

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Sister Keirstead, although not enjoying good health, sets a pace in her work that few pastors' wives keep up with. During the past three months she has attended an average of four meetings a week, made over 100 calls (many of them requiring much driving, as well as the meetings she attends), nursed sick people thirty days, entertained much company, beside the ordinary home cares and labour—It might be well for some pastors to take a leaf from this record.

Rev. H. C. Mullen will begin revival services at North Head, Grand Manan, Nov. 11th. Rev. W. E. Smith, of Monroeton, Pa., assisting him.

We have heard indirectly that Brother Smith will also assist Brother Wiggins in a series of meetings at Woodstock the first of December.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead baptized three converts at Norton Dale, Sept. 30th. He also spent a Sunday at Royalton recently, preaching twice; at Lesterville once.

Our church is without a pastor this year, which we regret.

Brother Keirstead's services on his circuit were conducted by the Praying Band at Maple Ridge and Sister Keirstead at Upper Hainesville.

Rev. P. J. Trafton received three members into the Lower Brighton Church on the 14th inst.

The services at Moncton are very encouraging. Some have been renewed lately after years of backslidden life; others who have come into the meetings have been refreshed in their Christian experience. Some brethren have noted the spiritual uplift so frequently received by those coming in that they say they come in for repairs, and were helped on their feet again. So we can truly say our meetings are times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

Rev. G. B. Trafton preached at Norton on the 21st. The people there enjoy the labours of Brother Trafton very much.

Pastor S. A. and Mrs. Baker visited Nixon, Albert County, on the 17th. Several workers from the Moncton church came out in the evening and a very profitable service was held in the church at Nixon. Six young men arose for prayers. The congregation gave us a cordial invitation to come again.

Evangelist F. W. Foster is to begin special services with Pastor H. C. Archer at Fredericton, Nov. 11th. We made a mistake in the date in last Highway. Brother Foster's engagements include Fredericton, Calais, Me., Everett, Mass., and Jonesport, Me., besides many other calls.

Rev. P. J. Trafton preached at Somersfield, Car. Co., in the new Union Church, where special services are being held by Rev. Mr. Bickford. Three were at the altar seeking the baptism with the Holy Ghost and fire. Amen.

Brother Trafton is making an effort to free the Hartland church from debt, and expects to accomplish it this week.

There is a good interest at Gordonsville, one member was received into the church on the 21st by the pastor.

Royalton Church should have a pastor; a young brother a short time ago told us he felt drawn to that field.
