectifying the disordered condition of the stream of life. In the production of the Universal Remedy he was in search of; and on the announcement of his specific cure, the overcrowding of all the fortunes which he had hoped to extort from their false profession of the healing art.

At the meeting of the church of England Temperance Society it was agreed to accept the plans for a new hall prepared by Mr. Mitchell. They indicate a neat looking two story building to be erected on the corner of Carleton and Brunswick Streets at a cost of about $4,000.
